Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act") requires our officers, directors and persons who own more than 10% of any class of our securities registered under Section 12(g) of the Act to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on a review of copies of such reports furnished to us and written representations that no other reports were required during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, we believe that all persons subject to the reporting requirements pursuant to Section 16(a) filed the required reports on a timely basis with the SEC, except that Renee Warden, Elwood G. Norris, James Irish and James Croft each filed late one Form 4 report each disclosing one transaction.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

The board of directors has determined that Daniel Hunter is an "audit committee financial expert" and "independent" as defined under applicable SEC and NASDAQ rules. The board's affirmative determination was based, among other things, upon his over 25 years as a certified public accountant.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

We have adopted a "Code of Business Conduct and Ethics", a code of ethics that applies to all employees, including our executive officers. A copy of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is posted on our Internet site at www.atcsd.com. In the event we make any amendments to, or grant any waivers of, a provision of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to the principal executive officer, principal financial officer, or principal accounting officer that requires disclosure under applicable SEC rules, we intend to disclose such amendment or waiver and the reasons therefor on a Form 8-K or on our next periodic report.

Item 11. Executive Compensation

However, directors have received in the past, and may receive in the future, stock option grants.

The royalty obligation continues until at least March 1, 2007, and for any longer period during which we sell products or license technologies subject to any patent assigned to us by Mr. Norris under this agreement. We have no present plans to market any of the technologies subject to such agreement other than HyperSonic Sound. Mr. Norris waived royalties payable under this agreement in the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003. It is expected that royalties will be paid to Mr. Norris during fiscal 2004. The amount of such royalties will depend on actual sales.

Mark Norris, the son of Elwood G. Norris, is a full-time non-executive employee of our company. In his role as a Mechanical Engineer, Mark Norris was paid $80,000 in salary for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003. Mark Norris was also granted 19,000 common shares valued at $78,280 as a bonus in recognition of his key role in the invention and development of our vacuum-less HSS emitter. During fiscal 2003 Mark Norris was also awarded one stock option grant for 15,000 common shares vesting quarterly over two years and exercisable for five years at $3.30 per share. He exercised previously granted options for 17,500 common shares during fiscal 2003 realizing a value of $42,052. No other family member of any executive officer, director or 5% stockholder received compensation of more than $60,000 during the year ended September 30, 2003.

Certain beneficial owners of more than 5% of our then outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock purchased our 8% Senior Secured Promissory Notes on September 30, 2002. These holders were: NGHK Holdings, LLC ($1,500,000 principal amount), Sunrise Management Profit Sharing Plan ($50,000 principal amount), Sunrise Capital, Inc. ($100,000 principal amount), and Canusa Trading Ltd. ($350,000 principal amount). These notes were originally due December 31, 2003. The notes were secured by our accounts receivable, equipment, goods, instruments and inventory. The notes plus two months' additional accrued interest were subject to mandatory redemption upon the closing of a sale of equity securities in an amount exceeding $3,000,000. In February 2003, these notes were amended with the consent of the holders of a majority of the outstanding principal amount to extend the maturity date to December 31, 2004. The notes were further amended to permit the then-applicable amount payable by us on redemption to be converted into equity securities. Each of Canusa Trading Ltd., Sunrise Management Profit Sharing Plan and Sunrise Capital, Inc. converted their entire principal amounts to Series E Preferred Stock, and NGHK Holdings, LLC converted $500,000 of its principal amount to Series E Preferred Stock. Each converting holder was paid in cash the amount of accrued interest through April 2003. In June 2003 a total of $681,845 of the balance of the notes, all held by NGHK Holdings, LLC, was applied to exercise warrants and in July 2003 the balance of $318,155 was redeemed by us.

Certain beneficial owners of more than 5% of our then outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock purchased the shares of our Series E Preferred Stock and associated warrants. Each such purchase was on the same terms as those offered to other investors in the Series E round. The $10.00 purchase price of each share of Series E Preferred Stock, increased by $0.60 per share per year, may be converted at the election of a holder one or more times into common stock at a conversion price of $3.25. If after September 30, 2003, 90% of the volume weighted average price of the common stock for the five trading days prior to conversion (the discount market price) is less than $3.25, the conversion price will be reduced to the discount market price; provided, however, that the conversion price cannot be below $2.00 per share. The Series E Preferred Stock may be called by us for conversion if the market price of our common shares exceeds $9.50 per share for ten consecutive trading days and certain conditions are met. The Series E Preferred Stock will be subject to mandatory conversion on December 31, 2006. Each purchaser of Series E Preferred Stock was also granted a warrant to purchase one and one half shares of common stock for each share of Series E Preferred Stock purchased, exercisable until December 31, 2007 at a price of $3.25 per share. Granite Capital LP and Granite Capital II LP purchased 22,500 and 2,500 shares of Series E Preferred Stock, and obtained warrants to purchase 33,750 and 3,750 shares of common stock, respectively; and Stifel Nicolaus Custodian for Jonathan Berg IRA purchased 10,000 shares of Series E Preferred Stock and obtained warrants to purchase 15,000 shares of common stock. NGHK Holdings LLC, Canusa Trading, Ltd, Sunrise Management Profit Sharing Plan and Sunrise Capital, Inc. also purchased Series E Preferred Stock and associated warrants via conversion of principal of 8% Senior Secured Notes, as discussed above.
