PROXY STATEMENT -- ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Trinity Learning Corporation for use at our Annual Meeting of shareholders to be held at the offices of Reed Smith LLP at Two Embarcadero Center, Suite 2000, San

Edgar Filing: TRINITY LEARNING CORP - Form DEF 14A

Francisco, CA 94111, on Wednesday, December 14, 2005 at 8:00 a.m., local time. Shareholders will consider and vote upon the proposals described herein and referred to in the Notice of the Meeting accompanying this Proxy Statement. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed proxy are first being sent to shareholders on or about November 25, 2005.

We are sending these proxy materials to all of our shareholders of record on November 23, 2005 (the "Record Date"). Only shareholders who owned shares of our common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment thereof. We use several abbreviations in this Proxy Statement. We may refer to our company as "we," "us" or "our company" or the "Company." The term "Annual Meeting" means our 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT OUR 2005 ANNUAL MEETING AND THIS PROXY STATEMENT

Q: When and where is the 2005 Annual Meeting?

A: The 2005 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Trinity Learning Corporation will be held at the offices of Reed Smith LLP located at Two Embarcadero Center, Suite 2000, San Francisco, CA 94111 at 8:00 a.m., local time, on Wednesday, December 14, 2005.

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: You are receiving these proxy materials from us because you owned shares of our common stock on the Record Date. This Proxy Statement describes issues on which we would like you, as a shareholder of record, to vote. It also gives you information on these issues so that you can make an informed decision. The proxy card is used for voting.

Q: What is the effect of signing and returning my proxy card?

A: When you sign and return the proxy card, you appoint Doug Cole and Galen Davis as your representatives, or proxies, at the Annual Meeting. Doug Cole and Galen Davis will vote your shares at the Annual Meeting as you have instructed them on the proxy card. In this way, your shares will be voted whether or not you attend the Annual Meeting. Even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting, it is a good idea to complete, sign and return your proxy card, just in case your plans change. You can always vote in person at the Annual Meeting, even if you have already sent in your proxy card.

Q: What am I voting on?

A: You are being asked to vote on (i) the election of six (6) nominees to serve as directors on our Board of Directors and, (ii) the ratification and appointment of our independent accountants for the fiscal year ending on June 30, 2006. These proposals are described more fully below in these proxy materials. As of the date of this Proxy Statement, the only business that our Board of Directors intends to present or knows of that others will present at the Annual Meeting is as set forth in this Proxy Statement. If any other matter or matters are properly brought before the Annual Meeting, it is the intention of the persons holding proxies to vote the shares they represent in accordance with their best judgment.

Q: What is the vote required for each of the proposals presented at the Annual Meeting to pass?

A: The votes cast on a particular proposal include votes "FOR," "AGAINST,"

Edgar Filing: TRINITY LEARNING CORP - Form DEF 14A

"WITHHELD" and "ABSTAINED," but do not include broker non-votes (discussed below). The vote required and method of calculation for the proposals to be considered at the Annual Meeting are as follows:

Proposal One Election of Directors. The six nominees receiving the highest number of votes, in person or by proxy, will be elected to serve as directors. You may vote either "FOR" or "WITHHOLD" your vote for the director nominees.

Proposal Two Ratification of Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilsen, LLC as Independent Auditors. The ratification of Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilsen, LLC as our independent auditors will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the Annual Meeting, in person or by proxy. You may vote "FOR," "AGAINST" or "ABSTAIN" from voting on this proposal.

Q: How do I vote?

A: As a shareholder of record, you have the right to vote on certain business matters affecting our company. Each share of our common stock you own entitles you to one vote on the proposals presented in these proxy materials. As described below, you can vote by returning the enclosed proxy card in the envelope provided, as instructed on the proxy card, or by attending the Annual Meeting. Please see detailed instructions on the proxy card.

If you return a signed proxy card (according to the enclosed instructions), you are enabling Doug Cole and Galen Davis, who are named on the proxy card as "proxy holders," to vote your shares at the Annual Meeting in the manner you indicate on the proxy card. If you return a signed proxy card but you do not provide voting instructions on the card, your shares will be voted FOR the current six incumbent Board members to serve as directors on our Board of Directors, and FOR ratification of the appointment of CBN as our independent auditors for the current fiscal year. If an issue comes up for a vote at the meeting that is not described in this Proxy Statement, Doug Cole and Galen Davis will vote your shares, under your proxy, in their discretion.

If you attend the Annual Meeting and wish to vote in person, we will provide you with a ballot at the Annual Meeting. If your shares are registered directly in your name, you are considered the shareholder of record and you have the right to vote in person at the Annual Meeting. If your shares are held in the name of your broker or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in your name, but if you wish to vote in person at the Annual Meeting, you must bring with you to the meeting a legal proxy from your broker or other nominee authorizing you to vote those shares.

For shares of Common Stock that are beneficially owned by a shareholder and held in "street name" through a brokerage (if such shareholder's shares are registered in the name of a brokerage), your broker has the discretion to vote such shares on "routine matters" (such as election of directors), as more specifically described below.

Q: What is a "broker non-vote"?

A: Under the rules that govern brokers who have record ownership of shares that are held in "street name" for their clients, who are the beneficial owners of the shares, brokers have the discretion to vote such shares on "routine matters" (such as election of directors), but not on "non-routine" matters (such as shareholder proposals). Thus, if you do not otherwise instruct your broker, the broker may turn in a proxy card voting your shares "FOR" routine matters but expressly instructing that the broker is NOT voting on non-routine matters. A "broker non-vote" occurs when a broker expressly instructs on a proxy card that it is not voting on a matter, whether routine or non-routine.

Q: How are "broker non-votes" counted?

A: Broker non-votes will be counted for the purpose of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business, but they will not be counted for the purpose of determining the number of votes cast "FOR" or "AGAINST" a particular proposal on which the broker has expressly not voted. Your broker will have discretionary authority to vote your shares on each of the proposals that are routine matters.

Q: How are abstentions counted?

A: If you return a proxy card that indicates an abstention from voting in all matters, the shares represented will be counted for the purpose of determining both the presence of a quorum and the total number of votes cast with respect to a proposal (other than the election of directors), but they will not be voted on any matter at the Annual Meeting.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: It means that you have multiple accounts at the transfer agent and/or with stock brokers. Please vote each account by signing and returning all proxy cards to ensure that all your shares are voted.

Q: What if I change my vote (i.e., what if I wish to revoke my proxy)?

A: You may revoke your proxy (i.e., cancel it) and change your vote at any time prior to the voting at the Annual Meeting. In order to do this, you may either:

- * sign and return another proxy bearing a later date (only your latest vote will be counted);
- * provide written notice of the revocation to our Secretary, prior to the time we take the vote at the Annual Meeting; or
- * attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

Q: Will my shares be voted if I do not sign and return my proxy card?

A: If your shares are held in street name, your brokerage firm may either vote your shares on "routine matters" (such as election of directors) or leave your shares unvoted. Your brokerage firm may not vote on "non-routine matters" such as a proposal submitted by a shareholder. We encourage you to provide instructions to your brokerage firm by completing the proxy that they send to you. This enables your shares to be voted at the Annual Meeting as you direct.

Q: How many shares can be voted at the Annual Meeting?

A: As of the Record Date, 40,018,013 shares of our common stock were outstanding. Each outstanding share of our common stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters covered in these proxy materials. Accordingly, there are a maximum of 40,018,013 votes that may be cast at the Annual Meeting.

Q: What is a quorum?

Edgar Filing: TRINITY LEARNING CORP - Form DEF 14A

A: A quorum is the number of shares that must be present, in person or by proxy, in order to hold the Annual Meeting and to conduct business. The required quorum for the Annual Meeting is a majority of the shares entitled to vote outstanding on the Record Date. Your shares will be counted as being present at the Annual Meeting if you appear in person at the meeting or if you submit a properly executed proxy card. All completed and signed proxy cards, whether representing a vote "FOR," "AGAINST," "WITHHELD" or "ABSTAINED" or a broker non-vote, will be counted toward the quorum requirement.

Q: Who is soliciting my vote?

A: We, on behalf of our Board of Directors, are soliciting your vote. In addition to this solicitation by mail, proxies may be solicited by members of our Board of Directors, our officers and other employees by telephone, Internet or facsimile, in person or otherwise. Such person will not receive any additional compensation for assisting in the solicitation. We will also request brokerage firms, nominees, custodians and fiduciaries to forward the proxy materials to the beneficial owners.

Q: Who will pay the costs of proxy solicitation?

A: We will bear the entire cost of proxy solicitation, including the preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of the proxy materials.

Q: What is the deadline for receipt of shareholder proposals?

A: As a shareholder, you may be entitled to present proposals for action at a forthcoming meeting if you comply with the requirements of the proxy rules established by the Securities and Exchange Commission. In order to be considered for inclusion in the proxy materials for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, shareholder proposals must be received by our Secretary no later than June 30, 2006, and must otherwise comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. If a shareholder wishes to present a proposal at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the proposal must be sent to Trinity Learning Corporation, Shareholder Relations, 3685 Mt. Diablo Blvd, Suite 161, Lafayette CA 94549 and received prior to June 30, 2006. The Board of Directors will review any proposal, which is received by that date and determine whether it is a proper proposal to present to the 2006 Annual Meeting.

In computing the number of shares beneficially owned by a person and the percentage ownership of that person, shares of common stock subject to options held by that person that are currently exercisable or become exercisable within 60 days following October 13, 2005 are deemed outstanding. These shares, however, are not deemed outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table, the persons and entities named in the table have sole voting and sole investment power with respect to the shares set forth opposite such shareholder's name.
 - (3) Includes 847,910 shares owned by Granite Creek Partners, LLC, a Utah limited liability corporation ("GCP"). Messrs. Cole and Mooney are each managers and members of GCP. Each disclaims beneficial ownership of the shares in the Company except to the extent of their pecuniary interest therein.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors has determined that there will be six (6) directors of the Company elected at the Annual Meeting. Doug Cole and William Jobe were elected by the shareholders at our last annual meeting. The remaining directors were appointed by the Board in 2004 and 2005 to fill vacancies existing on the Board.

At the Annual Meeting, six directors are to be elected to serve for a term of one year or until a successor for each such director is elected and qualified, or until the death, resignation, or removal of such director. It is intended that the proxies will be voted for the six nominees named below for election to our Board of Directors unless authority to vote for any such nominee is withheld. Each of the nominees is currently serving as one of our directors. Each person nominated for election has agreed to serve if elected, and the Board of Directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unavailable or will decline to serve. In the event, however, that any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will be voted for any nominee who is designated by the current Board of Directors to fill the vacancy. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them "FOR" the nominees named below. The six candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be elected as directors of our company.

Certain information concerning the nominees to the Board of Directors is set forth below. Biographical information regarding the nominees is set for below under "EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS."

Affirmative Determinations Regarding Director Independence

Edgar Filing: TRINITY LEARNING CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Board of Directors has determined each of the following directors to be an "independent director" as such term is defined in Marketplace Rule 4200(a)(15) of the National Association of Securities Dealers (the "NASD"): William Jobe, Arthur R. Kidson, Richard G. Thau, Ron S. Posner and Dennis J. Cagan.

In this Proxy Statement, these five directors are referred to individually as an "Independent Director" and collectively as the "Independent Directors." The Independent Directors intend to meet in executive sessions at which only Independent Directors will be present in conjunction with each scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors.

Meetings of the Board of Directors

There were eleven meetings of the Board of Directors held during fiscal year ending June 30, 2005. All directors, except for Arthur R. Kidson, attended at least 75 percent of the meetings of the Board and Committees of the Board on which they served.

Meetings of the Shareholders

Members of the Board of Directors are encouraged by the Company to attend the Annual Meeting. A majority of the members of the Board attended the last annual meeting of the shareholders.

Audit Committee

The Company has an Audit Committee established in accordance with Section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which consists of Richard Thau, William Jobe and Arthur Kidson. Richard Thau is the interim Chairperson of the committee. This committee, among other things, reviews the annual audit with the Company's independent accountants. In addition, the audit committee has the sole authority and responsibility to select, evaluate, and, where appropriate, replace the independent auditors or nominate the independent auditors for shareholder approval. The Company's Board of Directors has determined that the Company has at least one audit committee financial expert on its Audit Committee. Mr. Richard Thau, the audit committee financial expert, is independent as that term is used in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A under the Securities Act of 1934.

The Audit Committee held two meetings during fiscal 2005. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix A.

The Company's Director Nominations Process

The Board has not established a Nominating Committee. Instead the Board selects the Director nominees to stand for election at the Company's annual meetings of shareholders and to fill vacancies occurring on the Board. In recommending nominees to serve as Directors, the Board will examine each Director nominee, including persons nominated by shareholders, on a case-by-case basis regardless of who recommended the nominee and take into account all factors it considers appropriate. However, the Board believes the following minimum qualifications must be met by a Director nominee to be recommended to the Board:

- * Each Director must display high personal and professional ethics, integrity and values;
- * Each Director must have the ability to exercise sound business judgment;
- * Each Director must be highly accomplished in his or her respective field;

Edgar Filing: TRINITY LEARNING CORP - Form DEF 14A

- * Each Director must have relevant expertise and experience, and be able to offer advice and guidance based on that expertise and experience;
- * Each Director must be able to represent all shareholders of the Company and be committed to enhancing long-term shareholder value; and
- * Each Director must have sufficient time available to devote to activities of the Board and to enhance his or her knowledge of the Company's business.

Recommendations for consideration, including recommendations from shareholders of the Company, should be sent to the Board of Directors, care of the Secretary of the Company, at the Company's headquarters in writing together with appropriate biographical information concerning each proposed nominee. See also the section dealing with "Shareholder Proposals," below.

Communications with Directors

We have not in the past adopted a formal process for shareholder communications with the Board of Directors. Nevertheless, every effort has been made to ensure that the views of shareholders are heard by the Board or individual directors, as applicable, and that appropriate responses are provided to shareholders in a timely manner. We believe our responsiveness to shareholder communications to the Board has been excellent. Nevertheless, during the upcoming year the Board will give full consideration to the adoption of a formal process for shareholder communications with the Board and, if adopted, publish it promptly and post it to our website.

Compensation of Directors

Non-employee members of our board of directors have been granted options from time to time to purchase shares of our common stock, but are not otherwise compensated in their capacity as directors. We do not pay any fees for attendance at committee meetings.

Recent Changes in Accountants

As was previously reported, we appointed Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC, on December 13, 2004, to serve as our independent auditor for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005. The decision to change auditors was approved by our Audit Committee. Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC and its predecessor entity, Bierwolf, Nilson & Associates, had audited our financial statements for the transition period ended June 30, 2003 and the year ended September 30, 2002. We had not consulted with Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC during the two fiscal years ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2004 or during the subsequent interim reporting periods through and including the termination date of December 13, 2004, on either the application of accounting principles or type of opinion Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC might issue on our financial statements.

On December 6, 2004, we notified BDO Spencer Steward ("BDO") of our decision to dismiss BDO as our independent auditors. BDO audited the financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2004 for IRCA (Proprietary) Limited ("IRCA"), a South African company, in which we, through our wholly owned subsidiary, Danlas Limited, acquired 51% of the issued and outstanding shares in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004. We understand that BDO will continue to serve as IRCA's independent auditor.

Edgar Filing: TRINITY LEARNING CORP - Form DEF 14A

BDO audited our financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004. BDO's auditor's report for the year ended June 30, 2004 contained a separate paragraph stating, "The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 14 to the financial statements, the Company has suffered losses from operations and has negative working capital. These conditions raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in Note 14. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty." Except as so noted, BDO's report for this period did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

In connection with the audit of the period ended June 30, 2004, there were no disagreements or reportable events between us and BDO on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of BDO, would have caused them to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements or reportable events in connection with their reports.

Effective July 8, 2004, we engaged BDO as our principal independent auditors with respect to our fiscal year ending June 30, 2004. The decision to change auditors was approved by our board of directors. Prior to their appointment, BDO had previously audited IRCA for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003. During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, the transition period ended June 30, 2003 and through the date of their engagement, we did not consult BDO with respect to (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our financial statements, and neither a written report was provided to us nor was oral advice provided that BDO concluded was an important factor considered by us in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or reporting issue, or (ii) any matter that was the subject of a disagreement or event identified in response to paragraph (a) (1) (iv) of Item 304 of Regulation S-B.

On July 8, 2004, we also notified Chisholm, Bierwolf & Nilson, LLC, ("CBN") of our decision to dismiss CBN as our independent auditors. CBN's predecessor firm, Bierwolf, Nilson & Associates ("BNA"), audited our financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 and the transition period ended June 30, 2003. BNA's auditor's report for the transition period ended June 30, 2003 contained a separate paragraph stating, "The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 13 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company's significant operating losses raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. These consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty." BNA's auditor's report for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 contained a separate paragraph stating, "The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 10 to the financial statements, the Company's significant operating losses raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty." Except as so noted, BNA's reports for each of these two periods did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

In connection with audits of the transition period ended June 30, 2003 and the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, and any subsequent interim period preceding the date hereof, there were no disagreements or reportable events between us and CBN or its predecessor entity BNA on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of CBN or BNA, would have caused them to make a reference to the subject matter of the disagreements or reportable events in connection with their reports.

On February 19, 2004, our independent auditors, BNA, informed us that on February 10, 2004, that it had merged its operations into CBN and was therefore effectively resigning as our auditors. BNA had audited our financial statements for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 and the transition period ended June 30, 2003 and its reports for each of these two periods did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to BNA on any matter regarding accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure during the past two fiscal years or any subsequent interim period preceding the date of the merger that resulted in the effective resignation of BNA as our auditors. Our board of directors confirmed that we would continue our engagement with CBN and approved the change in auditors resulting from the merger of BNA into CBN.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Our corporate reorganization during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002 was effected primarily by two of our officers and directors, Messrs. Douglas Cole and Edward Mooney. During that fiscal year and the transition period subsequent thereto, we entered into several transactions with these individuals and with entities affiliated with them, as well as entities affiliated with Theodore Swindells, a significant stockholder of our company.

As of July 15, 2002, we entered in a two-year Advisory Agreement with Granite Creek Partners, LLC ("GCP"), formerly King's Peak Advisors, LLC, automatically renewable for an additional 12-month period. Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, GCP agreed to provide us with general corporate, financial, business development and investment advisory services on a non-exclusive basis. These services include assisting with the identification of placement agents, underwriters, lenders and other sources of financing, as well as additional qualified independent directors and members of management. GCP is a private company whose principals are Messrs. Cole, Mooney and Mr. Swindells. At our August 19, 2003 board of directors' meeting, our board of directors voted to suspend the Advisory Agreement from August 15, 2003 until January 2004, and this agreement remains suspended. Through December 31, 2003, GCP had earned a total of $315,000 under the Advisory Agreement, $110,000 of which was converted into 4,400,000 shares of our common stock in March 2003. The remaining balance of $205,000 was paid in full to GCP as of June 30, 2004.

As of July 31, 2002, we entered into an Advisory Agreement with EAS, a private entity of which Mr. Swindells is a principal, pursuant to which EAS agreed to provide financial advisory and investment banking services to us in connection with various equity and/or debt transactions. In exchange for such services, we agreed to pay EAS a retainer fee of $5,000 per month and a commission ranging from 5% to 7% based on the type of transaction consummated, such fees being payable, at EAS' option, in cash or our common stock. On October 2, 2003, we renewed the agreement with EAS on terms similar to those contained in the first agreement. On January 1, 2004, we amended the October 2003 agreement in connection with our January 2004 senior convertible bridge note offering, which closed on May 28, 2004, for which we paid EAS a fee of 10%. Through June 30, 2004, EAS had earned a total of $1,065,104 pursuant to our arrangement with them, of which $345,450 was earned in connection with private equity and/or debt transactions and $719,654 was earned for advisory services in connection with certain acquisitions. In January 2004, 250,000 shares of our common stock with a fair market value of $375,000 was paid to EAS in the Company's common stock. As of June 30, 2004, the balance owed to EAS was $66,653. On May 27, 2004, European American Perinvest Group, a subsidiary of EAS, invested $100,000 in our 2004 senior convertible bridge note offering. On May 28, 2004, this investment was converted to 166,699 restricted shares of our common stock as part of the total conversion of this financing to 4,520,069 shares of our common stock.

During the period August 2001 to June 30, 2002, Mr. Swindells advanced a total of $925,000 to us by way of short-term non-interest bearing working capital loans. We repaid $500,000 of the total amount owing in September 2003 and issued an aggregate of 850,000 shares of our common stock to Mr. Swindells in November 2003 in payment of the remaining balance of $425,000. During the period June 2004 to October 2004, Mr. Swindells advanced us $155,000. On August 10, 2004 we repaid $50,000 of this amount and on November 2, 2004 we paid the remaining balance of $105,000. On October 14, 2004, Mr. Swindells exercised warrants to purchase 300,000 shares of our common stock at $0.05 per share.

In October 2002, we issued convertible promissory notes in the aggregate principal amount of $500,000 (the "Bridge Financing Notes") to certain individuals and entities, and in connection with the issuance of the Bridge Financing Notes, issued warrants to the holders of the notes to purchase additional shares of common stock. Of the total principal amount of the Bridge Financing Notes, $55,000 was advanced by GCP and $120,000 by Mr. Swindells. On May 19, 2003, the aggregate principal amount of the Bridge Financing Notes and accrued interest thereon of $34,745 was converted into 1,336,867 shares of common stock at a price of $0.40 per share. The warrants issued in connection with the Bridge Financing Notes are exercisable for a period of one year at a price of $0.05 per share, and contain a net issuance provision whereby the holders may elect a cashless exercise of such warrants based on the fair market value of the common stock at the time of conversion. On March 26, 2004, GCP exercised its warrants in a cashless exercise for which it received a total of 126,042 shares of common stock.

In connection with our acquisition of our interest in IRCA, we entered into an agreement with Titan Aviation Ltd. ("Titan"), a private company held in a trust of which Mr. Martin Steynberg and other business partners are the beneficiaries. Pursuant to this agreement, we paid Titan on May 14, 2004 the sterling equivalent of the sum of 4,000,000 South African Rand (or $607,165) in consideration for various services rendered to IRCA. Mr. Steynberg, who is a stockholder in IRCA Investments (Proprietary) Limited, which owns 25.1% of IRCA, became a director of our company on January 1, 2004 pursuant to the terms of the IRCA acquisition.

William Jobe, one of our directors, was paid a total of $59,500 during the period December 2003 to May 2004 as compensation for merger and acquisition services associated with our acquisition of TouchVision. In August 2004, we paid Mr. Jobe an additional $4,815 in connection with the TouchVision transaction.

Ted Swindells, a holder of approximately 9.8% of the Company's Common Stock, lent the Company $300,000 in April, 2005 pursuant to a non interest bearing unsecured demand promissory note. The loan proceeds were used for working capital. $250,000 of the loan was repaid in October, 2005.
