Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 8, 2013, FreightCar America, Inc. (the Company) filed a Complaint for Declaratory Judgment (the Complaint) in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, Eastern Division (the Court). The case commenced by the filing of the Complaint is captioned as Case No. 1:13-cv-04889 and names as defendants the United Steel, Paper & Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial & Services Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, CLC (the USW), as well as approximately 650 individual Retiree Defendants (as defined in the Complaint).

The Complaint seeks declaratory relief confirming the Company s right to modify or terminate all welfare benefits provided to the Retiree Defendants. As described in the Complaint, pursuant to a prior settlement agreement among the Company, the USW and the Retiree Defendants, the Company agreed to make certain levels of contributions to medical coverage for the Retiree Defendants and to continue to provide life insurance benefits at their amount at that time under certain of the Company s employee welfare benefit plans. The settlement agreement expressly provided that, as of November 30, 2012, the Company could cease making these contributions. In June 2011, the Company and the USW began discussing the possibility of an extension beyond November 30, 2012 for the Company s contributions to retiree medical coverage and life insurance benefits at a reduced amount and on other mutually acceptable terms. The Company has engaged in voluntary negotiations for the past two years with the USW and counsel for the Retiree Defendants in an effort to reach a consensual agreement regarding such medical and life insurance benefits, but the parties have been unable to reach a final agreement. Accordingly, the Company is terminating, effective October 1, 2013, its contributions for medical coverage provided to the Retiree Defendants and the provision of life insurance benefits. The Company is seeking declaratory relief from the Court to confirm its rights under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, to reduce or terminate retiree medical coverage and life insurance benefits pursuant to the plans. The foregoing summary of the Complaint is qualified by reference to the Complaint in its entirety. A copy of the Complaint is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 99.1.

As noted in the Company s previously filed financial statements, the Company has recorded certain reserves related to postretirement benefit plan obligations, a substantial portion of which relates to the dispute now before the Court. The current reserve amount reflects the Company s best estimate of its exposure under the prior settlement agreement, but such amount could change as a result of the litigation or if the parties agree to an alternative settlement agreement.
