Item 5.02: Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On April 27, 2010, the Board of Directors approved the nomination of Mr. John Evey to serve on the Board of the Company. Since 2007, Mr. Evey served as Vice President for Development at the J. Craig Venter Institute (“JCVI”), where he is responsible for generating collaborative partnerships and financial resources from all sources except federal research agencies for JCVI which is advancing genomic research to benefit human health and the environment. From 2002 to 2007, Mr. Evey served as Assistant Director of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography and Executive Director of Development for Marine Sciences at University of California, San Diego (“UCSD”). Before coming to Scripps and UCSD, Mr. Evey was Vice President for Institutional Advancement at the University of the Pacific and served, prior to that, for more than a decade as Director of Development at Oregon State University. At Pacific, Mr. Evey was responsible for all external relations programs for that three-campus university (Stockton, Sacramento, and San Francisco). As Director of Development for Oregon State, he was responsible for the university’s entire charitable gift development program. His earlier experience includes roles as founding director of the Office for Resource Development at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival and as the initial association executive for the statewide arts lobby, Oregon Advocates for the Arts. As a volunteer, he founded the Southern Oregon Land Conservancy. As an officer of the Travel Industry Council of Oregon, Mr. Evey and two colleagues successfully advocated the creation and funding of a Tourism Division in the Oregon Department of Economic Development. Mr. Evey is a member of the Host Committee for the Kyoto Prize Symposium in San Diego, which helps to host the Kyoto Prize laureates each spring.
