Commentary

The Saudi British Bank (SABB) recorded a net profit of SAR1,436 million (US$383 million) for the six months ended 30 June 2009. Net special commission income increased by SAR102 million (US$27 million), or 6.1 per cent, compared with the first half of 2008 reflecting higher average asset volumes. Total non-funds income grew by SAR45 million (US$12 million), or 5.3 per cent, with higher foreign exchange and trade-related income streams compensating for lower levels of share brokerage and mutual fund fees.

Cost growth has been contained to SAR22 million (US$6 million), or 2.8 per cent, compared with the first half of 2008 delivering a cost:income ratio of 30.6 per cent for the first half of 2009 compared to 31.5 per cent for the same period in 2008. No impairment of other financial assets occurred in the first six months of 2009 compared to a SAR61 million (US$16 million) write-down reported for the same period in 2008. Income from associates fell by SAR56 million (US$15 million), or 80.7 per cent, reflecting the challenging market conditions experienced in the first half of 2009 compared to the same period in 2008.

Richard Groves, Managing Director of SABB, said: "SABB's strong operating income streams have allowed the bank to report robust profits for the first half of 2009 despite a SAR246 million (US$66 million) increase in provisions for possible credit losses as compared with the same period in 2008 as a result of conservative credit policy.

"Deposit growth of SAR2.4 billion (US$0.6 billion), or 2.7 per cent, over the last 12 months has been balanced by loans and advances growth of SAR1.2 billion (US$0.3 billion), or 1.5 per cent, with new loans granted being partially offset by scheduled repayments of existing facilities and lower levels of overdraft. Surplus deposits continue to be invested predominantly in Saudi government instruments. SABB's capital and liquidity positions remain strong as does the overall quality of the loan book.

"We thank our customers for their continued support and our staff for their commitment and contribution to the bank's success."

SABB's Board of Directors has approved the payment of a gross interim dividend of SAR660 million (US$176 million) for the first half of 2009, equal to that paid in 2008. This represents a net distribution of SAR0.83 per share to Saudi shareholders after the deduction of Zakat.

Payment of dividends shall commence with effect from Monday 27 July 2009 for shareholders registered in the bank's record as at the end of trading on Monday 20 July 2009.
