Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Hercules Loan and Security Agreement

In April 2016, FuelCell Energy, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a loan and security agreement with Hercules Capital, Inc. (“Hercules”) for an aggregate principal amount of up to $25.0 million, subject to certain terms and conditions. Among other things, the loan and security agreement required the Company to maintain an unrestricted cash balance of at least (a) 75% of the outstanding loan balance plus (b) the amount of accounts payable not paid within 90 days of the date payment was issued.

On September 5, 2017, the Company and Hercules (and certain other borrower and lender parties) entered into the first amendment to loan and security agreement (such amendment, the “First Amendment”) (1) to require the Company to maintain an unrestricted cash balance of at least the greater of (x) (a) $20.0 million plus (b) the amount of accounts payable not paid within 90 days of the date payment was issued and (y) (a) 100% of the outstanding loan balance plus (b) the amount of accounts payable not paid within 90 days of the date payment was issued and (2) to add an event of default in the event of the delivery of a Triggering Event Redemption Notice (as defined in the Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock of the Company (the “Certificate of Designations”)) pursuant to the Certificate of Designations. Pursuant to the First Amendment, the $20.0 million cash balance was required to be maintained in a deposit account subject to a Blocked Account Control Agreement (as defined in the First Amendment).

On October 27, 2017, the Company, Versa Power Systems, Inc. and Versa Power Systems, Ltd. (collectively, the “Borrowers”) entered into the second amendment to loan and security agreement (such amendment, the “Second Amendment”) with Hercules Funding II, LLC and Hercules (as agent). In the Second Amendment, the requirement to maintain a Blocked Account Control Agreement in favor of Hercules was removed and the minimum cash covenant was reduced and revised to require the Borrowers to maintain an unrestricted cash balance in accounts subject to an account control agreement in favor of Hercules of at least the greater of (x) (a) 75% of the outstanding loan balance plus (b) the amount of accounts payable (as defined under GAAP) not paid within 90 days of the invoice date and (y) (a) at all times prior to the Stockholder Approval Date (as defined in the Certificate of Designations), $20.0 million and (b) at all times on and after the Stockholder Approval Date, $10.0 million (the Stockholder Approval Date is the date on which stockholder approval of the issuance of certain shares upon the conversion and or redemption of the Company’s Series C Convertible Preferred Stock is obtained).

The foregoing summary of the terms of the Second Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Second Amendment, a copy of which is filed and attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
