will be best positioned to realise its remarkable value creation potential.

I have been working closely for years with Roland Junck. His experience in Luxembourg's steel mills, which he contributed to modernise, in Spain after the privatisation of the Spanish steel industry, in South America where he steered Arcelor's long carbon business, as well as more recently in China where he oversaw our expansion plans, have given him an in-depth knowledge and a far-reaching vision of the steel industry.

Lakshmi N. Mittal, President of the Board of Arcelor Mittal, said:

I am delighted to be able to announce today the details of the new Management Board and Board of Directors of Arcelor Mittal. I am confident that we have put together a very strong Management Board, comprising some of the most experienced executives in the steel industry. They have already been working closely together over the past six weeks and have established a good rapport which augurs well for the future integration of the two companies.

I am delighted that Mr Roland Junck has been appointed as the Chief Executive. I have been very impressed by my dealings with him in recent weeks, which gives me great confidence in his ability to lead the new company. I am looking forward to working closely with him on the future strategy and growth of the new Arcelor Mittal.

Roland Junck, CEO Arcelor Mittal, said:

I am very proud to be taking up the position of CEO at Arcelor Mittal. I have had many happy years working at Arcelor and its predecessor companies. I have also watched with admiration the growth of Mittal Steel which has established itself as one of the most exciting and dynamic companies in the steel industry today.

I am very excited about the challenges of leading a company of this heritage. The discussions I have had over the past few days with Mr Mittal have given me great encouragement and I am very much looking forward to working closely with him.

I will be supported by an exceptional management team and we will work together to deliver on the potential of this great company.
