Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant is an Alabama corporation. Section 10-2B-8.50 et. seq. of the Alabama Business Corporation Act (the ABCA) empowers an Alabama corporation to indemnify any person who is made a party to any proceeding because he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise. A corporation may indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A corporation may, in advance of the final disposition of any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding, pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by any officer or director in defending such action, provided that the director or officer undertakes to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

An Alabama corporation may not indemnify officers and directors in connection with any action by or in the right of the corporation in which the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation, or any other action charging improper personal benefit to the officer or director in which the officer or director is adjudged to be liable to the corporation on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by him or her.

Where an officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action referred to above, the corporation must indemnify him against the expenses (including attorneys' fees) which he actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.

The indemnification provided by statute (discussed above) is not deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which an officer or director may be entitled under any corporation's bylaws, agreement, vote or otherwise.

The Registrant's Articles of Incorporation provides that a director shall not be held personally liable to the Registrant or its shareholders for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action as a director, except this provision shall not eliminate the liability of a director for (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he or she is not entitled; (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the Registrant or the shareholders; (iii) a violation of Section 10-2B-8.33 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act (regarding unlawful distributions); (iv) an intentional violation of criminal law; or (v) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its shareholders. It is the intention that the directors of the Registrant be protected from personal liability to the fullest extent permitted by the Alabama Business Corporation Act as it now or hereafter exists. If at any time in the future the Alabama Business Corporation Act is modified to permit further or additional limitations on the extent to which directors may be held personally liable to the Registrant, the protection afforded by these provisions in the Registrant's Articles of Incorporation shall be expanded to afford the maximum protection permitted under such law.

The Registrant's Bylaws provide that the Registrant shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including appeals and whether formal or informal by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, to the fullest extent authorized by Alabama Law against all expense, liability and loss reasonably incurred by such indemnitee in such action, suit or proceeding. The Registrant's Bylaws also provide for mandatory advancement of expenses to such indemnitees, provided certain conditions are satisfied.

The Registrant's Bylaws also provide that the Registrant may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Registrant or of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss.
