Fulton, Jr. as Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President on December 31, 2005. On December 20, 2005, the Executive Compensation Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of the Company presented to the Board of Directors its recommendation of the annual base salaries of the Company's executive officers for 2006. The compensation program was based on a review of performance and competitive market data and recommendations of an outside consulting firm retained to evaluate the Company's compensation program for executive officers, and the recommendation of R. Scott Smith, Jr., the Company's Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President as of January 1, 2006, with regard to the other executive officers. Mr. Smith did not participate in the discussions or decisions relating to his compensation. The Board of Directors approved the recommendation of the Committee and the compensation adjustments will be effective on January 1, 2006.

The following table sets forth the annual base salary levels of the Company's senior management team for the years 2005 and 2006:

The Company has entered into severance agreements with each of the members of the Company's senior management team. Under the terms of those agreements, certain limited severance benefits are payable in the event that an executive is discharged or resigns following, and for reasons relating to, a change in control of the Company.

Specifically, in the event of such a discharge or resignation, the executive would be entitled to receive from the Company an annual benefit consisting of his then effective base salary, certain fringe benefits in lieu of coverage under employee benefit plans and a supplemental retirement benefit in lieu of his continuing participation in the Fulton Financial Corporation employee retirement plans. Such benefits would be payable, in the cases of Messrs. Smith, Ashby and Nugent, for a period of three years, in the case of Messrs. Shreiner and Wenger, 18 months and, in the case of Mr. Hill, one year, beginning on the date of the executive's discharge or resignation and continuing until (i) he elects to terminate benefits in order to accept employment with another financial services institution; (ii) the end of the year in which he attains the age of 65; or (iii) he dies, whichever first occurs.
