On November 7, 2006, eBay Inc. ( eBay ), as borrower, entered into a Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement ) with Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent (the Agent ); certain lenders named therein; JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as Syndication Agents; and Banc of America Securities LLC, J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as Joint Lead Arrangers and Joint Book Managers. The Credit Agreement provides for an unsecured $1 billion five-year revolving credit facility (the Facility ). Funds borrowed under the Credit Agreement may be used for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions and other general corporate purposes of eBay and its subsidiaries.

eBay entered into the Credit Agreement in order to enhance its financial flexibility. eBay has not borrowed any funds under the Credit Agreement.

Loans under the Credit Agreement will bear interest at either (i) LIBOR plus a margin ranging from 0.25 percent to 0.45 percent or (ii) a formula based on the Agent s prime rate or on the federal funds effective rate. Subject to certain conditions stated in the Credit Agreement, eBay may borrow, prepay and reborrow amounts under the Facility at any time during the term of the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement will terminate and all amounts owing thereunder will be due and payable on November 7, 2011, unless (i) the commitments are earlier terminated, either at the request of eBay or, if an event of default occurs, by the lenders (or automatically in the case of certain bankruptcy-related events), or (ii) the maturity date is extended for up to two additional years upon the request of eBay and the agreement of either the existing lenders or additional banks not currently party to the Credit Agreement. eBay may also, upon the agreement of either the existing lenders or additional banks not currently party to the Credit Agreement, increase the commitments under the Facility to $2 billion. The Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, affirmative and negative covenants, including a financial covenant, and events of default. The negative covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement include restrictions regarding the incurrence of additional indebtedness and liens, and the entry into certain agreements that restrict the ability of eBay s subsidiaries to provide credit support to eBay. The financial covenant requires eBay to meet a quarterly financial test with respect to a maximum consolidated leverage ratio.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
