Item 5. Other Events.

The Williams Companies, Inc. ("Williams") announced today it expects to achieve recurring 2001 earnings of $2.35 per share, which includes an approximate 12 cents per share fourth quarter charge for credit exposure related to Enron's bankruptcy, vs. recurring earnings of $2.33 per share in the previous year. Williams' estimated unaudited income from continuing operations is $2.01 per share on a diluted basis for 2001 vs. $2.15 per share in 2000. A reconciliation of estimated income from continuing operations to recurring earnings is included in Exhibit 99.1. It includes all non-recurring items, except the contingency referenced in Exhibit 99.1 related to Williams' former telecommunications business.

Williams' planned release of complete unaudited 2001 earnings has been delayed pending an internal assessment of Williams' contingent obligations related to Williams Communications Group, Inc. (NYSE:WCG). This assessment was initiated in light of Williams' previously announced intention to eliminate credit-rating and equity-price triggers as part of contingent financial commitments associated with the 2001 spin-off of WCG, and because of recent developments within the telecommunications industry.
