SOLICITATION AND VOTING

We are sending you this Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy card because the Board of Directors of First BancTrust Corporation (the Company we or us) is soliciting your proxy to vote at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting). This Proxy Statement summarizes the information you need to know to vote at the Annual Meeting.

You are invited to attend our Annual Meeting on April 19, 2004 beginning at 10:00 a.m., local time. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Human Resources Center, 118 East Court Street, Paris, Illinois.

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy are being mailed starting on or about March 19, 2004.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote

Holders of record of common stock of the Company at the close of business on March 12, 2004 are entitled to receive this notice. Each share of common stock of the Company is equal to one vote.

There is no cumulative voting at the Annual Meeting.

As of the record date, there were 1,250,225 common shares issued and outstanding.

Voting Procedures

Unless you hold your shares in the Company s Retirement Savings Plan (the 401(k) Plan) or the Employee Stock Ownership Plan and Trust (the ESOP), you can vote on matters to come before the meeting in one of two ways:

you can come to the Annual Meeting and cast your vote there; or you can vote by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card. If you do so, the individuals named as proxies on the card will vote your shares in the manner you indicate.

You may also choose to vote for all of the nominees for Director and each proposal by simply signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card without further direction. All signed and returned proxies that contain no direction as to vote will be voted FOR each of the nominees for Director and FOR each of the proposals.

The Board of Directors has selected itself as the persons to act as proxies on the proxy card.

Table of Contents

If you plan to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person, you should request a ballot when you arrive. HOWEVER, IF YOUR SHARES ARE HELD IN THE NAME OF YOUR BROKER, BANK OR OTHER NOMINEE, THE INSPECTOR OF ELECTION WILL REQUIRE YOU TO PRESENT A POWER OF ATTORNEY OR PROXY IN YOUR NAME FROM SUCH BROKER, BANK OR OTHER NOMINEE FOR YOU TO VOTE SUCH SHARES AT THE ANNUAL MEETING. Please contact your broker, bank or nominee.

Voting Procedures for Shares in the Company's 401(k) Plan or ESOP

If you participate in the Company's 401(k) Plan or ESOP, please return your proxy in the envelope on a timely basis to ensure that your proxy is voted. If you own or are entitled to give voting instructions for shares in the 401(k) Plan or ESOP and do not vote your shares or give voting instructions, generally, the Plan Administrator or Trustee will vote your shares in the same proportion as the shares for all plan participants for which voting instructions have been received. Holders of shares in the 401(k) Plan or ESOP will not be permitted to vote such shares at the Annual Meeting, but their attendance is encouraged and welcomed.

Required Vote

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non votes are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker non vote occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because such broker, bank or nominee does not have discretionary authority to vote and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

Once a quorum is achieved, a plurality of votes cast is all that is necessary for the election of Directors. Abstentions and broker non votes are not counted in determining the vote. As to ratification of BKD, LLP and all other matters that may come before the meeting, the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast is necessary for the approval of such matters. Abstentions and broker non votes are again not counted for purposes of approving the matter.

Revoking a Proxy

If you give a proxy, you may revoke it at any time before it is exercised. You may revoke your proxy in any one of three ways:

you may send in another proxy with a later date;

you may notify the Company's Secretary in writing at First BancTrust Corporation, 206 South Central Avenue, Paris, Illinois 61944; or unless you hold shares in the 401(k) Plan or ESOP, you may revoke by voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

If you choose to revoke your proxy by attending the Annual Meeting, you must vote in accordance with the rules for voting at the Annual Meeting. Attending the Annual Meeting alone will not constitute revocation of a proxy.

Table of Contents

List of Stockholders

A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be available for examination by stockholders for any purpose related to the Annual Meeting at the Company's offices at 206 South Central Avenue, Paris, Illinois for a period of ten days prior to the Annual Meeting. A list will also be available at the Annual Meeting itself.

Cost of Proxy Solicitation

We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies. Proxies may be solicited on our behalf by Directors, officers or employees in person or by telephone, mail or telegram. We do not intend to engage a proxy solicitation firm to assist us in the distribution and solicitation of proxies. The Company will also request persons, firms and corporations holding shares in their names for other beneficial owners to send proxy materials to such beneficial owners. The Company will reimburse these persons for their expenses.

Inspector of Election

Your proxy returned in the enclosed envelope will be delivered to the Company's transfer agent, Illinois Stock Transfer Company. The Board of Directors has designated Illinois Stock Transfer Company to act as inspectors of election and to tabulate the votes at the Annual Meeting. First BancTrust Corporation
206 South Central Avenue
Paris, Illinois 61944

Section 4.15 of the Company's Bylaws governs nominations for election to the Board of Directors and requires all nominations for election to the Board of Directors, other than those made by or at the direction of the Board, to be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company, as set forth in the Bylaws. To be timely, with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, a stockholders' notice must be delivered to or received by the Secretary not later than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the mailing of proxy materials by the Company in connection with the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders of the Company. No notice has been received by the Company in connection with the Annual Meeting. Each written notice of a stockholder nomination must set forth certain information specified in the Bylaws. The presiding officer of the meeting may refuse to acknowledge the nomination of any person not made in compliance with the procedures set forth in the Bylaws.

The Nominating Committee has not established specific, minimum qualifications for recommended nominees or specific qualities or skills for one or more of our directors to possess. The Nominating Committee uses a subjective process for identifying and evaluating nominees for director, based on the information available to, and the subjective judgments of, the members of the Nominating Committee and our then current needs, although the committee does not believe there would be any difference in the manner in which it evaluates nominees based on whether the nominee is recommended by a stockholder. Historically, nominees have been existing directors or business associates of our directors or officers.

Communications can be sent to the Board of Directors, its Nominating Committee or its Audit Committee or specific directors either by regular mail to the attention of the Board of Directors, its Nominating Committee, its Audit Committee or specific directors, at our principal executive offices at 206 South Central Avenue, Paris, Illinois 61944. ITEM 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Currently, the Board of Directors has seven members divided into three classes of two or three directors per class. Each class of directors has three-year terms. One class of directors is up for election each year. This results in a staggered Board which ensures continuity from year to year.

Two directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve for three-year terms expiring at our Annual Meeting in the year 2007.

The persons named in the enclosed proxy card intend to vote the proxy for the election of each of the two nominees unless you indicate on the proxy card that your vote should be withheld from any or all of such nominees. Each nominee elected as director will continue in office until his or her successor has been elected, or until his death, resignation or retirement.

The Board of Directors has proposed the following nominees for election as Directors with terms expiring in 2007 at the Annual Meeting: Terry T. Hutchison and John W. Welborn.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of these nominees as Directors.

We expect each nominee to be able to serve if elected. If any nominee is not able to serve, proxies will be voted in favor of the remainder of those nominated and may be voted for substitute nominees. The principal occupation and certain other information about the nominees and other Directors whose terms of office continue after the Annual Meeting is set forth below. OTHER COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTSEmployment Agreements

First BancTrust and First Bank, as employers, have entered into an employment agreement with Terry J. Howard pursuant to which the employers have agreed to employ Mr. Howard as President and Chief Executive Officer of First BancTrust and First Bank for a term of two years. The agreement provides that Mr. Howard will initially be paid a salary level of $107,500. Mr. Howard's compensation and expenses shall be paid by First BancTrust and First Bank in the same proportion as the time and services actually expended by the executive on behalf of each employer. The employment agreement will be reviewed annually. The term of Mr. Howard's employment agreement shall be extended each year for a successive additional one-year period upon the approval of the employers' Boards of Directors, unless either party elects, not less than 30 days prior to the annual anniversary date, not to extend the employment term. The employment agreement shall be terminable with or without cause by the employers. Mr. Howard shall have no right to compensation or other benefits pursuant to the employment agreement for any period after voluntary termination or termination by the employers for cause, disability or retirement. The agreement provides for certain benefits in the event of Mr. Howard's death. In the event that

- (1) either executive terminates his employment because the employers either fail to comply with any material provision of the employment agreement or change the executive's title or duties, or
- (2) the employment agreement is terminated by the employers other than for cause, disability, retirement or death or by the executive as a result of certain adverse actions which are taken with respect to the executive's employment following a change in control of First BancTrust, as defined, then the executive will be entitled to a cash severance amount equal to three times his average annual compensation for the last five calendar years (or such shorter period that he has worked with First Bank), plus the continuation of certain miscellaneous fringe benefits, subject to reduction pursuant to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code as set forth below in the event of a change in control.

A change in control is generally defined in the employment agreement to include any change in control of First BancTrust required to be reported under the federal securities laws, as well as (1) the acquisition by any person of 20% or more of First BancTrust's outstanding voting securities and (2) a change in a majority of the directors of First BancTrust during any three-year period without the approval of at least two-thirds of the persons who were directors of First BancTrust at the beginning of such period.

The employment agreement provides that, in the event any of the payments to be made thereunder or otherwise upon termination of employment are deemed to constitute parachute payments within the meaning of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, then such payments and benefits shall be reduced by the minimum necessary to result in the payments not exceeding three times the recipient's average annual compensation from the employers which was includable in the recipient's gross income during the most recent five taxable years. As a result, none of the severance payments will be subject to a 20% excise tax, and the employers will be able to deduct such payments as compensation expense for federal income tax purposes. Based upon compensation levels at December 31, 2003, if a change in control was to occur, the severance payment would be approximately $361,520 for Mr. Howard.

Although the above-described employment agreement could increase the cost of any acquisition of control, First BancTrust and First Bank does not believe that the terms thereof would have a significant anti-takeover effect.

First BancTrust may, in any plan year, make additional discretionary contributions for the benefit of plan participants in either cash or shares of common stock, which may be acquired through the purchase of outstanding shares in the market or from individual stockholders, upon the original issuance of additional shares by First BancTrust or upon the sale of treasury shares by First BancTrust. Such purchases, if made, would be funded through additional borrowings by our ESOP or additional contributions from First BancTrust. The timing, amount and manner of future contributions to our ESOP will be affected by various factors, including prevailing regulatory policies, the requirements of applicable laws and regulations and market conditions. The ESOP is subject to the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, and the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Labor thereunder.

A. Composition

The Committee shall consist of three or more directors, each of whom is independent of management and free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, as evidenced by its annual selection of such Committee members, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a Committee member. Furthermore, at least one Committee member must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or other comparable experience resulting in financial sophistication (including having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities).
