No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As reported in the Registrant's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on October 27, 2010, on October 21, 2010, the Registrant acquired a privately held Florida corporation, which operates a retail pharmacy. As reported in the Registrant's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on January 6, 2011, on December 31, 2010, the Company entered into an Asset Transfer, Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the "Transfer Agreement") with Futura Pictures, Inc. ("Futura"). Pursuant to the Transfer Agreement, the Company transferred all of the assets and liabilities associated with its workforce training business to Futura in exchange for the assumption by Futura of certain liabilities associated with the Company's workforce training business (the "Asset Transfer"). Following the Asset Transfer, the Company's primary business is the operation of a retail pharmacy. As a result of the acquisition completed in October 2010 and the Asset Transfer, the Company expects to report net income for the year ended December 31, 2010 as compared to a net loss reported in the year ended May 31, 2010.
