PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously reported in PubliCARD, Inc.'s (the "Company") Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, the Company has incurred operating losses, a substantial decline in working capital and negative cash flow from operations for a number of years, the Company has experienced a substantial reduction in its cash and short term investments, and management believes that existing cash and short-term investments will not be sufficient to permit the Company to continue operating in the near future, which would likely result in the Company ceasing operations, and resulting in the Company's inability to continue as a going concern. As a result of this severe financial situation, the Company has an extremely limited number of members of management, and management has been devoting substantially all of its time to attempting to address this financial situation (although there is no assurance that these efforts will be successful). Accordingly, the Company is experiencing delays in compiling certain required information necessary for the completion of its Quarterly Report for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 (the September 10-Q). As a result, the Company represents that it could not, without unreasonable effort or expense, timely file the September 10-Q. The Company represents that the September 10-Q will be filed no later than the fifth calendar day following the date on which it was due.

Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.
