(the Registrant or Cascades or the Company), see pages 44 to 97, respectively of Cascades' 2005 Annual Report attached hereto as Exhibit 13.2. See Note 25 of the Notes to the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements on pages 87 through 97 of Cascades' 2005 Annual Report, describing the important differences between Canadian and United States generally accepted accounting principles and reconciling net earnings, shareholders' equity and balance sheet to United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operation

Edgar Filing: CASCADE CORP - Form 40-F

For management's discussion and analysis of financial position and results of operations, see pages 1 to 43 of Cascades' 2005 Annual Report attached hereto as Exhibit 13.3.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Edgar Filing: CASCADE CORP - Form 40-F

The Registrant conducted an evaluation (under the supervision and with the participation of the Registrant's management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer as of December 31, 2005), pursuant to Rule 13a-15 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act) of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures. Based on this evaluation, the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the registrant in reports it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). It should be noted that while the Registrant's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer believe that the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures provide a reasonable level of assurance that they are effective, they do not expect that the Registrant's disclosure controls and procedures or internal control over financial reporting will prevent all errors and fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived or operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met.

Changes in Internal Controls

There was no change in the Registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this report that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, its internal control over financial reporting.

Code of Ethics

For a discussion of the Company's Code of Ethics, see page 13 of Cascades' Annual Information Form for the year ended December 31, 2005 (AIF) attached hereto as Exhibit 13.1. There were neither amendments to nor waivers, including implicit waivers, from any provision of the Code of Ethics during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 that applied to the Company's principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions. The Code of Ethics is available on the Company's website at www.cascades.com.

Audit Committee

The Registrant has a separately designated standing audit committee (the Audit Committee) established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Exchange Act. The Audit Committee is composed entirely of directors who are independent, as such term is defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. All members of the Audit Committee are financially literate and there are three audit committee financial experts. In considering criteria for the determination of financial literacy, the Board of Directors considers the ability to read and understand a set of financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that are generally comparable to the breadth and complexity of the issues that can reasonably be expected to be raised by the Registrant's financial statements. In determining whether Audit Committee members are audit committee financial experts, the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee have considered the attributes described by the SEC. The audit committee financial experts are André Desaulniers, Robert Chevrier and James B.C. Doak. The other member of the Audit Committee is Laurent Verreault.
