PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.)

On September 22, 2004, Dynegy Inc. (Dynegy) issued a press release and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a Current Report on Form 8-K (the Report) announcing that the previously issued financial statements contained in Dynegy s 2003 Form 10-K and first and second quarter 2004 Form 10-Qs should not be relied upon because of errors in those financial statements and that those financial statements would be restated to reflect the necessary accounting adjustments. These restatements relate to, as discussed in further detail in the Report, Dynegy s (i) previously disclosed goodwill impairment charge associated with the then pending sale of Illinois Power and (ii) deferred income tax accounts.

Because of the additional time required to quantify the adjustments and determine the periods affected related to Dynegy s deferred income tax accounts with respect to the periods to be presented in Dynegy s Form 10-Q for the period ending September 30, 2004 (the Form 10-Q), Dynegy could not file its Form 10-Q on or before November 9, 2004, without unreasonable effort or expense.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

On September 22, 2004, Dynegy filed the Report announcing that previously issued financial statements contained in its 2003 Form 10-K, as amended, and first and second quarter 2004 Form 10-Qs should not be relied upon and would be restated to reflect adjustments related to Dynegy s previously disclosed goodwill impairment charge associated with the pending sale of Illinois Power and its deferred income tax accounts.

The aggregate effect of the adjustment related to Dynegy's previously disclosed goodwill impairment charge on Dynegy's net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 (as reflected in the schedules to Dynegy's earnings press release for the third quarter 2004 issued on October 28, 2004 and furnished as exhibit 99.1 to Dynegy's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on October 28, 2004) is a reduction in net income of $6 million.

This amount does not reflect the deferred income tax accounts adjustments. As discussed in further detail in the Report, Dynegy is currently engaged in an income tax review initiative. Until Dynegy completes this income tax review initiative with respect to the periods to be presented in the Form 10-Q, it will be unable to determine with certainty the extent of the adjustments to Dynegy's deferred tax liability as reflected on its balance sheet for those periods. However, Dynegy does anticipate, based on its ongoing review of these tax items, that these adjustments will reduce Dynegy's deferred tax liability reflected on its balance sheet.
