COMCAST ANNOUNCES PROPOSAL TO RECLASSIFY EACH SHARE OF CLASS A SPECIAL COMMON STOCK INTO ONE SHARE OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK

PHILADELPHIA – October 26, 2015 – Comcast Corporation today announced that its Board of Directors has approved a proposal to amend and restate the Company’s Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation in order to reclassify each share of Comcast Class A Special Common Stock (Nasdaq: CMCSK) into one share of Comcast Class A Common Stock (Nasdaq: CMCSA) (the “Reclassification”), subject to shareholder approval.

Comcast’s Board of Directors determined that the Reclassification is fair to and in the best interests of Comcast and its shareholders. It believes that the Reclassification will benefit Comcast’s shareholders by, among other things, eliminating investor confusion caused by having two classes of publicly traded stock and improving the trading liquidity of Comcast’s publicly traded stock.

In connection with the Reclassification, Comcast has filed a preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). After Comcast files a definitive proxy statement with the SEC, it will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on the Reclassification as soon as practicable. In order to become effective, the Reclassification must be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of Comcast’s Class A Common Stock and Class A Special Common Stock, in each case voting separately as a class, and its Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, voting together as a single class. Shareholders of record as of the close of business on October 20, 2015 are entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC have provided opinions to Comcast's Board of Directors to the effect that, subject to the assumptions and qualifications set forth in the respective opinion, the one-for-one reclassification ratio is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Class A Common Stock and the Class A Special Common Stock, respectively. The opinions are included in the preliminary proxy statement filed with the SEC.

Comcast, its directors, certain executive officers, and certain other employees may be deemed under the rules of the SEC to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of Comcast in favor of the Reclassification. Information about the directors and executive officers of Comcast is set forth in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, which was filed with the SEC on February 27, 2015, its proxy statement for its 2015 annual meeting of stockholders, which was filed with the SEC on April 10, 2015 and its Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 31, 2015, May 11, 2015, May 22, 2015, July 1, 2015 and July 7, 2015. Shareholders of Comcast may obtain additional information regarding the interests of the participants in the solicitation by reading the preliminary proxy statement relating to the Reclassification now and the definitive proxy statement relating to the Reclassification when it becomes available.

This communication contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are often, but not always, made through the use of words or phrases such as "may," "believe," "anticipate," "could," "should," "intend," "plan," "will," "expect(s)," "estimate(s)," "project(s)," "forecast(s)," "positioned," "strategy," "ou expressions. All such forward-looking statements involve estimates and assumptions that are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results expressed in the statements. Among the key factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include the timing to consummate the Reclassification, the risk that shareholder approval may not be obtained and the risk that expected cost savings and administrative efficiencies are not realized or are not realized as soon as may be expected. Additional information concerning these and other factors can be found in Comcast's filings with the SEC, including Comcast's most recent Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K.
