BARINGTON/HILCO ACQUISITION CORP.

FUNDS 30-DAY EXTENSION OF DATE TO CONSUMMATE BUSINESS COMBINATION

NEW YORK, NY, July 31, 2017 – Barington/Hilco Acquisition Corp. (NASDAQ: BHAC), a blank check acquisition company (the “Company”), announced today that it has deposited $84,546.73 into its trust account to fund a 30-day extension of the date by which it must complete a business combination through August 11, 2017.

On February 10, 2017, the Company’s stockholders approved an extension of the date by which the Company has to complete a business combination for an aggregate of six months, to be implemented and funded by the Company in 30-day increments. The full six-month extension allows the Company until August 11, 2017 to complete a business combination. The Company’s extension through August 11, 2017 is the last of the six possible 30-day extensions that were approved by stockholders.

The Company is holding a special meeting of stockholders on August 9, 2017 (the “Special Meeting”) for the purpose of voting on a new proposal to extend the date by which the Company has to consummate a business combination from August 11, 2017 to December 31, 2017. On May 12, 2017, the Company entered into a merger agreement with Oomba, Inc., a specialized social media and software development company. The Company is holding the Special Meeting in order to provide Oomba additional time to complete an audit of its financial statements so that the parties may precede with closing the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The Special Meeting is being held at 10:00 a.m. Eastern time at the offices of Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, 1177 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10036. A copy of the proxy statement for the Special Meeting may be obtained free of charge from the Company’s proxy solicitor, Advantage Proxy, by calling (877) 870-8565.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of words such as "anticipate", "believe", "expect", "estimate", "plan", "outlook", and "project" and other similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. Such forward-looking statements include statements concerning the potential business combination. These statements are based on the Company’s management’s current expectations and beliefs, as well as a number of assumptions concerning future events.

Such forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are outside of the Company’s control that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in forward-looking statements can be found in the Company’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K and subsequently filed quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K, which are available, free of charge, at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov.
