Edgar Filing: WIDEPOINT CORP - Form DEF 14A

the Company, par value $.001 per share ("Common Stock"), which is the only class of voting securities of the Company, were issued and outstanding. All holders of record of the Common Stock as of the close of business on November 8, 2002, are entitled to one vote for each share held at the Annual Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, upon the matters listed in the Notice of Annual Meeting. Cumulative voting is not permitted.

Shares of Common Stock represented by proxy will be voted according to the instructions, if any, given in the proxy. Unless otherwise instructed, the person or persons named in the proxy will vote (1) FOR the election of the two nominees for director listed herein (or their substitutes in the event any of the nominees is unavailable for election); (2) FOR the ratification of the selection of Grant Thornton LLP as the independent accountants for the Company for the current fiscal year; and (3) in their discretion, with respect to such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

If a broker indicates on the Proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to

The following Option Grants Table sets forth, for each of the named executive officers, information regarding individual grants of options granted in 2001 and their potential realizable value. Information regarding individual option grants includes the number of options granted, the percentage of total grants to employees represented by each grant, the per-share exercise price and the expiration date. The potential realizable value of the options are based on assumed annual 0%, 5% and 10% rates of stock price appreciation over the term of the option.

Option Grants Table

Name	Individual Grants				Potential Realizable Value Based on Annual Rate of Stock Price Appreciation
	Options Granted (#) ¹	% of Total Options Granted to Employees in Fiscal Year ²	Exercise Price ($/SH) ³	Expiration Date	0%	10%
Michael Higgins	100,000	6%	$0.17	12/31/2002	$0	$0
James McCubbin	500,000	32%	$0.17	1/3/2011	$0	$0
Mark Mirabile	500,000	32%	$0.17	1/3/2011	$0	$0
Ron Hilicki	500,000	32%	$0.17	1/3/2011	$0	$0

¹ The reported options were granted by the Company to the named executive officers under the Company's 1997 Stock Option Plan and become exercisable and may be accelerated upon the achievement by the executive officer of certain annual performance criteria set each year by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

2 Based on options for a total of 1,742,000 shares granted to all employees in 2001.

3 The exercise price is equal to the fair market value on the date of grant of the option, with the exception of the exercise price for the option granted to Mr. Higgins in December 2001, which exercise price was set above the fair market value of that option on the date of grant.

4 The potential realizable values shown in the columns are net of the option exercise price. These amounts assume annual compounded rates of stock price appreciation of 0%, 5%, and 10% from the date of grant to the option expiration date, a term of ten years. These rates have been set by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and are not intended to forecast future appreciation, if any, of the Company's Common Stock. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent on several factors including the future performance of the Company's Common Stock, overall stock market conditions, and the optionee's continued employment through the vesting period. The amounts reflected in this table may not actually be realized.

The following Option Exercises and Year-End Value Table is set forth herein because it sets forth, for each of the named executive officers, information regarding the number and value of unexercised options at December 31, 2001. No options were exercised by such persons during 2001.

Employment Agreements and Arrangements

On September 1, 1999, the Company entered into employment agreements with each of Michael C. Higgins and James T. McCubbin for Mr. Higgins to continue to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and for Mr. McCubbin to continue to serve as the Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Secretary and Treasurer of the Company. These agreements provide that Mr. Higgins' base salary was to be $225,000 for 1999 and Mr. McCubbin's base salary was to be $140,000 for 1999, with each executive's salary to be thereafter determined by the Company's Compensation Committee. During the year 2000, the Compensation Committee did not grant an increase in the base salary of

Edgar Filing: WIDEPOINT CORP - Form DEF 14A

Mr. Higgins or Mr. McCubbin. The agreements each provide for a bonus to be paid to the executive of up to 100% of his base salary upon the achievement of performance criteria including gross revenue and earnings targets, which criteria will be adjusted each year by the Compensation Committee. If the performance goals are not met or if the executive is no longer employed by the Company (unless for cause), the bonus may be paid at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. Each agreement is for a term of four years ending on September 1, 2003, and is terminable by the executive upon 60 days notice to the Company and by the Company on notice to the executive. Each agreement contains non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disclosure provisions restricting the executive from employment with any competing business, soliciting or diverting Company employees and customers to a competing business or disclosing the Company's proprietary information to third parties during the term of the agreement. Each agreement also contains a provision under which the executive has agreed to refrain from competing with the Company or soliciting its employees for a period of 12 months after the termination of his employment with the Company in consideration for the payment by the Company to the executive of an amount in cash equal to his base salary and cash bonus received for the one-year period immediately preceding the date of his termination, with such cash amount to be paid to the executive in 12 equal monthly installment payments as of the first day of each month during the 12-month period immediately following the date of termination of his employment. Mr. Higgins resigned his position with the Company on December 31, 2001. Mr. Higgins entered into a separation agreement that amended and superseded his employment agreement with the Company upon his resignation. The separation agreement contained non-competition, non-solicitation and non-disclosure provisions restricting Mr. Higgins from employment with any competing business, soliciting or diverting Company employees and customers to a competing business, soliciting or diverting Company employees and customers to a competing business or disclosing the Company's proprietary information to third parties during the term of the separation agreement. The separation agreement provided for a single payment of $95,625 by the Company to Mr. Higgins, representing six (6) months salary at his then current pay rate of $191,250 per annum and the Company paid benefits for six (6) months from his date of resignation in consideration for, among other things, the early termination of Mr. Higgins' employment agreement. In October 2001, Mr. McCubbin volunteered to reduce his current pay rate from $140,000 per annum to $119,000 per annum with an office expense allowance of $500 per month. In July of 2002, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. McCubbin that continues his current base pay rate of $119,000 per annum with an office expense allowance of $500.00 through July 2003 with five renewable one-year options.

On December 14 1998, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mark Mirabile, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the Company. The employment agreement was for a three year term and expired on December 14, 2001. The agreement provided for a base salary of at least $130,000 plus a bonus of up to 30% of his annual gross salary bonus and an automobile expense in the amount of $500 per month. Mr. Mirabile voluntarily reduced his pay rate to $119,000 per annum and an automobile expense allowance in the amount of $500 per month. In July 2002, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Mirabile that continues his current base pay rate of $119,000 per annum with an automobile allowance of $500.00 through July 2003 with five renewable one-year options.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee consists of Steve L. Komar, G.W. Norman

Edgar Filing: WIDEPOINT CORP - Form DEF 14A

Wareham and James Ritter. The Compensation Committee determines the compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers and consultants of the Company. Mr Komar, who is currently serving as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, does not participate in the determination by the Committee of the compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee believes that for the Company to be successful long-term and for the Company to increase stockholder value, the Company must be able to hire, retain, adequately compensate and financially motivate talented and ambitious executives. The Compensation Committee attempts to reward executives for both individual achievement and overall Company success.

Executive compensation is made up of three components:

Base Salary. An executive's base salary is initially determined by considering the executive's level of responsibility, prior experience and compensation history. Published salaries of executives in similar positions at other companies of comparable size (sales and/or number of employees) is also considered in establishing base salary.

Stock Options. In 1997, the Company adopted the 1997 Incentive Stock Plan to provide stock option awards to certain executives of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Compensation Committee believes that the granting of stock options is directly linked to increased executive commitment and motivation and to the long-term success of the Company. The Compensation Committee awards stock options to certain executives of the Company and its subsidiaries. Mr Komar, who is currently serving as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, does not participate in the determination by the Committee of any stock options to be granted to the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee uses both subjective appraisals of the executive's performance and the Company's performance and financial success during the previous year to determine option grants.

Bonus. The Company has also implemented an executive bonus program for certain of its executives. Such bonuses are based, in part, on the Company's financial performance during the previous fiscal year including achievement of gross revenue and net income targets. In addition, objective individual measures of performance compared to the individual's business unit profit performance may be considered. A subjective rating of the executive's personal performance may also be considered. Bonuses may be paid in cash or Company Common Stock or a combination of cash and Company Common Stock. Bonuses are typically linked to a percentage of base salary.

In early 2001, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors approved a compensation package for the Company's then President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael Higgins, and the Company's Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, James McCubbin, that included a base salary of approximately $225,000 in 2001 for Mr. Higgins and approximately $140,000 in 2001 for Mr. McCubbin, plus a possible bonus for each of them of up to 100% of their base salary, which represented no increase in the base salary for either such person since 1999 due to the declining revenues of the Company. Mr. Higgins voluntarily reduced his base salary in October 2001 to approximately $191,250 per annum and Mr. McCubbin voluntarily reduced his base salary in October 2001 to approximately $119,000 per annum. Mr. Higgins subsequently resigned from the Company in December 2001. Receipt of the bonus is subject to the Company's achievement of certain performance criteria, including gross revenue and net income targets. If the performance criteria are not achieved or the executive is no longer employed by the Company (other than for cause termination), a bonus may be awarded in the discretion of the Compensation Committee. No bonuses were awarded in 2001.

In determining the 2001 compensation packages for these executive officers, the Compensation Committee considered that the Company was conserving its cash and reducing its costs and expenses in response to declining revenues.

Exceptions to the general principles stated above can be made when the Compensation Committee deems them appropriate and in the best interests of stockholders. The Compensation Committee regularly considers other forms of compensation and modifications of its present policies, and will make changes as it deems appropriate. The competitive opportunities to which the Company's executives are exposed frequently come from private companies or divisions of large companies, for which published compensation data is often unavailable and, therefore, the Compensation Committee's information about such opportunities is often anecdotal.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, establishes a limit on the deductibility of annual compensation for certain executive officers that exceeds $1,000,000 per year unless certain requirements are met. The Company does not anticipate that any employee will exceed such $1,000,000 cap in the near future but will consider whether any necessary adjustments are appropriate if it becomes likely that any executive officer's compensation may exceed the $1,000,000 limit.

Stock Options

1997 Stock Incentive Plan. In May 1997, the Board of Directors adopted, and in December 1997 the stockholders of the Company approved, the Company's 1997 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"), which provides for the award of a variety of equity-based incentives, including stock awards, stock options, stock appreciation rights, phantom shares, performance unit appreciation rights and dividend equivalents (collectively, "Stock Incentives"). The Incentive Plan is administered by a committee, which is presently comprised of Steve L. Komar, G.W. Norman Wareham and James Ritter, and provides for the grant of Stock Incentives officers, key employees and consultants of the Company to purchase up to an aggregate of 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock at not less than 100% of fair market value on the date granted; provided, however that Mr. Komar, who is currently serving as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, does not participate in the determination by the committee of any Stock Incentives to be granted to the Chief Executive Officer. The vesting and exercisability of any Stock Incentives granted under the Incentive Plan is subject to the determination of and criteria set by the committee.
