Item 8.01 Other Events.

NRG Energy, Inc., or NRG, today announced that David Crane, its President and Chief Executive Officer, has terminated his prearranged trading plan that was originally adopted in order to exercise stock options that will expire at the end of 2014 and to sell other shares of common stock representing a portion of his current ownership of NRG stock for personal financial management purposes. The stock trading plan was adopted in accordance with the guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Mr. Crane has elected to terminate his stock trading plan with the intention of acquiring additional shares of NRG common stock in the open market.
