ITEM 2.05 Costs associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On December 8, 2010, the Board of Directors of The TJX Companies, Inc. approved the consolidation of its A.J. Wright division whereby TJX will convert 91 A.J. Wright stores into T.J. Maxx, Marshalls or HomeGoods stores and close the remaining 71 stores, A.J. Wright's two distribution centers and its home office. TJX anticipates that the closing of the A.J. Wright business will be completed by the middle of February 2011.

TJX expects to incur estimated pre-tax charges related to closing the A.J. Wright business of approximately $200 to $220 million. A summary of the estimated range of the major components of these estimated pre-tax charges (in millions) is presented below:

	Non-Cash	Cash	Total
Asset Impairments	$ 110-120	$	$ 110-120
Lease costs, net of sublease income		50-55	50-55
Severance, termination benefits and all other expenses		40-45	40-45
Total pre-tax charges	$ 110-120	$ 90-100	$ 200-220

Asset impairments relate primarily to buildings, fixtures and leasehold improvements.

In addition, TJX expects the A.J. Wright segment to incur operating losses of approximately $50 to $60 million in closing the business, bringing the total estimated pre-tax cost for the closing of A.J. Wright (including the above estimated charges and losses) to $250 to $280 million. TJX believes that the closing of the A.J. Wright business will not qualify for discontinued operations treatment and accordingly expects these charges and operating losses to be recorded in the A.J. Wright segment.

The above charges and losses are estimates, and the actual charges and losses may vary materially based on various factors, including timing of the closings; sales, mark downs and other factors affecting inventory value; factors relating to real estate including sale proceeds and timing and amount of sublease income and other lease expense; actual associate terminations and benefits; changes in management's assumptions and plans; and other factors. The press release issued on December 10, 2010 announcing the consolidation of the A.J. Wright stores is filed as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
