Item 11. Executive Compensation
Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Introduction

The primary objectives of our executive compensation plan are to:

align the financial interests of our executives with those of our shareholders;

motivate and retain the executive talent required to successfully implement our business strategy; and provide incentives for achieving our short-term and long-term goals.

To achieve these objectives, our Compensation Committee establishes and reviews compensation packages for our executive officers on an annual basis, consisting of a combination of salary and cash bonus.

Table of Contents

The Compensation Committee meets outside the presence of all of our executive officers to consider appropriate compensation for our CEO. For our other executive officer, the Compensation Committee meets outside the presence of all executive officers except our CEO.

The Compensation Committee considers the recommendations of management when establishing compensation for our executive officers, but relies upon its own judgment to determine each individual's compensation. Factors that affect the Compensation Committee's judgment include each individual's performance and scope of responsibilities, as well as the Company's overall performance.

Elements of Executive Compensation

Executive compensation consists of the following elements:

Base Salary. Base salaries for our executives are established based on the scope of their responsibilities, and taking into account the Company's budget guidelines, labor market conditions, and competitive market compensation paid by other companies for similar positions. Base salaries are reviewed and adjusted annually, to realign salaries with market after taking into account individual responsibilities, performance and experience.

Discretionary Bonus. Bonus targets are based on a percentage of the executive's base salary. The bonus plan allows the payment of up to 20% of the executive salary as a target bonus amount. The bonus is ordinarily paid in a single installment following the completion of a given fiscal year. The individual performance objectives tend to be keyed to the Company's goals in regards to licensing its intellectual property. The Compensation Committee did not recommend any discretionary bonuses for Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzone during fiscal year 2008.

Shareholder Return Bonus. Currently, the Company has a Shareholder Return Bonus program under which Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzone receive a percentage of all monies returned to the shareholders of the Company or if the Company determines not to distribute any third party payments from its intellectual property strategy within six months of receiving that payment. The compensation ranges from 1% to 5% of the amount received from third party payments from the intellectual property strategy. During fiscal 2008, the Company awarded Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzone $155,419 and $103,581 respectively under the Shareholder Return Bonus plan, equal to 3% and 2% of the amounts received from third party payments and not returned to shareholders for Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzone respectively.

Stock Options. The Company does not currently grant stock options to its Executive Officers, as it believes that the bonus programs better align the goals of management and the shareholders of the Company.

Other Compensation. All of our executives are eligible to participate in our employee benefit plans, including medical, dental and 401(k) plans. These plans are available to all full-time employees and do not discriminate in favor of executive officers.

Employment Agreements. During fiscal 2008 the Compensation Committee determined that it would be appropriate to enter into employment agreements with Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzone, primarily in order to document the provisions of the Shareholder Return Bonus program, adjust certain payment thresholds and address program award payments under particular circumstances. The shareholders of the Company at the November 27, 2007 annual meeting approved the employment agreements for Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzone.

Final Analysis. Our current strategic objectives for executive compensation are to compensate our executives fairly and competitively in return for their devoted efforts, and to avoid having the compensation program interfere with what the Company considers (a) an ongoing trend of meaningful progress toward achievement of the OPTi's business objectives and (b) its incentivized, dedicated, collaborative management environment that is already in place.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change In Control

Severance and change-in-control arrangements for Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzoni are included in the employment agreements approved by the shareholders at the November 27, 2007 annual meeting.

The employment agreements provide that Mr. Marren and Mr. Mazzoni will receive a bonus upon a change of control of the Company that is based upon a percentage of third party payments previously distributed to shareholders and net proceeds realized by the Company and its shareholders in connection with the change of control transaction, provided that they sign an irrevocable general release of all claims against the Company. The change of control bonus is calculated as a percentage of the sum of Net Proceeds. Net Proceeds is defined in the employment agreements as the sum of (i) the aggregate amount of all distributions to shareholders between June 1, 2007 and the earlier of the closing of the change of control transaction or October 1, 2013, and (ii) the gross proceeds payable to the Company and/or its shareholders pursuant to the change of control transaction, reduced by any debt of the Company extinguished in the transaction, all investment banking, accounting, legal and similar transaction-related fees incurred by the Company, and the replenishment amount, if applicable.

In the event that Mr. Marren's and/or Mr. Mazzoni's employment is terminated by the Company without cause or is terminated by them for good reason, each as defined in their employment agreements, they will, provided that they sign a general release of all claims against the Company, (i) receive severance payments equal to the sum of their then-current annual base salary, the discretionary bonus awarded to them for the preceding year and the aggregate medical premium reimbursement payments made by the Company for such executive during the previous twelve months, and (ii) be eligible to receive a certain portion of Shareholder Return Bonus payout for amounts distributed to shareholders subsequent to termination arising from infringement actions against third parties that were authorized and/or ongoing prior to their termination. The portion of the Shareholder Return Bonus Mr. Marren or Mr. Mazzoni would be eligible to receive is dependent on the status of the infringement action at the time of such executive's termination. The post-termination bonus amounts (i) are payable only if and when a distribution has been made to shareholders, and (ii) are not subject to reduction due to a replenishment amount, if any. In the event that Mr. Marren or Mr. Mazzoni's employment is terminated due to death or disability, they or their survivors would be eligible to receive Shareholder Return Bonus payouts for certain amounts distributed to shareholders subsequent to their termination.

Item 13. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions, and Director Independence Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

During the Last Fiscal Year the members of the Compensation Committee were Messrs. Nanda and Welling. There were no reportable compensation committee or director interlocks or insider participation during that period.

Related Party Transactions

The Company's policy is that it will not make loans to, or enter into other transactions with, directors, officers or affiliates unless such loans or transactions are (i) approved by the majority of the Company's independent disinterested directors, (ii) may reasonably be expected to benefit the Company, and (iii) will be on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained in arm's length transactions with unaffiliated third parties.

Procedures for Approval of Related Person Transactions

The Board of Directors is responsible for reviewing and approving all material transactions with any related party. Related parties include any of our directors or executive officers, certain of our shareholders and their immediate family members.

We expect our directors, officers and employees to act and make decisions that are in the Company's best interests and encourage them to avoid situations which present a conflict between our interests and their own personal interests. Our directors, officers and employees are prohibited from taking any action that may make it difficult for them to perform their duties, responsibilities and services to the Company in an objective and fair manner. Exceptions are only permitted in the reasonable discretion of the Board of Directors. In addition, we are strictly prohibited from extending personal loans to, or guaranteeing the personal obligations of, any director or officer.

Since the beginning of the Company's Last Fiscal Year, there have been no transactions in which the Company was or is to be a participant and the amount involved exceeds $120,000, and in which any related person had or will have a direct or indirect material interest, and no such transactions are currently proposed.

Director Independence

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Diamond, Nanda and Welling are independent under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and Mr. Marren is not. Under applicable SEC and Nasdaq rules, the existence of certain related party transactions above certain thresholds between a director and the Company are required to be disclosed and preclude a finding by the Board that the director is independent. Although the Board also has the power to consider whether transactions of those types below the thresholds render a director not independent, and to consider whether any other types of transactions, relationships or arrangements (i.e., not specified in the SEC and Nasdaq rules) render a director not independent, the Board did not consider any such items in making its independence determination as to these four directors.

The Audit Committee, Nominating Committee and Compensation Committee are each comprised solely of independent directors, as that term is defined by Rule 4200 of the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules. Each of the members of the Company's audit committee met the standards for audit committee membership set forth in the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules when they were selected for the committee by the Board.
