PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors (“Board”) of Universal Insurance Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Company”), of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (“Annual Meeting”), to be held at the Westin Fort Lauderdale, 400 Corporate Drive, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33334, on May 19, 2010 at 10:30 a.m., Eastern Daylight Time, and at any and all postponements or adjournments thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting.

A copy of the Annual Report of the Company for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2009, including financial statements audited by Blackman Kallick LLP, is included. This Proxy Statement, Notice of Annual Meeting, accompanying proxy card, and Annual Report are first expected to be posted to <http://proxy.universalinsuranceholdings.com> on or about April 16, 2010.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MEETING AND VOTING

1. What is a proxy?

It is your legal designation of another person to vote the stock you own. That other person is called a proxy. If you designate someone as your proxy in a written document, that document also is called a proxy or a proxy card. We have designated James M. Lynch as proxy for the 2010 Annual Meeting.

2. What is a proxy statement?

It is a document that Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) regulations require us to give you when we ask you to sign a proxy card designating James M. Lynch as proxy to vote on your behalf.

3. What is the difference between holding shares as a shareholder and as a beneficial shareholder?

If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Company’s registrar and transfer agent, Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, you are considered a shareholder of record with respect to those shares.

If your shares are held in a brokerage account or bank, you are considered the “beneficial owner” of those shares.

4. How do I attend the meeting? What do I need to bring?

You need to bring a photo ID to gain admission.

If you are a beneficial owner, bring your most recent brokerage statement with you to the meeting. We can use that to verify your ownership of shares and admit you to the meeting; however, you will not be able to vote your shares at the meeting without a legal proxy, as described in response to question 5.

Please note that cameras, sound or video recording equipment, cellular telephones, blackberries or other similar equipment, electronic devices, large bags, briefcases or packages will not be allowed in the meeting room.

5. How can I vote at the meeting if I am a beneficial owner?

You will need to ask your broker, bank or other intermediary to furnish you with a legal proxy. You will need to bring the legal proxy with you to the meeting and hand it in with a signed ballot that will be provided to you at the meeting. You will not be able to vote your shares at the meeting without a legal proxy.

Please note that if you request a legal proxy, any previously executed proxy will be revoked, and your vote will not be counted unless you appear at the meeting and vote in person or legally appoint another proxy to vote on your behalf.

If you do not receive the legal proxy in time, you can follow the procedures described in the response to question 4 to gain admission to the meeting; however, you will not be able to vote your shares at the meeting.

6. What different methods can I use to vote?

By Written Proxy: All shareholders can vote by written proxy card. If you are a beneficial owner, you will receive a written proxy card or a vote instruction form from your bank or broker.

In Person: All shareholders of record may vote in person at the meeting. Beneficial owners may vote in person at the meeting if they have a legal proxy, as described in response to question 5.

7. What is the record date and what does it mean?

The record date for the Annual Meeting is April 12, 2010. The record date is established by the Board as required by the Delaware General Corporation Law and the Company's bylaws. Owners of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to:

receive notice of the meeting; and vote at the meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

8. What securities will be voted at the Annual Meeting?

The securities to be voted at the Annual Meeting consist of (i) shares of Common Stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share ("Common Stock"), with each share entitling its record owner to one vote, (ii) shares of Series M Preferred Stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share (“Series M Preferred Stock”), with each share entitling its record owner to one vote and (iii) shares of Series A Preferred Stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share (“Series A Preferred Stock”), with each share entitling its record owner to one vote. The holders of Series M Preferred Stock, voting separately as a series, are entitled to elect two directors. The holders of Common Stock, Series M Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as one class, are entitled to elect the remaining directors.

The table below sets forth the number and classes of Company stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Class of Voting Stock	Number of Record Holders as of the Record Date	Number of Shares Outstanding as of the Record Date	Amount of Votes Entitled to be Cast as of the Record Date
Common Stock	49	40,184,786	40,184,786
Series M Preferred Stock	4	87,740	87,740
Series A Preferred Stock	2	19,950	19,950

The Company had no other voting securities outstanding on the record date.

9. What shares are included on the proxy card?

If you are a shareholder of Common Stock and/or Series A Preferred Stock, you will receive one proxy card for all the shares of Common Stock and/or Series A Preferred Stock you hold in certificate form and/or in book-entry form.

If you are a shareholder of Series M Preferred Stock, you will receive a proxy card for all the shares of Series M Preferred Stock you hold in certificate form and/or in book-entry form.

10. What constitutes a quorum at the Annual Meeting?

The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of the Series M Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for those matters where a separate vote of the Series M Preferred Stock is required, and of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of the Common Stock, Series M Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting for those matters where the Common Stock, Series M Preferred Stock and Series A Preferred Stock, voting together as a class, is required, is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. If a quorum is not present at the Annual Meeting, a majority of the shares so represented may vote to adjourn the Annual Meeting from time to time without further notice.

11. What can I do if I change my mind after I vote my shares?

Shareholders can revoke a proxy prior to the completion of voting at the meeting by:

sending written notice to Norman M. Meier, Secretary, Universal Insurance Holdings, Inc., 1110 West Commercial Boulevard, Suite 100, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33309; delivering a later-dated proxy; or appearing at the Annual Meeting and giving the Secretary notice of your intention to vote in person (unless you are a beneficial owner without a legal proxy, as described in the response to question 5).

12. Are votes confidential? Who counts the votes?

We will continue our practice of holding the votes of all shareholders in confidence from directors, officers and employees except:

as necessary to meet applicable legal requirements and to assert or defend claims for or against the Company;

in the case of a contested proxy solicitation;

if a shareholder makes a written comment on the proxy card or otherwise communicates his or her vote to management; or to allow the independent inspector of the election to certify the results of the vote.

13. What are my voting choices when voting for director nominees identified in this proxy statement, and what vote is needed to elect directors?

In the vote on the election of the seven director nominees identified in this proxy statement to serve until the 2011 annual meeting, shareholders may:

vote in favor of all nominees;

vote in favor of specific nominees;

vote against all nominees;

vote against specific nominees;

abstain from voting with respect to all nominees; or abstain from voting with respect to specific nominees.

Each of the director nominees will be elected as a director of the Company if a majority of the votes cast on his election are voted in favor of such election.

As a result of recent changes to New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, rules, the election of directors is no longer considered a "routine" matter and, therefore, your broker will not have discretionary voting authority if you do not provide instructions using one of the methods described above.

The Board recommends a vote FOR each of the nominees.

14. What are my voting choices when voting on the ratification of the appointment of Blackman Kallick LLP as independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010, and what vote is needed to ratify their appointment?

In the vote on approval of Blackman Kallick LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010, shareholders may:

vote in favor of ratification;

vote against ratification; or abstain from voting on the ratification.

The proposal to ratify the appointment of Blackman Kallick LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm will be approved if a majority of the votes cast on the proposal are voted in favor of the proposal.

The Board recommends a vote FOR the ratification.

15. What if I do not specify a choice for a matter when returning a proxy?

Shareholders should specify their choice for each matter on the enclosed proxy card. If no specific instructions are given, proxies which are signed and returned will be voted:

FOR the election of all director nominees as set forth in this proxy statement; and

FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of Blackman Kallick LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year 2010.

16. What are abstentions and broker non-votes and how are they counted?

Abstentions and broker non-votes are included in determining whether a quorum is present. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner (i.e., a broker) does not vote on a particular proposal because such nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular matter and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. The ratification of the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm is a proposal for which brokers do have discretionary voting authority.

As a result of recent changes to NYSE rules, the election of directors is no longer considered a “routine” matter and, therefore, your broker will not have discretionary voting authority if you do not provide instructions using one of the methods described above.

Abstentions and broker non-votes are not considered “votes cast” and thus do not have an effect on the outcome of the vote as to any of the items presented in this proxy statement.

17. Who pays the cost in connection with the solicitation of proxies?

The Company will bear the cost of soliciting proxies in the enclosed form. Officers and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies by a further mailing or personal conversations or via telephone or facsimile, provided that they do not receive compensation for doing so. The Company will, upon request, reimburse brokerage firms and others for their reasonable expenses in forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock.

Committees and Corporate Governance

Board Leadership Structure

Our bylaws provide that the roles of Board Chairman and Chief Executive Officer may be filled by the same or different individuals, which provides the Board the flexibility to determine whether these roles should be combined or separated based on the Company's circumstances and needs at any given time. The roles of Chairman and CEO of the Company are currently held by the same person, Bradley I. Meier. The Board believes that the Company and its shareholders are best served by having Mr. Meier serve in both positions. As the founder of the Company, Mr. Meier is most familiar with our business and the challenges the Company faces in the current environment. His experience and expertise makes him the most appropriate person to set agendas for, and lead discussions of, strategic matters affecting the Company at this time. Moreover, this structure enables Mr. Meier to act as a bridge between management and the Board, and helps to promote unified leadership and direction.

Independence of Our Directors

NYSE Amex Equities, or NYSE Amex, rules require that at least a majority of our directors be independent of our Company and management. The Board of Directors has determined that each of the following directors is an “independent director,” as such term is defined by NYSE Amex rules, as follows: Reed J. Slogoff, Joel M. Wilentz, Ozzie A. Schindler, and Michael A. Pietrangelo.

In addition, each of the Compensation Committee and Audit Committee are composed exclusively of non-employee directors that met the relevant independence requirements established by the NYSE Amex.

The Board’s Role in Risk Oversight

The Board is responsible for ensuring that material risks are identified and managed appropriately. The Board and its committees regularly review material operational, financial, compensation and compliance risks with senior management. As part of its responsibilities as set forth in its charter, the Audit Committee is responsible for discussing with management the Company’s policies and guidelines to govern the process by which risk assessment and risk management is undertaken by management, including guidelines and policies to identify the Company’s major financial risk exposures, and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures. The Audit Committee also performs a central oversight role with respect to financial and compliance risks, and reports on its findings at each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board. The Compensation Committee considers risk in connection with its design of compensation programs for our executives. Each committee regularly reports to the Board. In addition, each year the Board reviews the Company’s reinsurance program by which the Company cedes insurance risk to reinsurers.

Audit Committee

The Company has a separately designated Audit Committee, whose members are Ozzie A. Schindler, Reed J. Slogoff and Joel M. Wilentz, each of whom was determined by the Board to be independent under the applicable rules of the SEC and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company’s Board of Directors has determined that Ozzie A. Schindler is an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by Item 407(d)(5) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC.

The Audit Committee recommends the firm to be appointed as the independent registered public accounting firm of the Company to audit the Company’s financial statements and to perform services related to the audit, review the scope and results of the audit with the independent registered public accounting firm, review with management and the independent registered public accounting firm the Company’s year-end operating results and consider the adequacy of the internal accounting procedures.

The Audit Committee met separately four times during 2009, in addition to five telephonic meetings, and the full Board, including the members of the Audit Committee, met four times during the year to discuss the financial position of the Company, provide recommendations and guidance to management and evaluate strategies and financial opportunities and initiatives.

The Audit Committee operates under a written charter that was adopted by the Board of Directors on January 9, 2007. The Audit Committee Charter is publicly available at the Company's headquarters in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and also on the Company's website at www.universalinsuranceholdings.com. The Audit Committee Charter will be reviewed annually for changes, as appropriate.

Director Nominations

A director can be nominated by a member of the Board. The Company has not established a Nominating Committee. Given the size of the Company, the Board believes that this is appropriate.

The Board maintains no formal policy regarding Board membership but would view diversity expansively and consider among other things, functional areas of experience, educational background, employment experience and leadership performance as well as those intangible factors that it deems appropriate to develop a heterogeneous and cohesive Board such as integrity, achievements, judgment, intelligence, personal character, the interplay of the candidate's relevant experience with the experience of other Board members, the willingness of the candidate to devote adequate time to Board duties, and likelihood that he or she will be willing and able to serve on the Board for a sustained period.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Company adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics on January 9, 2007 that is applicable to all directors, officers and employees of the Company. The code is publicly available at the Company's headquarters in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and also on the Company's website at www.universalinsuranceholdings.com. A copy of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics may be obtained free of charge by written request to James M. Lynch, CFO, Universal Insurance Holdings, Inc., 1110 West Commercial Boulevard, Suite 100, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33309.

Shareholder Communications

The Company has not established a set process for shareholders to send communications to the Board. Given the size of the Company, the Board believes that this is appropriate.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee consists of Reed J. Slogoff and Joel M. Wilentz, each of whom was determined by the Board to be independent under the applicable rules of the SEC and the FINRA. Among its duties, the Compensation Committee assists the Board in discharging its responsibilities relating to corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's executive officers, evaluating the performance of executive officers in light of those goals and objectives and determining compensation based on such evaluation. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter that was adopted by the Board on March 13, 2007. The Compensation Committee Charter is publicly available on the Company's website at www.universalinsuranceholdings.com. The Compensation Committee Charter will be reviewed annually for changes, as appropriate.

Certain Relationships and Related Party Transactions

Downes and Associates, a multi-line insurance adjustment corporation based in Deerfield Beach, Florida performs certain claims adjusting work for UPCIC. Downes and Associates is owned by Dennis Downes, who is the father of Sean P. Downes, Chief Operating Officer and Senior Vice President of UPCIC. During 2009, 2008 and 2007, the Company expensed claims adjusting fees of $605,000, $410,000 and $675,237, respectively, to Downes and Associates.

During the fourth quarter of 2009, the Company overpaid non-equity incentive plan compensation to the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer in the amounts of $217,169 and $162,876, respectively. These amounts were repaid to the Company during February 2010.

Transactions between the Company and its affiliates are on terms no less favorable to the Company than can be obtained from third parties on an arm's-length basis. Transactions between the Company and any of its executive officers or directors require the approval of a majority of disinterested directors.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Please note that the following Compensation Discussion and Analysis is current as of December 31, 2009. The Compensation Committee oversees and reviews the Company's executive compensation practices. The Compensation Committee is responsible for ensuring that the compensation of the executive officers of the Company aligns with and supports its growth objectives. The Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Chief Operating Officer may be referred to as "named executive officers" or "executive officers."

Objectives of the Company's Compensation Practices

The Company's principal business objective is sound, profitable growth. Achievement of this objective requires not only writing additional insurance volume, but also continued improvements in the Company's underwriting criteria to identify acceptable risks, development of the Company's broker network, strengthened claims processing methodologies to improve customer service and accurately pay claims, aggressive product and geographic diversification facilitated by the internal capabilities developed by the Company, flexible but focused reinsurance strategies and prudent strategies for investment of reserves.

Over the last several years, the Company added internal underwriting, reinsurance, claims processing and investment capabilities and engaged in extensive negotiation with independent brokers throughout its marketing area. In 2009, the internalized capabilities contributed substantially to the Company's substantial improvement in investment returns and the rapid marketing entry into states in which the Company was recently licensed. The Company added and trained internal staff to pursue these objectives as opposed to contracting with outside service providers to ensure that these functions serve the Company's interests exclusively. In 2010 and for the longer term, the Company will continue to seek sound profitable growth by:

expanding the Company's product offerings and product mix; exploiting opportunities in states in which it has recently been licensed, South Carolina, North Carolina (up to state-imposed limitations applicable through December 31, 2010), Hawaii and Georgia, largely by bringing to bear existing internal capabilities;

further penetrating the Florida market by establishing relationships with additional independent agents in order to expand its distribution network;

continuing to expand processes the Company has recently internalized, including marketing strategies, agent incentive and management (in Florida and expanding to other states), policy development, risk management, claims, reinsurance analysis and investment analysis; and refining the proprietary claims, premium, reinsurance and management system developed by the Company on a scalable basis so that growth and diversification costs are controlled.

As of December 31, 2009, the Compensation Committee believed that the Company's compensation practices are linked to these business objectives and that the Company's compensation practices recognize past achievements and meet three principal goals:

reward and retain entrepreneurial officers and other key employees who have risk, portfolio, reinsurance and general management skills and motivation desirable in the marketplace;
scale pay to performance by structuring the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer so that the opportunity to earn bonuses is tied to the net income of the Company;
and provide long-term incentives in the form of stock options and restricted stock awards to incentivize the Company's executive officers and align their interests with those of the Company's stockholders.

How the Company Determines Each Element of Compensation and Why the Company Pays Each Element

General

Several years ago, the Company entered into employment agreements with Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes. The agreement with Mr. Meier has evergreen renewal terms. The Company amended the agreement with Mr. Downes to extend the term to December 31, 2013. The Compensation Committee has determined that the Company's and the Company's shareholders' interests are best served by continuing these employment agreements without additional renegotiation as of December 31, 2009. As of December 31, 2009, the Compensation Committee believed that these two individuals possess unique skill sets and motivation and, jointly, have been the engine driving the Company's growth development. As of December 31, 2009, the Compensation Committee believed that such employment arrangements benefit the Company and the Company's shareholders by permitting the Company to retain these executive officers and ensure their continued focus on the Company's progress.

Pursuant to the employment agreements, each executive receives an annual base salary that automatically increases twenty percent (20%) each year. As of December 31, 2009, the Compensation Committee believed that the level of increase reflects the additional management responsibilities undertaken as a result of the growth of the Company's internal operations, geographic diversification goals and regulatory challenges. The Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's Chief Operating Officer also receive an annual performance bonus measured as a percentage of the pretax income of the Company. The Company has used this approach to motivate the Company's executives toward producing pretax net income because the Company believes that pretax net income is not only the hallmark of sound, profitable growth looked to by investors but also the fuel for the Company's internal development and diversification efforts. As a result, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer are paid more if the Company's pretax net income performance warrants it.

While the cash bonus formula for the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer focuses exclusively on pretax net income, in maintaining this structure, the Committee takes into account the Company's plans for internalizing and refining the risk management, reinsurance, claims processing and investment functions described above. Achievements in these internalization and refinement processes in a prior year is an indicator that a focus on pretax net income in the subsequent year is appropriate because the achievements become a platform for continued revenue and profit improvements in future years.

Comparator Companies

In 2009, the Compensation Committee used information provided by The Delves Group, a compensation consultant, to compile two distinct comparable groups to frame the Compensation Committee's discussions on prospective executive compensation for the Company's executive officers. The Delves Group has no other relationship with the Company and performs no other services with the Company. Accordingly, the Committee believes that The Delves Group is completely independent of the Company and its advice cannot be colored by any other revenue derived from working with the Company.

One group is a conventionally arranged comparator group; that is, 19 casualty insurance carriers that have a market presence in one or more of the states in which the Company is licensed and exhibit a range of premium volume, net revenue and market capitalization that bracket the Company (the “Insurance Group”). As compared to the Insurance Group, the Company has the highest relative concentration of policies in Florida and the Company’s results are influenced to a greater degree by legislation and market factors unique to Florida. These factors include state-mandated premium reductions and discounts for wind mitigation and increases in ceded premiums as a result of changes in the reinsurance program, and challenging settlement practices. Despite the unique demands facing the Company due to its high concentration of policies in Florida, the Company’s net income growth (measured as increase in three year and five year compound annual growth rates or “CAGR”), five year total shareholder return including reinvestment of dividends or “TSR” and other relevant growth measures exceeded all members of the Insurance Group by a substantial margin; the Company’s one year TSR exceeded all but one member of the Insurance Group; and the Company’s change in net income and net profit margin remained in the top quartile of the Insurance Group despite the downward pressure on net income and margin described above.

Because of the extent of the positive difference between the Company’s financial performance and growth and the financial performance of the members of the Insurance Group, the Committee believed it important to review the practices at companies that reflected the growth characteristics of the Company as nearly as could be determined. Accordingly, the Committee requested The Delves Group to search public filings for companies beyond the insurance industry with CAGR, TSR and annual revenue that bracketed the Company’s performance (but no less than 50% TSR characteristics) as well as had no more than 2,000 employees as opposed to the Company’s approximately 200 employees (the “Growth Group”). The Compensation Committee believed that the dual comparator groups approach is reasonable to accurately assess the performance and compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Operating Officer. The Insurance Group informs the Compensation Committee about companies in direct competition with the Company. The Growth Group informs the Compensation Committee about how the Company compared with other companies with similar growth performance. Within this Growth Group, the Company had top quartile results in five year revenue growth and top quartile one year and five year TSR while maintaining a relatively consistent profit margin year over year.

The Compensation Committee does not target any particular percentile among comparator groups or member companies at which to align compensation. The Committee is confident that its exercise of discretion in choosing pretax net income as the determinant of cash bonus payments best serves the goals of the Company and, by using a variable performance measure, cash bonus compensation will vary directly with achievement. When the Compensation Committee cross-checks compensation levels against comparator groups and member companies, the focus is on a broader and more flexible orientation, which provides the ability to address the specific business conditions relevant to the Company, including:

Recognizing that the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Operating Officer (a position at the Company with substantially more responsibilities than chief operating officers elsewhere) are the two key employees of the Company, responsible for all functions, including the processes for developing the proprietary models and processes for underwriting, claims, reinsurance and investment;

Recognizing that, at the present state of the Company's development, continued growth and internalization of functions is critical and, in this regard, the Company is very entrepreneurial in nature;

Rewarding past and continued performance in the establishment and profitable growth of the insurance business by the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer;

Recognizing the contributions of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer in internalizing the operations of the Company, including marketing strategies, agent incentive and management, policy development, risk management, claims, reinsurance analysis, rating engine, investment analysis and broker relations which enabled, among other things, the rapid mobilization of marketing programs in newly licensed states and the investment returns on the Company's investment portfolio;

Recognizing that the continued growth of the Company is dependent on the services of the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer; and Differentiating compensation based on experience and performance levels among executives.

For the purpose of its evaluation, the Compensation Committee takes into account the differences in the types or nature of businesses of the companies in the comparator groups as well as a comparison of the functions performed by the particular officers. Consideration is also given to the differences in size, scope, and complexity between the Company and the various members of the respective comparator groups. These are among the judgmental factors the Compensation Committee considers and are not based on a formula or tied to a comparator group.

For the surveys of the comparable groups, the Compensation Committee considered peers to be companies, using data reported in 2008 for 2007 performance, that met the following criteria:

For the Insurance Group:

Gross premiums ranging from $743 million to $133 million bracketing the Company's $498 million;

Net Revenue ranging from $704 million to $119 million as compared to the Company's $154 million; and Market capitalization ranging from $1.5 billion to $36 million in relation to the Company's $315 million.

For the Growth Group:

Annualized five year TSR greater than 50%;

Annual revenue between $1.5 billion and $100 million bracketing the Company's $188.5 million; and Employed no more than 2,000 people.

The Delves Group determined that the following companies met the criteria for the Insurance Group:

RLI Corp.

Safety Insurance Group, Inc.

ProAssurance Corporation

United America Indemnity, Ltd.

Tower Group, Inc.

PMA Capital Corporation

United Fire & Casualty Company

Donegal Group, Inc.

Affirmative Insurance Holdings, Inc.

CNA Surety Corporation

Employers Holdings, Inc.

First Mercury Financial Corporation

National Interstate Corporation

Hallmark Financial Services, Inc.

EMC Insurance Group, Inc.

Gainsco, Inc.

Mercer Insurance Group, Inc.

Baldwin & Lyons, Inc.

21st Century Holdings, Inc.

The Delves Group determined that the following companies met the criteria for the Growth Group:

Hanson Natural Corp.

Terra Nitrogen Co.

Intuitive Surgical, Inc.

Loral Space & Communications

Green Mountain Coffee Roasters, Inc.

RCN Corp.

NutriSystem, Inc.

Illumina, Inc.

Trico Marine Services, Inc..

Tower Group, Inc..

CKK, Inc.

Hallmark Financial Services

Arabian American Development

Arena Resources Inc.

Medifast, Inc.

Several commonalities stood out among the Insurance Group. 14 of 16 companies that describe metrics for annual bonuses use earnings (definitions of earnings varied) as a principal determinant in annual incentive compensation. The Committee believed that the Company's focus on net income is consistent with that view. Only 2 of the 19 put some to significant weight on attainment of individual objectives by named officers. The Compensation Committee believed that separate individual objectives for annual incentive purposes are not necessary because the direction toward internalization and improvement of functions is clear in the Company's business plan for achieving sound, profitable growth and that plan provides specific guidance to executive officers as to the steps in achieving its goals. 2 of the 19 companies include underwriting results and 3 others include underwriting results when setting targets for incentive compensation. The Compensation Committee believed that the requirements for developing the Company's capabilities in not just underwriting but also claim processing, reinsurance, investment and dealer networks are sufficiently clear prerequisites to sound, profitable growth that separate measures would not be appropriate.

With respect to long term compensation, 15 of the 19 comparable companies in the Insurance Group award time vested options and/or restricted stock from time to time as long term incentives. This is consistent with the Company's past practices. However, it should be noted that the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Operating Officer accepted options and restricted stock in lieu of cash compensation in some years and not as separate long term compensation awards.

The compensation consultant's survey of the Insurance Group indicates that the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Operating Officer was at or above the 90th percentile for the Insurance Group. However, the performance of the Company for the same period defined the 100th percentile for the Insurance Group in 5 year net revenue growth and 5 year total shareholder return as well as 3 year net income increase. The Committee also noted that the Company's net margin was in the top quartile in the Insurance Group notwithstanding the relatively conservative reinsurance and investment practices of the Company and the challenging Florida insurance market due to, among other things, state-mandated premium reductions, wind mitigation credits and claims settlement practices. The Committee believed this net margin result reflects not only the efficiencies of the internalized processes described above but also the development of effective strategies for the Florida market while pursuing geographic diversification.

The Growth Group represents the attempt by the Committee to review the compensation practices of companies that have sustained high levels of growth over a multi-year period. Because the members of the Growth Group come from diverse industries, comparisons of specific skill sets based on industry knowledge are not appropriate. However, this group does indicate how other companies that have been successful in growing their business compensate their senior executives. The compensation consultant's survey of the Growth Group indicates that total compensation over the most recent three years was above the 90th percentile for Mr. Meier and for Mr. Downes. The compensation consultant's report indicated that the Company was substantially above the 75th percentile in each important measure of longer term growth and profitability. The Committee believes these findings support the desired linkage between the compensation program and the principal business objective of sound, profitable growth.

More specifically, the survey indicated that:

the Company's five year return to shareholders (stock price increases plus dividends) was exceeded only by a satellite communications company and a broadband provider, and the Company's five year growth was exceeded only by a company engaged in licensing entertainment content such as American Idol, an oil and natural gas company and weight management company.

The Committee believed this balance of very high growth and very high returns to shareholders is the performance that the Company's compensation arrangements should reward.

In this context, the Committee believed the Company's compensation structure and formulae reinforce the Company's plans and goals.

Base Salary

Against these groups, the base salaries of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes are each relatively high in comparison. However, the Compensation Committee points out that the degree of difference between the Company's base pay practices for these two individuals and those of the officers of others in the groups is justified when the duties of Messrs. Meier and Downes, as well as the requirements for dealing simultaneously with geographic diversification and Florida-specific regulatory issues are taken into account. Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes perform a broader range of functions with fewer support staff than the named individuals in the companies in the survey. In particular, Messrs. Meier and Downes are responsible for all aspects of the internalization processes. This is consistent with the Company's belief that Messrs. Meier and Downes are the entrepreneurial center of the Company's growth and their individual involvement in the steps toward sound, profitable growth is essential. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor whether the Company's compensation structure continues to appropriately reward and incentivize the Company's executive officers.

Elements of Compensation Provided to the Named Executive Officers

The principal components of compensation for the Company's executive officers were:

base salary;

cash bonus compensation; and long-term equity incentive compensation.

Base Salary

The Company pays a base salary to its named executive officers. As noted above, pursuant to employment agreements entered into between the Company and the named executive officers, each such executive receives an annual base salary that automatically increases twenty percent (20%) each year. The Compensation Committee from time to time reviews the base salaries the Company pays its named executive officers. In doing so, it considers a number of factors, including the individual performance of the executive.

Bonus Compensation

As noted above, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Company's Chief Operating Officer also receive an annual performance bonus equal to a percentage of the pretax income of the Company. The Company has used this approach to compensate its executives because the Company believed that successful performance by management would be the primary driver of the Company's pretax net income and that management should have significant portions of compensation at risk for achieving market-oriented results. The Company's Chief Financial Officer, pursuant to his employment agreement, is entitled to an annual performance bonus determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Company; provided, however, that such bonus shall be no less than $50,000. The Compensation Committee also has the discretion to increase a bonus beyond the compensation contained in an executive's employment agreement.

Long-Term Equity Incentive Compensation and Equity Compensation Plan Information

The Compensation Committee does not use a specific formula to calculate the number of options or shares awarded to executives. The Compensation Committee does not explicitly set future award levels/opportunities on the basis of what the executives earned from prior awards. While the Compensation Committee takes past awards into account, it does not base future awards solely in view of those past awards. In determining the specific amounts to be granted to each employee, the Compensation Committee will take into account factors such as the executive's position, his or her contribution to the Company's performance, and the overall package of cash and equity compensation for the executive.

On October 13, 2009, the Company's Board of Directors approved, and recommended that the Company's stockholders approve, the 2009 Omnibus Incentive Plan ("Incentive Plan"). On November 16, 2009, the Company's stockholders approved the Incentive Plan by written consent. Awards under the Incentive Plan may include incentive stock options, nonqualified stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted shares of Common Stock, restricted stock units, performance share or unit awards, other stock-based awards and cash-based incentive awards. Awards under the Incentive Plan may be granted to employees, directors, consultants or other persons providing services to the Company or its affiliates. As of December 31, 2009, no specific awards had been granted and no commitments had been made under the Incentive Plan. The Incentive Plan shall have a term of ten years expiring on November 16, 2019.

Perquisites and Fringe Benefits

The Company's executive officers receive health and welfare benefits, such as group medical, group life and long-term disability coverage. The Company provides an automobile allowance of $7,500 per annum to each of Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes. As of December 31, 2009, the Company believed that its executives should be able to provide for their retirement needs from the total annual compensation they earn based on the Company's performance. Accordingly, other than an employer matching contribution to the accounts of the named officers under the Company's 401(k) Plan, which is the same matching contribution rate that the Company provides all of its eligible full time employees, the Company does not offer its executives any qualified or nonqualified pension plans, supplemental executive retirement plans, deferred compensation plans or other forms of compensation for retirement.

Employment Agreements

The Company entered into employment agreements with its three executive officers: Bradley I. Meier, the Company's Chief Executive Officer; Sean P. Downes, the Company's Chief Operating Officer; and James M. Lynch, the Company's Chief Financial Officer. These agreements and potential post employment payments are described in "Employment Agreements and Potential Payments Upon Termination of Employment" below.

Tax Considerations

Under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the federal income tax deductibility of compensation paid to Mr. Meier and Mr. Downes may be limited to the extent that it exceeds $1.0 million in any one year. The Company can deduct compensation in excess of that amount if it qualifies as “performance-based compensation” under Section 162(m). For the performance bonuses of Messrs. Meier and Downes to qualify as “performance-based compensation,” the performance-based formulas used to determine them must be approved by the Company’s shareholders. The performance based formulas under the Company’s annual bonus plan for Messrs. Meier and Downes were approved by the shareholders of the Company in May 2007 thereby permitting the Company to receive a federal income tax deduction for the payment of this performance based compensation. In 2009, Mr. Meier received $354,314 in compensation under his employment agreement (described below) that was in excess of the limitation on federal income tax deductibility and was not performance based compensation. Therefore, this amount cannot be deducted by the Company for federal income tax purposes on its 2009 return. The Compensation Committee believed the amount to have been appropriate compensation for Mr. Meier’s services.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee of the Company has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis required by Item 402(b) of Regulation S-K with management and, based on such review and discussions, the Compensation Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Compensation Discussion and Analysis be included in this proxy statement.

In the event that the Company terminates the Meier Employment Agreement, the Company shall pay Mr. Meier 24 months total compensation. In addition, in the event of a change in control of the Company, the Company shall pay Mr. Meier an amount equal to 48 months base salary, plus two times any bonus paid for the preceding fiscal year. Further, in the event of a change in control, all options held by Mr. Meier vest and become immediately exercisable. If Mr. Meier dies during the term of his employment, the Company shall pay to his estate compensation which would otherwise be payable to Mr. Meier for the shorter of (i) three (3) years from the date of his death, or (ii) through to the termination date of his employment

Lynch Employment Agreement

On October 11, 2006, the Company entered into an employment agreement (the "Lynch Employment Agreement") with Mr. Lynch, who has served as the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since August 1998. Under the terms of the Lynch Employment Agreement, Mr. Lynch will continue to serve in such capacity. Mr. Lynch received a base salary of $446,539 in 2009, and he is entitled to a twenty percent (20%) increase in base salary each year. Additionally, pursuant to the Lynch Employment Agreement, Mr. Lynch is entitled to an annual performance bonus determined at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Company; provided, however, that such bonus shall be no less than $50,000.

Mr. Lynch is also eligible to receive health and welfare benefits, such as group medical, group life and long-term disability coverage. The Lynch Employment Agreement contains noncompete and nondisclosure provisions.

If the Company terminates Mr. Lynch's employment without cause or Mr. Lynch terminates his employment for good reason, then the Company shall (1) pay Mr. Lynch unpaid base salary accrued up to the effective date of termination; (2) pay Mr. Lynch a prorated portion of Mr. Lynch's annualized bonus; (3) pay Mr. Lynch a lump sum payment equal to Mr. Lynch's current base salary for period of twelve (12) months; and (4) pay on Mr. Lynch's behalf Mr. Lynch's COBRA premiums for a period of twelve (12) months.

For the purposes of the Lynch Employment Agreement "cause" means (i) Mr. Lynch's abuse of alcohol or any controlled substance; (ii) Mr. Lynch's willful act of fraud, dishonesty or breach of fiduciary duty with respect to the business or affairs of the Company; (iii) Mr. Lynch's knowing and material failure to comply with material applicable laws and regulations or professional standards relating to the business of the Company; (iv) Mr. Lynch's documented and continuing grossly unsatisfactory performance of his duties (as documented in at least one performance improvement plan to Mr. Lynch) or a material breach by Mr. Lynch of the Lynch Employment Agreement except, in each case, where such failure or breach is caused by the illness or other similar incapacity or disability of Mr. Lynch; (v) Mr. Lynch being subject to an inquiry or investigation by a governmental authority or self-regulatory organization such that the existence of such inquiry or investigation may result in damage to the Company's business interests, licenses, reputation or prospects; or (vi) Mr. Lynch's conviction of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude or any felony.

For the purposes of the Lynch Employment Agreement "good reason" shall mean and include any of the following without Mr. Lynch's prior written consent: (i) assignment to Mr. Lynch of duties materially inconsistent with Mr. Lynch's position under the Lynch Employment Agreement; (ii) failure to pay Mr. Lynch's base salary or bonus; (iii) requiring Mr. Lynch to move his site of employment more than fifty (50) miles from his site of employment prior to such move; or (iv) the Company's material breach of the Lynch Employment Agreement.

In addition, if within one year following a change in control of the Company Mr. Lynch's employment is terminated (i) by the Company or a succeeding entity without cause or (ii) by Mr. Lynch for good reason, then the Company shall (1) pay Mr. Lynch unpaid base salary accrued up to the effective date of termination; (2) pay Mr. Lynch a prorated portion of Mr. Lynch's annualized bonus; (3) pay Mr. Lynch a lump sum payment equal to the greater of Mr. Lynch's current base salary (x) through December 31, 2010 or (y) for period of twelve (12) months; and (4) pay on Mr. Lynch's behalf Mr. Lynch's COBRA premiums for a period not to exceed eighteen (18) months. For the purposes of the Lynch Employment Agreement, a change in control shall be deemed to have occurred if, (i) there shall be consummated (A) any consolidation or merger in which the Company is not the continuing or surviving corporation or pursuant to which shares of the Company's common stock would be converted into cash, securities or other property, other than a consolidation or a merger having the same proportionate ownership of common stock of the surviving corporation immediately after the consolidation or merger or (B) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions other than in the ordinary course of business of the Company) of all, or substantially all, of the assets of the Company to any corporation, person or other entity which is not a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, or (ii) any person, group, corporation or other entity shall acquire beneficial ownership (as determined pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and rules and regulations promulgated hereunder) of 50% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock. In all cases pursuant to the Lynch Employment Agreement, the determination of whether a change of control has occurred shall be made in accordance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations, notices and other guidance of general applicability issued there under.

If Mr. Lynch dies of natural causes during the term of his employment, the Company shall pay to his estate (1) Mr. Lynch's unpaid base salary accrued up to the effective date of termination; and (2) a prorated portion of Mr. Lynch's annualized bonus. If Mr. Lynch becomes disabled during the term of his employment for (i) a period of three (3) consecutive months, or (ii) for shorter periods aggregating ninety (90) calendar days during any twelve-month period, the Company may at any time after the last day of the three (3) consecutive months of disability or the day on which the shorter periods of disability equal an aggregate of ninety days, suspend the term of Mr. Lynch's employment and discontinue payments of his base salary for the duration of the disability. Mr. Lynch shall be entitled to the full compensation payable to him hereunder for shorter periods of disability shorter than the periods specified above.

The Lynch Employment Agreement expires on December 31, 2011.
