On August 1, 2011, FreightCar America, Inc. (the Company) terminated the term of the Joint Venture Agreement (the JV Agreement) that it entered into on January 22, 2008 with Titagarh Wagons Limited (Titagarh) to develop railcars for the Indian market. Pursuant to the JV Agreement, the Company and Titagarh formed Titagarh FreightCar Private Limited to initially develop prototype cars based on the Company's designs and assess the market opportunity for railcar production in India. On May 26, 2011, pursuant to the terms of the JV Agreement, the Company notified Titagarh that it was not in compliance with certain of the covenants, terms and conditions of the JV Agreement and provided Titagarh with an opportunity to cure. On August 1, 2011, due to Titagarh's failure to cure its non-compliance with the JV Agreement, the Company notified Titagarh that the Company was exercising its unilateral right under the JV Agreement to terminate the term of the JV Agreement, effective immediately. The Company did not incur a material early termination penalty by reason of this termination.
