Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Underwriting Agreement

On June 22, 2011, NuVasive, Inc. (the Company) entered into that certain underwriting agreement (the Underwriting Agreement), by and among the Company and Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and Goldman, Sachs & Co. (the Underwriters), relating to the issuance and sale of $350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Company's 2.75% convertible senior notes due 2017 (or $402,500,000 if the Underwriters exercise their overallotment option) (the Notes). Under the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, the Company granted the Underwriters an option, exercisable for up to 13 days, to purchase up to an additional $52,500,000 principal amount of the Notes solely to cover overallotments, if any. As further described below, on June 24, 2011, the Underwriters exercised their full overallotment option to purchase the additional Notes.

The offering was made pursuant to the Company's effective Registration Statement on Form S-3 (No. 333-175045) (the Registration Statement), including the preliminary prospectus contained therein filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Underwriting Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the Company. Under the terms of the Underwriting Agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters against certain liabilities.

The description of the Underwriting Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Underwriting Agreement attached as Exhibit 1.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Call Option and Warrant Transactions

In connection with the issuance of the Notes, the Company entered into call option transactions (collectively the Call Option Confirmations) with each of Bank of America, N.A., an affiliate of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (Bank of America) and Goldman, Sachs & Co. (Goldman), related to the initial issuance of $350,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of Notes and related to the additional $52,500,000 in aggregate principal amount of Notes issued pursuant to the Underwriters' exercise in full of their option to purchase up to such aggregate principal amount of Notes to cover overallotments on June 24, 2011. The Call Option Confirmations cover the same number of shares of the Company's common stock underlying the Notes. The Company also entered into separate warrant transactions (the Warrant Confirmations) and, with the Call Option Confirmations, the Confirmations) with each of Bank of America and Goldman pursuant to which the Company issued warrants (the Warrants) that will be exercisable into a number of shares of a new series of the Company's preferred stock, called the Series A participating preferred stock (the Preferred Stock), based on the amount, if any, by which the market price per share of the Company's common stock exceeds the strike price of the warrants during a measurement period at the maturity of the Warrants. The Preferred Stock will convert into shares of the Company's common stock if the Company receives the necessary stockholder approvals as described in the Registration Statement. If the Company has not received such stockholder approvals before the warrant transactions are settled, the shares of Preferred Stock will accumulate cash dividends at a specified dividend rate for as long as such shares remain outstanding. The transactions related to the Warrants will have a dilutive effect on the Company's common stock if the market value per share of the Company's common stock exceeds the applicable strike price of the Warrants and the Company has received the necessary stockholder approvals. However, subject to certain conditions, the Company may elect to settle the Warrants in cash. The Company used approximately $32.2 million of the proceeds of the issuance to pay the cost of the Confirmations, taking into account the proceeds from the sale of the Warrants.

The description of the Confirmations is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Confirmations attached as Exhibits 10.1 through 10.8 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
