ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Indemnification

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware. Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) permits a corporation, under specified circumstances, to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and other liabilities actually and reasonably incurred by them as a result of any suit or other proceeding (other than an action brought by or in the right of the corporation) brought against them in their capacity as such (or in their capacity as such for another entity, if they were serving with such other entity at the request of the corporation), if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. Section 145 of the DGCL also provides that directors, officers, employees and agents may also be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by them in connection with a suit brought by or in the right of the corporation if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made, unless otherwise determined by a court, if such person was adjudged liable to the corporation. Reimbursement of defense expenses incurred by directors and officers in the circumstances described above is mandatory when such individuals prevail in the proceeding.

Expenses may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the advanced amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

The DGCL also provides that the indemnification and expense advance provisions described above will not be deemed exclusive of other rights that may be granted by a corporation pursuant to its bylaws, disinterested directors' vote, stockholders' vote, agreement or otherwise.

Article VII of the Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) generally provides for Company indemnification of, and advancement of defense expenses to, persons to maximum the extent permitted by Section 145. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with all of its directors and executive officers that provide for Company indemnification and expense advancement consistent with Section 145.

Exculpation from Liability for the Duty of Care

Section 102 of the DGCL allows a corporation's certificate of incorporation to include a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL (related to the liability of directors for unlawful stock dividends, repurchases or redemptions); or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Consistent with Section 102, Article EIGHTH of the Company's Third Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended (the Certificate of Incorporation) eliminates the personal liability of directors for breaches of fiduciary duty to the extent permitted by Section 102.

Directors and Officers Insurance

The DGCL further provides corporations with the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation in a similar capacity for another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability as described above.

The Company maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance which would indemnify its directors and officers against damages arising out of certain kinds of claims which might be made against them based on their negligent acts or omissions while acting in their capacity as such.

* * * * *

The above discussion of the DGCL and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and indemnification agreements is not intended to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by the DGCL, the Certificate of Incorporation, the Bylaws and the form of indemnification agreement.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement; and

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8, and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Raleigh, State of North Carolina, on the 7th day of December, 2010.
