GLENAYRE TECHNOLOGIES, INC.
PROXY STATEMENT

2005 ANNUAL MEETING

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Glenayre Technologies, Inc. (the Company or Glenayre) of proxies for use at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the Hilton Garden Inn, 11695 Medlock Bridge Road, Duluth, Georgia 30097 on May 16, 2005 at 4:00 p.m., local time, and any adjournment(s) thereof.

This Proxy Statement, the Notice of the 2005 Annual Meeting and the form of proxy were first mailed to stockholders on or about April 6, 2005. The Company's principal executive offices are located at 11360 Lakefield Drive, Duluth, Georgia 30097, telephone (770) 283-1000.

Voting and Record Date

As of March 18, 2005, the record date for the determination of stockholders of the Company entitled to notice of and to vote at the 2005 Annual Meeting, the Company had 66,923,306 shares of common stock, $.02 par value (Common Stock), outstanding and entitled to vote. Each holder of Common Stock at the close of business on March 18, 2005 will be entitled to one vote for each share held of record.

The two director nominees receiving the most affirmative votes of the shares of Common Stock present or represented and entitled to vote at the meeting will be elected as directors. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is required to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent public accounting firm to audit the financial statements of the Company.

One-third of the total outstanding shares of Common Stock will constitute a quorum at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, but will not count toward the determination of which director nominees receive the most affirmative votes or whether a majority of votes is cast in favor of ratifying the selection of Ernst & Young LLP. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee has not received instructions from the beneficial owner and does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item.

Solicitation of Proxies

Any stockholder giving a proxy for the 2005 Annual Meeting may revoke it at any time prior to the voting thereof by giving written notice to the Chairman or the Secretary of the Company by filing a later-dated proxy with either of them prior to the commencement of the 2005 Annual Meeting, or by voting in person at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Proxies and notices of revocation should be mailed or delivered to American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, 59 Maiden Lane, New York, New York 10038 for receipt by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company no later than two business days prior to the 2005 Annual Meeting, or should be deposited with the Chairman or the Secretary of the Company immediately prior to the commencement of the 2005 Annual Meeting.

All shares of Common Stock represented by proxies will be voted at the 2005 Annual Meeting, and any adjournment(s) thereof, as specified therein by the persons giving the proxies. If no direction is given, the proxy will be voted:

to elect the nominees listed under ELECTION OF DIRECTORS, to ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent public accounting firm, and in the discretion of the holders of the proxies, on all other matters properly brought before the 2005 Annual Meeting and any adjournment(s) thereof.

Solicitation of proxies is being made primarily by mail; however, there may also be further solicitation in person and by telephone at nominal cost by directors, officers, employees and agents of the Company, who will receive no additional compensation therefor. The Company will bear all costs of soliciting proxies including charges made by brokers and other persons holding stock in their names or in the names of nominees for reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy material to beneficial owners and obtaining their proxies.

All of the members of the Governance and Nominating Committee are independent directors within the meaning of applicable Nasdaq listing standards. The Governance and Nominating Committee met three times during 2004. The Governance and Nominating Committee's functions include assisting the Board of Directors in ensuring that it is appropriately constituted to meet its fiduciary obligations to the stockholders and the Company by developing and implementing policies and processes regarding corporate governance matters, by assessing Board of Directors membership needs, and by proposing director candidates to the Board of Directors. The Governance and Nominating Committee is also responsible for reviewing and recommending action to the Board of Directors concerning related party transactions or relationships involving a possible conflict of interest between the Company and either a director or a senior executive officer.

In identifying potential director candidates, the Governance and Nominating Committee seeks input from other members of the Board of Directors and executive officers and also considers recommendations by employees, community leaders, business contacts, third-party search firms and any other sources deemed appropriate by the Governance and Nominating Committee. The Governance and Nominating Committee will also consider director candidates recommended by stockholders to stand for election at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, so long as such recommendations are submitted in accordance with the procedures described below.

The Governance and Nominating Committee has not set specific, minimum qualifications that must be met by a director candidate. whether the candidate's characteristics, experiences, perspectives and skills would benefit the Board of Directors given the current composition of the Board of Directors, whether the candidate is independent as defined by Nasdaq listing standards and other applicable laws, rules or regulations regarding independence, whether the candidate qualifies as someone who is financially sophisticated or as an audit committee financial expert as described in Nasdaq listing standards or any other applicable laws, rules or regulations, whether the candidate is free from material conflicts of interest that would interfere with the candidate's ability to perform the duties of a director or violate any applicable Nasdaq listing standard or other applicable law, rule or regulation, whether the candidate's service as an executive officer of another company or on the boards of directors of other public companies would interfere with the candidate's ability to devote sufficient time to discharge his or her duties as a director, and if the candidate is an incumbent director, the director's overall service to the Company during the director's term, including the number of meetings attended, the level of participation and the overall quality of performance of the director.

Qualified candidates are selected for recommendation to the Board by a majority of the Governance and Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors, taking into consideration the recommendations of the Governance and Nominating Committee, is responsible for filling vacancies and selecting nominees for election as directors at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, with the primary emphasis on the guidelines set forth above.

Stockholders who wish to recommend director candidates for consideration by the Governance and Nominating Committee may do so by mailing a written recommendation to Chairman, Governance and Nominating Committee, c/o Secretary, Glenayre Technologies, Inc., 11360 Lakefield Drive, Duluth, Georgia 30097. Table of Contents

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation and Plan Administration Committee currently consists of Messrs. Bates, Gilson and Speaks. None of such persons has ever been an officer or employee of the Company.

Report of the Compensation and Plan Administration Committees on Executive Compensation

The Compensation and Plan Administration Committee is responsible for developing and reviewing all compensation philosophies and practices to ensure that the programs are sufficient to attract and retain a talented senior management team and Board of Directors. The Compensation and Plan Administration Committee reviews and approves all bonus and incentive programs, as well as all compensation and benefits for executive officers and reviews, oversees and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors on the Company's Long-Term Incentive Plan (the 1991 Plan), 1996 Incentive Stock Plan (the 1996 Plan), Employee Stock Purchase Plan, 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan, and any other compensation, bonus, stock equity, or other plans assigned to it by the Board of Directors. The Company's compensation philosophy and executive compensation programs are discussed in this report.

Executive Compensation Philosophy. In general, executive officers who are in a position to make a substantial contribution to the success and growth of the Company should have interests similar to those of the stockholders. Executive officers should be motivated by and benefit from increased stockholder value. Therefore, the Company believes that executive officers should hold a meaningful equity position in the Company through the purchase of Common Stock and/or the award of options to purchase Common Stock.

The Company's Board of Directors believes that the executive compensation program must be competitive with those of other companies of comparable size and complexity in order to attract, retain and motivate talented individuals.

Table of Contents

Executive Compensation Program. The Company's compensation program consists of base salary, annual incentive bonus or retention bonus (paid in cash) and long-term incentives, generally in the form of options to purchase Common Stock.

Base Salary. The Compensation and Plan Administration Committee generally reviews and determines the relative levels of base salary for executive officers on an annual basis. In determining the levels of base salary for an executive officer, the Compensation and Plan Administration Committee considers relative levels of responsibility, individual and Company performance and data available with respect to compensation paid by other companies of comparable size and complexity.

Annual Incentive Compensation. During 2004, executive and operating officers participated in cash bonus programs. The goal of these programs is to motivate and provide incentive to the key employees of the Company to maximize profits. The principal cash bonus program for 2004 (the Incentive Plan) provided for funding based on the Company's earnings meeting a certain level and cash awards out of the Incentive Plan to employees, except employees receiving sales commissions and Mr. Wood, based on the individual's performance. Because the Company's 2004 earnings failed to meet the minimum target earnings established by the Board of Directors, the Company did not pay any cash awards under the Incentive Plan in 2004.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. Mr. Bailey is being paid a salary at the annual rate of $350,000 for serving as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. During 2004 Mr. Bailey received options to purchase 500,000 shares of common stock. Of these options, 300,000 shares will vest upon closing prior to June 30, 2009 of an acquisition of another company approved by the Board of Directors, with 3 shares vesting per $1,000 of acquisition value. In determining Mr. Bailey's compensation the Compensation and Plan Administration Committee considered Mr. Bailey's value and contributions to the Company and compensation levels for chief executive officers of other companies of comparable size and complexity in the Company's industry.

Long-Term Incentives. In May 1996, the Company established the 1996 Plan to provide for various types of equity-related awards to (1) promote the success and enhance the value of the Company by linking the personal interests of participants to those of the Company's stockholders, and by providing participants with an incentive for outstanding performance and (2) provide flexibility to the Company in its ability to motivate, attract and retain the services of participants upon whose judgment, interest and special effort the successful conduct of its operation is largely dependent.

Under the 1996 Plan, the Compensation and Plan Administration Committee has the discretion to determine who will be given awards in any year, the types of awards to be made (such as stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock or other awards) and the number of shares of Common Stock to be covered by a particular award. In determining whether to make an award to a particular executive officer and the size of such award, the Compensation and Plan Administration Committee considers the executive officer's level of responsibility within the Company, prior awards made to the executive officer, individual and Company performance and the amount of the executive officer's other compensation components. During 2004 executive officers received option grants under the 1996 Plan.

Section 162 (m). The Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 added Section 162(m) to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code). Code Section 162(m) provides that compensation paid to a company's chief executive officer or any of the four other highest paid executive officers employed by the company at year-end will not be deductible by the company for federal income tax purposes to the extent such compensation exceeds $1.0 million. Code Section 162(m) exempts from this limitation certain performance-based compensation.

Although base salary and bonuses paid to the named Executive Officers have traditionally been well under $1.0 million, compensation from the exercise of stock options can cause a named Executive Officer to have compensation in excess of $1.0 million. However, all options granted to the named Executive Officers prior to October 1993 are exempt from Code Section 162(m) under a grandfather provision. In May 1994, the Company's stockholders approved an amendment to the terms of the 1991 Plan so that, among other things, awards from that date under the 1991 Plan qualified as performance-based compensation. Under the terms of the 1996 Plan, awards may qualify as performance-based compensation.

ratification at the 2005 Annual Meeting. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the 2005 Annual Meeting with an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so, and the representatives are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions. The Audit Committee has considered whether the provision of services by Ernst & Young LLP other than the audit of the financial statements of the Company for fiscal 2004 and the review of the financial statements for the first three quarters of fiscal 2004 is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence.

Audit and Non-Audit Fees

The following table presents fees for professional audit services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003 and fees billed for other services rendered by Ernst & Young LLP during those periods.

	2004	2003

Audit-Related Fees ⁽²⁾	$ 2,500	$ 16,355
Tax Fees ⁽³⁾	$ 70,323	$ 61,835
All Other Fees ⁽⁴⁾	$	$ 586
Total	$ 1,323,397	$ 964,946

- (1) Audit Fees consist of the aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and reviews of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and services that are normally provided by the independent public accounting firm in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements. These fees included fees billed for review and evaluation of the Company's internal control over financial reporting and attest services relating thereto.
- (2) Audit Related Fees consist of the aggregate fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's consolidated financial statements and are not reported under Audit Fees. These fees principally included fees billed for audits of the Company's 401(k) plan and for a subscription to Ernst & Young LLP's online service.
- (3) Tax services provided by Ernst & Young LLP principally included review of and consultation regarding the Company's federal, state and foreign tax returns and tax planning.
- (4) Other services provided by Ernst & Young LLP consisted of hosting an educational seminar.

The Audit Committee's current practice is to pre-approve all audit services and all non-audit services to be provided to the Company by its independent public accounting firm.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent public accounting firm to audit the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries for the year ending December 31, 2005. Stockholder ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent public accountants is not required by the Company's By-Laws or otherwise. The Company is submitting the selection of Ernst & Young LLP to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders do not ratify the selection of Ernst & Young LLP, the selection of the Company's independent public accounting firm will be reconsidered by the Audit Committee.
