(1) Genzyme will vote, and cause its affiliates to vote, all shares of Alnylam voting securities it is entitled to vote, up to a maximum of 20% of Alnylam's outstanding common stock, in a manner either as recommended by Alnylam's board of directors or proportionally with the votes cast by the other stockholders, except with respect to certain change of control transactions or the liquidation or dissolution of Alnylam.

(2) Genzyme may not dispose of 8,766,338 common stock beneficially owned by it until the earlier of (i) December 31, 2019 (subject to extension by up to two years if Genzyme's option to select additional compounds under the master agreement is extended beyond December 31, 2019) and (ii) six months after the expiration or earlier valid termination of the collaboration, in each case subject to earlier termination in the event certain clinical activities under the collaboration fail to occur. Following the expiration of this lock-up period, Genzyme will be permitted to sell such shares of common stock subject to certain limitations, including volume and manner of sale restrictions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the two-year anniversary of the closing of the stock purchase, in the event that the market price per share of Alnylam's common stock is at least 100% higher than the market price per share of its common stock at closing of the stock purchase (in each case based upon a ten-day trailing average), Genzyme may sell up to 25% of its initial shares, subject to certain restrictions on post-lock-up period dispositions as described above.

1,285,265 additional common stock are currently covered by a 60-day lock-up agreement (which may be extended under certain circumstances).
