Blacksands Petroleum, Inc.
(A Development Stage Enterprise)
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS, HISTORY AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of business and history - Blacksands Petroleum, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") was incorporated in the State of Nevada on October 12, 2004 as Lam Liang Corp. The Company was formed to design, produce and sell fashionable computer laptop cases for women through a subsidiary, which was subsequently dissolved on June 5, 2006. The Company's operations were limited to general administrative operations and development of its first product line and the Company was considered a development stage company in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 7, and exited its plan of operation on May 6, 2006. To indicate its new direction into the unconventional oil industry, the Company filed a Certificate of Amendment to its Articles of Incorporation on June 9, 2006 to change its name from "Lam Liang Corp." to "Blacksands Petroleum, Inc." On August 3, 2007, the Company completed its purchase of 75% of the capital of Access Energy Inc. ("Access"). Prior to the purchase, the Company was a "shell company" as that term is defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act. By consummating the purchase, the Company succeeded at its business plan, which was to enter the unconventional petroleum industry by acquiring a suitable target company.

Going Concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on additional sources of capital and the success of the Company's business plan. As reflected in the accompanying financial statements, the Company has incurred net losses and negative cash flows from operations, which raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

Year end - The Company's fiscal year end is October 31.

Principles of consolidation - The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiary Access Energy Inc. from the date of acquisition of August 3, 2007. All significant inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated. The acquisition of 75% of the issued common stock of Access Energy Inc. is accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Access are recorded as of the acquisition date, at their fair market values, and added to those of Blacksands. The 25% share of the minority stockholders' interest in the net assets of Access is recorded as a liability. Pre-acquisition losses of Access are eliminated on consolidation. The 25% share of the minority stockholders' net post acquisition losses of Access are shown as a separate item on the consolidated statement of operations and are deducted from the minority stockholders' interest in net assets.

Use of estimates - The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents - The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Concentration of credit risks - The Company's cash and cash equivalents accounts are held at financial institutions and are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $100,000 and by Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation ("CDIC") up to Cdn$100,000. During quarter ended January 31, 2008, the Company has maintained bank balances exceeding the FDIC and CDIC insurance limits. To reduce its risk associated with the failure of such financial institutions, the Company periodically evaluates the credit quality of the financial institutions in which it holds deposits.

Oil and Gas Properties - The Company follows the successful efforts method of accounting for its oil and natural gas properties. Unproved oil and gas properties are periodically assessed and any impairment in value is charged to exploration expense. The costs of unproved properties, which are determined to be productive, are transferred to proved oil and gas properties and amortized on an equivalent unit-of-production basis. Exploratory expenses, including geological and geophysical expenses and delay rentals for unevaluated oil and gas properties, are charged to expense as incurred. Exploratory drilling costs are initially capitalized as unproved property but charged to expense if and when the well is determined not to have found proved oil and gas reserves. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 19, exploratory drilling costs are evaluated within a one-year period after the completion of drilling.

Property and equipment - Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided principally on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which are generally 3 to 27 years. The amounts of depreciation provided are sufficient to charge the cost of the related assets to operations over their estimated useful lives. Upon sale or other disposition of a depreciable property, cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gain or loss is reflected in other income.

The Company periodically evaluates whether events and circumstances have occurred that may warrant revision of the estimated useful life of fixed assets or whether the remaining balance of fixed assets should be evaluated for possible impairment. The Company uses an estimate of the related undiscounted cash flows over the remaining life of the fixed assets in measuring their recoverability.

Income taxes - The Company accounts for its income taxes in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and tax credit carry forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in operations in the period that includes the enactment date.

Management feels the Company will have a net operating loss carryover to be used for future years. Such losses may not be fully deductible due to the significant amounts of non-cash service costs. The Company has established a valuation allowance for the full tax benefit of the operating loss carryovers due to the uncertainty regarding realization.

Net loss per common share - The Company computes net loss per share in accordance with SFAS No. 128, Earnings per Share (SFAS 128) and SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 98 (SAB 98). Under the provisions of SFAS 128 and SAB 98, basic net loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss available to common stockholders for the period by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. The calculation of diluted net loss per share gives effect to common stock equivalents; however, potential common shares are excluded if their effect is anti-dilutive. For the quarter ended January 31, 2008, 14,054,700 options and warrants were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share because their effect would be anti-dilutive. For the quarter ended January 31, 2007 there were 13,054,700 options and warrants excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share because their effect would be anti-dilutive.

Comprehensive income (loss) – The Company’s funds at January 31, 2008 and at October 31, 2007 were held in Canadian and U.S. Dollar bank accounts. Foreign currency translation losses for the quarter ended January 31, 2008 amounted to $194,062. Foreign currency translation losses for the quarter ended January 31, 2007 were $11,316. Total foreign currency translation gains from October 12, 2004 to January 31, 2008 were $125,900. See note 8 regarding comprehensive income.

Foreign Currency Translation –The Company uses the United States Dollar as its reporting currency for consistency with registrants of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and in accordance with the SFAS No. 52 - “Foreign Currency Translation”. Assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the period end and capital accounts are translated at historical rates. Income statement accounts are translated at the average rates of exchange prevailing during the period. Translation adjustments from the use of different exchange rates from period to period are included in the comprehensive income account in stockholder’s equity, if applicable.

The Company’s operations have moved to Canada and although the Company maintains substantial funds in United States Dollars, the functional currency of the Company is the Canadian Dollar. The Company continues to use the United States Dollar as its reporting currency for consistency with registrants of the SEC.

Transactions undertaken in currencies other than the functional currency of the entity are translated using the exchange rate in effect as of the transaction date. Any exchange gains and losses are included in other items on the statement of operations.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The carrying amounts of financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, prepaid expenses and deposits, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value at January 31, 2008 and at October 31, 2007 because of the relatively short maturity of the instruments.

Revenue recognition - The Company has no revenues to date from its operations.

Stock based compensation -In December 2004, the FASB issued SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment, which is a revision of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. SFAS No. 123(R) supersedes APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, and amends SFAS No. 95, Statement of Cash Flows. Generally, the approach in SFAS No. 123(R) is similar to the approach described in SFAS No. 123. However, SFAS No. 123(R) requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, to be recognized in the income statement based on their fair values. Pro forma disclosure is no longer an alternative. The new standard became effective for the Company in the first interim or annual reporting period beginning after December 15, 2005. The Company has adopted this standard effective for the year ended October 31, 2006.

New accounting pronouncements -In September 2006, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 157. This Statement defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This Statement applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements, the Board having previously concluded in those accounting pronouncements that fair value is a relevant measurement attribute. Accordingly, this Statement does not require any new fair value measurements. However, for some entities, the application of this Statement will change current practices. This Statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. Earlier application is permitted provided that the reporting entity has not yet issued financial statements for that fiscal year. Management is currently evaluating the impact this statement will have on the consolidated financial statements of the Company once adopted.

Edgar Filing: BLACKSANDS PETROLEUM, INC. - Form 10-Q

In February 2007, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities – Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115. This Statement permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by providing entities with the opportunity to mitigate volatility in reported earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. This Statement applies to all entities, including not-for-profit organizations. Most of the provisions of this Statement apply only to entities that elect the fair value option. However, the amendment to FASB Statement No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities, applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. The fair value option permits all entities to choose to measure eligible items at fair value at specified election dates.

A business entity shall report unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected in earnings (or another performance indicator if the business entity does not report earnings) at each subsequent reporting date. The fair value option may be applied instrument by instrument (with a few exceptions); is irrevocable (unless a new election date occurs); and is applied only to entire instruments and not to portions of instruments. This Statement is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after or before November 15, 2007, provided the entity also elects to apply the provisions of FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurement. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 159 to materially effect the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In December 2007, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 141 (revised 2007), Business Combinations. This Statement replaces FASB Statement No. 141, Business Combinations. This Statement retains the fundamental requirements in Statement 141 that the acquisition method of accounting (which Statement 141 called the purchase method) be used for all business combinations and for an acquirer to be identified for each business combination. This Statement defines the acquirer as the entity that obtains control of one or more businesses in the business combination and establishes the acquisition date as the date that the acquirer achieves control. This Statement's scope is broader than that of Statement 141, which applied only to business combinations in which control was obtained by transferring consideration. By applying the same method of accounting—the acquisition method—to all transactions and other events in which one entity obtains control over one or more other businesses, this Statement improves the comparability of the information about business combinations provided in financial reports.

This Statement requires an acquirer to recognize the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, and any non-controlling interest in the acquiree at the acquisition date, measured at their fair values as of that date, with limited exceptions specified in the Statement. That replaces Statement 141's cost-allocation process, which required the cost of an acquisition to be allocated to the individual assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values.

This Statement applies to all transactions or other events in which an entity (the acquirer) obtains control of one or more businesses (the acquirer), including those sometimes referred to as "true mergers" or "mergers of equals" and combinations achieved without the transfer of consideration, for example, by contract alone or through the lapse of minority veto rights. This Statement applies to all business entities, including mutual entities that previously used the pooling-of-interests method of accounting for some business combinations. It does not apply to: (a) The formation of a joint venture, (b) The acquisition of an asset or a group of assets that does not constitute a business, (c) A combination between entities or businesses under common control, (d) A combination between not-for-profit organizations or the acquisition of a for-profit business by a not-for-profit organization.

This Statement applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. An entity may not apply it before that date. Management believes this Statement will have no impact on the financial statements of the Company once adopted.

In December 2007, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 160 – Non-controlling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements – an amendment of ARB No. 51. This Statement applies to all entities that prepare consolidated financial statements, except not-for-profit organizations, but will affect only those entities that have an outstanding non-controlling interest in one or more subsidiaries or that deconsolidate a subsidiary.

This Statement amends ARB 51 to establish accounting and reporting standards for the non-controlling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. It clarifies that a non-controlling interest in a subsidiary is an ownership interest in the consolidated entity that should be reported as equity in the consolidated financial statements. Before this Statement was issued, limited guidance existed for reporting non-controlling interests. As a result, considerable diversity in practice existed. So-called minority interests were reported in the consolidated statement of financial position as liabilities or in the mezzanine section between liabilities and equity. This Statement improves comparability by eliminating that diversity.

A non-controlling interest, sometimes called a minority interest, is the portion of equity in a subsidiary not attributable, directly or indirectly, to a parent. The objective of this Statement is to improve the relevance, comparability, and transparency of the financial information that a reporting entity provides in its consolidated financial statements by establishing accounting and reporting standards that require: (a) The ownership interests in subsidiaries held by parties other than the parent be clearly identified, labeled, and presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity, but separate from the parent's equity, (b) The amount of consolidated net income attributable to the parent and to the non-controlling interest be clearly identified and presented on the face of the consolidated statement of income, (c) Changes in a parent's ownership interest while the parent retains its controlling financial interest in its subsidiary be accounted for consistently. A parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary changes if the parent purchases additional ownership interests in its subsidiary or if the parent sells some of its ownership interests in its subsidiary. It also changes if the subsidiary reacquires some of its ownership interests or the subsidiary issues additional ownership interests. All of those transactions are economically similar, and this Statement requires that they be accounted for similarly, as equity transactions, (d) When a subsidiary is deconsolidated, any retained non-controlling equity investment in the former subsidiary be initially measured at fair value. The gain or loss on the deconsolidation of the subsidiary is measured using the fair value of any non-controlling equity investment rather than the carrying amount of that retained investment, (e) Entities provide sufficient disclosures that clearly identify and distinguish between the interests of the parent and the interests of the non-controlling owners.

This Statement is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning on or after December 15, 2008 (that is, January 1, 2009, for entities with calendar year-ends). Earlier adoption is prohibited. This Statement shall be applied prospectively as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which this Statement is initially applied, except for the presentation and disclosure requirements. The presentation and disclosure requirements shall be applied retrospectively for all periods presented. Management believes this Statement will have no impact on the financial statements of the Company once adopted.

Management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective accounting pronouncements if currently adopted would have a material effect on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Edgar Filing: BLACKSANDS PETROLEUM, INC. - Form 10-Q

(a). Access's financial statements in Canadian Dollars are adjusted to reflect consistent application of accounting policies used by Blacksands. Blacksands uses the successful efforts basis of accounting to report its oil and gas properties costs. Access's financial statements use the full cost method of accounting for oil and gas properties costs. The pro forma adjustment results in Blacksands' successful efforts method being applied to Access financial statements; and

(b). To eliminate pre-acquisition expenses and losses of Access in the statement of operations.

Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties, which may cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. A detailed discussion of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and events to differ materially from such forward-looking statements is included in our most recent annual report on Form 10-KSB under the heading "Risk Factors and Uncertainties" (see Part I, Item 1 in such report), as amended in this report under the heading "Risk Factors" (see Part II, Item 1A). We undertake no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with our consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in this report.

On August 3, 2007, we completed the purchase of 75% of Access Energy Inc. ("Access") for cash of $3,234,544 and 1,500,000 warrants to purchase shares of our common stock issued to the former sole stockholder of Access. Prior to our acquisition of Access (the "Purchase"), we were an exploration stage company with no revenues. As a result of the Purchase, our plan of operation, results of operations and financial condition differ materially from those that existed prior to the Purchase.

The initial exploration project for Access is named the "A10 Project" and lies on a portion of the traditional land of the Buffalo River Dene Nation (the "BRDN") subject to Treaty 10 ("Treaty 10") in western Saskatchewan on the border with Alberta (the "Project Land"). The BRDN is a party to Treaty 10 with Her Majesty the Queen in the Right of Canada (the "Crown") which recognizes lands and water belonging to the BRDN whose territory is situated partly in the Province of Saskatchewan and partly in the Province of Alberta. Upon entering into Treaty 10, the BRDN did not cede, release, surrender or yield to the Crown any or all rights, titles and privileges whatsoever to the BRDN's traditional territories. Lands and waters described in Treaty 10 form a part of the traditional territories of the BRDN. On November 3, 2006, Access entered into a joint venture agreement, which was amended on May 9, 2007, and on May 24, 2007, Access entered into an Impact Benefit Agreement with the BRDN granting Access exclusive access to explore and develop its traditional lands. A copy of this agreement was filed as Exhibit 10.8 to our Form 8-K filed on August 8, 2007.

Subsequent to the Purchase, we have continued work to obtain the permits, licenses and sub-surface rights necessary to commence our exploration activities.

At a Board of Directors' meeting on February 15, 2008, the Board of Directors approved operating budgets for the Company and for Access for the year ended October 31, 2008. The Access budget included cost expectations to obtain the required permits, approvals, licences and sub-surface rights which would enable the Company to carry out work on the A10 Project.

The Company is committed, under the Unanimous Shareholders' Agreement among Access, the Company and the minority shareholder, to contribute sufficient capital to Access to meet Access's planned financial commitments until such time as Access has sufficient internal capital resources to fund its commitments without such contributions. These contributions are treated as a contribution of capital, with no increase in our current 75% equity participation in Access. Therefore, all contributions that we make to Access are dilutive to our shareholders as to 25% of such contributions. The minority shareholder is not obligated to provide any funding to Access in order to maintain his 25% interest in Access.

Unless the context otherwise requires, all references in this report to “Blacksands”, “the Company”, “we”, “us” or “our” refer to both Blacksands and Access. In our consolidated financial statements, this management’s discussion and analysis and elsewhere in this report, unless otherwise noted, we include 100% of the accounts of Access from the date of acquisition of August 3, 2007. For a discussion of our principles of consolidation, see Note 1 to the interim consolidated financial statements included in this report.

Consolidated Results of Operations

For the three months ended January 31, 2008, and since the date of inception, we have not yet generated any revenues.

We incurred total operating expenses of $356,957 for the three months ended January 31, 2008, as compared to total operating expenses of $189,297 for the three months ended January 31, 2007. The increase in our expenses was principally due to our ceasing to be a “shell company” and our commencement of operations. These expenses consisted of general operating expenses incurred in connection with the day-to-day operation of our business and the preparation and filing of our periodic reports as well as the management fees paid to Coniston Investment Corp. (“Coniston”) of $67,847 as well as Directors’ fees of $21,667. The significant operating expenses include professional fees of $141,885 for the three months ended January 31, 2008 incurred in connection with filing of periodic reports, SEC compliance filings, audit and accounting fees and general corporate matters as compared with professional fees of $144,529 for the three months ended January 31, 2007. The office and administration expenses of $56,319 for the three months ended January 31, 2008 include rent, travel, telephone and other office expenses as compared to office and administration expenses of $29,926 for the three months ended January 31, 2007. We also incurred oil and gas exploration expenses of $67,454 for the three months ended January 31, 2008 compared with oil and gas exploration expenses of $0 for the three months ended January 31, 2007.

We earned total interest income of $52,584 for the three months ended January 31, 2008, as compared to total interest income of $120,820 for the three months ended January 31, 2007. The interest was earned on the balance of proceeds of the private placement on August 9, 2006 of $10,854,700, and has declined as we have used the cash in our operations and the unused balance of such proceeds has declined as well as reduced interest rates offered by our bank.

Our total comprehensive loss for the three months ended January 31, 2008 was $453,243, as compared to total comprehensive loss of $78,384 for the three months ended January 31, 2007, and a total comprehensive loss of $2,174,024 from inception on October 12, 2004 to January 31, 2008.

Net cash used in investing activities for the three months ended January 31, 2008 was $231,911, as compared to $0 for the three months ended January 31, 2007 and $4,594,026 for the period from inception on October 12, 2004 to January 31, 2008. There was no cash used by or provided from financing activities during the three months ended January 31, 2008. Cash used by financing activities for the three months ended January 31, 2007 was $50,000, resulting from our repurchase of 30,000,000 shares of common stock from Mr. Stevenson on November 6, 2006.

We are still in the exploration stage and have generated no revenues to date.

Our management intends to consider possible strategic transactions in the unconventional oil industry. We expect to be able to satisfy our cash requirements for at least the next 12 months without having to raise additional funds or seek bank loans if we do not undertake any such strategic transactions. After that 12-month period, we may have to raise additional monies through sales of our equity securities or through loans from banks or third parties to continue our business plans; however, no such plans have yet been implemented.

Our stockholders' equity at January 31, 2008 was $9,706,888.

Subsequent to the quarterend, on February 15, 2008, the Board of Directors approved an advance of approximately Cdn$2,258,000 (US$2,264,829) to Access for its working capital requirements. This advance is treated as contributed capital.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We have no off-balance sheet arrangements.

² On November 1, 2005, Access entered into an agreement with Coniston to provide management, consulting and advisory services to Access (the "Services"). These services include assisting Access in negotiating joint venture agreements, assisting in the formation of a team of technical experts, and other consulting and advisory services as required by Access from time to time. The agreement automatically renews for consecutive one-year terms unless terminated by either party in writing.

Critical Accounting Policies

Our financial statements are based on the selection and application of generally accepted accounting principles, which require us to make estimates and assumptions about future events that affect the amounts reported in our financial statements and the accompanying notes. Future events and their effects cannot be determined with certainty. Therefore, the determination of estimates requires the exercise of judgment. Actual results could differ from those estimates, and any such differences may be material to our financial statements. We believe that our policies may involve a higher degree of judgment and complexity in their application than our other accounting policies and represent the critical accounting policies used in the preparation of our financial statements. If different assumptions or conditions were to prevail, the results could be materially different from our reported results. Our significant accounting policies are presented in the notes to our financial statements.

When we prepare our consolidated financial statements, we use estimates and assumptions that may affect reported amounts and disclosures. We base these estimates on historical results and various other assumptions believed to be reasonable, the results of which form the basis for making estimates concerning the carrying value of assets and liabilities that are not readily available from other sources. Actual results could differ from the amounts previously estimated, which were based on the information available at the time the estimates were made. Changes in estimates are recorded if and when better information becomes available.

We consider an accounting estimate to be critical if: (1) the accounting estimate requires us to make an assumption about a matter that was highly uncertain at the time the estimate was made, and (2) changes in the estimate that are reasonably likely to occur from period to period, or use of a different estimate that we reasonably could have used in the current period, could have a material impact on our consolidated results of operations or financial condition.

We have established an Audit Committee consisting of two non-executive Directors. The members of the Audit Committee are Bruno Mosimann and Mark Holcombe.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 157. This Statement defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. This Statement applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements, the Board having previously concluded in those accounting pronouncements that fair value is a relevant measurement attribute. Accordingly, this Statement does not require any new fair value measurements. However, for some entities, the application of this Statement will change current practices. This Statement is effective for financial statements for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. Earlier application is permitted provided that the reporting entity has not yet issued financial statements for that fiscal year. Management is currently evaluating the impact this statement will have on the consolidated financial statements of the Company once adopted.

In February 2007, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities – Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115. This Statement permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by providing entities with the opportunity to mitigate volatility in reported earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. This Statement applies to all entities, including not-for-profit organizations. Most of the provisions of this Statement apply only to entities that elect the fair value option. However, the amendment to FASB Statement No. 115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities, applies to all entities with available-for-sale and trading securities. The fair value option permits all entities to choose to measure eligible items at fair value at specified election dates.

A business entity shall report unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected in earnings (or another performance indicator if the business entity does not report earnings) at each subsequent reporting date. The fair value option may be applied instrument by instrument (with a few exceptions); is irrevocable (unless a new election date occurs); and is applied only to entire instruments and not to portions of instruments. This Statement is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after or before November 15, 2007, provided the entity also elects to apply the provisions of FASB Statement No. 157, Fair Value Measurement. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS 159 to materially effect the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In December 2007, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 141 (revised 2007), Business Combinations. This Statement replaces FASB Statement No. 141, Business Combinations. This Statement retains the fundamental requirements in Statement 141 that the acquisition method of accounting (which Statement 141 called the purchase method) be used for all business combinations and for an acquirer to be identified for each business combination. This Statement defines the acquirer as the entity that obtains control of one or more businesses in the business combination and establishes the acquisition date as the date that the acquirer achieves control. This Statement's scope is broader than that of Statement 141, which applied only to business combinations in which control was obtained by transferring consideration. By applying the same method of accounting—the acquisition method—to all transactions and other events in which one entity obtains control over one or more other businesses, this Statement improves the comparability of the information about business combinations provided in financial reports.

This Statement requires an acquirer to recognize the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, and any non-controlling interest in the acquiree at the acquisition date, measured at their fair values as of that date, with limited exceptions specified in the Statement. That replaces Statement 141's cost-allocation process, which required the cost of an acquisition to be allocated to the individual assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values.

This Statement applies to all transactions or other events in which an entity (the acquirer) obtains control of one or more businesses (the acquiree), including those sometimes referred to as "true mergers" or "mergers of equals" and combinations achieved without the transfer of consideration, for example, by contract alone or through the lapse of minority veto rights. This Statement applies to all business entities, including mutual entities that previously used the pooling-of-interests method of accounting for some business combinations. It does not apply to: (a) The formation of a joint venture, (b) The acquisition of an asset or a group of assets that does not constitute a business, (c) A combination between entities or businesses under common control, (d) A combination between not-for-profit organizations or the acquisition of a for-profit business by a not-for-profit organization.

Edgar Filing: BLACKSANDS PETROLEUM, INC. - Form 10-Q

This Statement applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after the beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. An entity may not apply it before that date. Management believes this Statement will have no impact on the financial statements of the Company once adopted.

In December 2007, the FASB issued FASB Statement No. 160 – Non-controlling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements – an amendment of ARB No. 51. This Statement applies to all entities that prepare consolidated financial statements, except not-for-profit organizations, but will affect only those entities that have an outstanding non-controlling interest in one or more subsidiaries or that deconsolidate a subsidiary.

This Statement amends ARB 51 to establish accounting and reporting standards for the non-controlling interest in a subsidiary and for the deconsolidation of a subsidiary. It clarifies that a non-controlling interest in a subsidiary is an ownership interest in the consolidated entity that should be reported as equity in the consolidated financial statements. Before this Statement was issued, limited guidance existed for reporting non-controlling interests. As a result, considerable diversity in practice existed. So-called minority interests were reported in the consolidated statement of financial position as liabilities or in the mezzanine section between liabilities and equity. This Statement improves comparability by eliminating that diversity.

A non-controlling interest, sometimes called a minority interest, is the portion of equity in a subsidiary not attributable, directly or indirectly, to a parent. The objective of this Statement is to improve the relevance, comparability, and transparency of the financial information that a reporting entity provides in its consolidated financial statements by establishing accounting and reporting standards that require: (a) The ownership interests in subsidiaries held by parties other than the parent be clearly identified, labeled, and presented in the consolidated statement of financial position within equity, but separate from the parent's equity, (b) The amount of consolidated net income attributable to the parent and to the non-controlling interest be clearly identified and presented on the face of the consolidated statement of income, (c) Changes in a parent's ownership interest while the parent retains its controlling financial interest in its subsidiary be accounted for consistently. A parent's ownership interest in a subsidiary changes if the parent purchases additional ownership interests in its subsidiary or if the parent sells some of its ownership interests in its subsidiary. It also changes if the subsidiary reacquires some of its ownership interests or the subsidiary issues additional ownership interests. All of those transactions are economically similar, and this Statement requires that they be accounted for similarly, as equity transactions, (d) When a subsidiary is deconsolidated, any retained non-controlling equity investment in the former subsidiary be initially measured at fair value. The gain or loss on the deconsolidation of the subsidiary is measured using the fair value of any non-controlling equity investment rather than the carrying amount of that retained investment, (e) Entities provide sufficient disclosures that clearly identify and distinguish between the interests of the parent and the interests of the non-controlling owners.

This Statement is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning on or after December 15, 2008 (that is, January 1, 2009, for entities with calendar year-ends). Earlier adoption is prohibited. This Statement shall be applied prospectively as of the beginning of the fiscal year in which this Statement is initially applied, except for the presentation and disclosure requirements. The presentation and disclosure requirements shall be applied retrospectively for all periods presented. Management believes this Statement will have no impact on the financial statements of the Company once adopted.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

While the Company's reporting currency is U.S. dollars, the Company's principal executive offices and its principal exploration property, the A10 Project, are located in Canada, and most of its contractual obligations are payable in Canadian dollars. For this reason, the Company is subject to Canada-U.S. exchange rate risk. The Company considers the amount of risk to be manageable and does not currently, nor is it likely in the foreseeable future to, conduct hedging to reduce its exchange rate risk. A hypothetical 10% increase in the value of one Canadian dollar expressed in U.S. dollars during the quarter ended January 31, 2008 would have caused an approximate $2,000 increase in the Company's expenses for the quarter, and an equivalent decrease in the value of one Canadian dollar would have caused a $2,000 decrease in the Company's expenses for the quarter. A hypothetical 10% increase in the value of one Canadian dollar expressed in U.S. dollars during the quarter ended January 31, 2008 would have caused an approximate $223,000 increase in the Company's other comprehensive loss and a corresponding decrease in stockholders' equity for the quarter, and an equivalent decrease in the value of one Canadian dollar would have caused a $223,000 decrease in the Company's other comprehensive loss and a corresponding increase in stockholders' equity for the quarter.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, we have evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as required by Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(b) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on that evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that these disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended January 31, 2008 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II: OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings.

None.

Item 1A. Risk Factors.

The Company's risk factors have not changed materially from those set forth under the heading "Risk Factors and Uncertainties" in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-KSB, except as follows:

The Company and its shareholders may be adversely affected by recent rule amendments making Rule 144 unavailable for Company securities.

Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933 provides a safe harbour under which holders of restricted securities and affiliates of an issuer may resell their securities into the public market. Effective February 15, 2008, Rule 144 was amended to make it unavailable for securities of former shell companies until, among other things, twelve months have elapsed since the former "shell company" has filed "Form 10 information" with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company was a "shell company" until August 3, 2007, when it acquired 75% of Access. On August 8, 2007, the Company filed a Form 8-K report that was intended to satisfy the "Form 10 information" requirement. Accordingly, Rule 144 is no longer available to permit our shareholders to resell their Company securities. No assurance can be provided as to the date that the Company's securities will again become eligible for resale under Rule 144.

The unavailability of the Rule 144 resale exemption for our securities may adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing on a private placement basis, and may adversely affect the ability of our private places and affiliates to resell their securities into the public market, all of which could have a material adverse effect on us and our shareholders.

Our funding of Access is dilutive to our shareholders.

The Company is committed, under the Unanimous Shareholders' Agreement among Access, the Company and the minority shareholder, to contribute sufficient capital to Access to meet Access's planned financial commitments until such time as Access has sufficient internal capital resources to fund its commitments without such contributions. These contributions are treated as a contribution of capital, with no increase in our current 75% equity participation in Access. Therefore, all contributions that we make to Access are dilutive to our shareholders as to 25% of such contributions. The minority shareholder is not obligated to provide any funding to Access in order to maintain his 25% interest in Access.

In addition, we may have insufficient capital resources to satisfy this obligation. If we are unable to satisfy our contractual obligation to fund Access, we may be liable for breach of contract.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds.

None.

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities.

None.

Item 4. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders.

None.

Item 5. Other Information.

(a) Form 8-K Information

On February 15, 2008, the Board of Directors approved a new stock option plan for the Company. The material terms of the amended plan are as follows:

The purpose of the plan is to enhance shareholder value by (i) providing a long-term incentive to the Company's key service providers, including directors, officers and employees; (ii) improving the ability of the Company to attract, retain and motivate its key personnel; and (iii) encouraging participants in the plan to maintain a significant level of investment in the Company, thereby closely aligning their personal interests with those of the shareholders.

The plan is administered by the Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: BLACKSANDS PETROLEUM, INC. - Form 10-Q

The maximum number of common shares subject to issuance under the plan is not to exceed 10% of the issues and outstanding at the time of the grant.

Options may be granted under the plan by the Board of Directors to any director, officer, employee, consultant or advisor of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company; provided, however, that a consultant or advisor shall only be eligible to receive options under the plan if such person is a natural person, provides bona fide services to the Company and the services provided by such consultant or advisor are not in connection with the offer or sale of securities in a capital-raising transaction, and do not directly or indirectly promote or maintain a market for the Company's securities. The exercise price of options granted under the plan may not be less than the market price of the shares on the date of grant, calculated as set forth in the plan. Each option shall be governed by an option agreement. In no event may the term of an option exceed ten years from the date of grant. Options may not be transferred or assigned, except in limited circumstances.

If an optionee dies or becomes disabled prior to the termination of an option, the option shall be exercisable, to the extent exercisable on the date of death or disability, for a period of six months thereafter. If an optionee is terminated for cause, the option shall immediately terminate. If an optionee is terminated for any other reason, the option shall be exercisable, to the extent exercisable on the date of termination, for a period of 30 days thereafter.

On February 15, 2008, the Board of Directors also approved the grant of stock options under the plan to five directors and executive officers and two consultants of the Company exercisable for an aggregate of 2,200,000 common shares of the Company, as set forth below:

(Mr. Stevenson has 500,000 options previously granted)
Two Consultants (Aggregated)	200,000	$1.90	125,000 immediately; 37,500 when our shares trade at $2.50 for 10 consecutive trading days; and 37,500 when our shares trade at $3.00 for 10 consecutive trading days	Five years

The new plan and the grants described above are subject to shareholder approval, and are also subject to regulatory approvals, if necessary. The Company is considering technical amendments to the plan, and intends to submit the plan, as amended, for shareholder approval at the Company's next shareholder meeting.

(b) Director Nomination Procedures

The Company does not have any established procedures by which security holders may recommend nominees to the Company's Board of Directors.
