State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Tupperware Brands Corporation (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 26, 2015 within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense due to the circumstances described below. The Company has not yet completed its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting as of December 26, 2015 due to its evaluation of control deficiencies related to the existence of inadequate segregation of duties around access to functions within certain of its information technology systems. Although the Company has not concluded its assessment of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting, the Company believes that these deficiencies could represent a material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting.

It is important to note the Company does not believe that this evaluation will impact its consolidated financial statements previously reported, including the results reported in the Company's earnings release on January 27, 2016. The Company currently anticipates filing its December 26, 2015 Annual Report on Form 10-K and its related XBRL documents within the 15-day extension period provided by Rule 12b-25.
