Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant’s Certifying Accountant.

On February 27, 2015, De Joya Griffith, LLC (“De Joya”) was dismissed as the independent registered public accounting firm of Labor Smart, Inc. (the “Company”) and SingerLewak LLP (“SingerLewak”) was engaged as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm. The decision to dismiss De Joya and engage SingerLewak was approved by the Company’s board of directors.

De Joya’s report on the financial statements of the Company for the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012 neither contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor been qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that, the report included an explanatory paragraph with respect to the uncertainty as to the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. During the past two fiscal years and in the subsequent interim period through February 27, 2015, there were (i) no disagreements with De Joya on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of De Joya, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports, and (ii) no reportable events (as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K).

The Company provided De Joya with a copy of the disclosures made in this Current Report on Form 8-K and requested that De Joya furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not it agrees with the disclosures. A copy of such letter is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this report.

During the two most recent fiscal years and in the subsequent interim period through February 27, 2015, the Company has not consulted with SingerLewak with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that would have been rendered on the Company’s financial statements, or any other matters set forth in Item 304(a)(2)(i) or (ii) of Regulation S-K.
