Compensation Committee Report On Executive Compensation

Camco's business consists primarily of the business of Advantage Bank and its subsidiaries and or affiliates. The financial results of Camco are primarily a function of Advantage Bank's achievement of its goals as set forth in its business plan. Executives are compensated for their contribution to the achievement of these goals, which benefit the shareholders, customers, employees, and the communities in which we operate.

During 2002, Larry A. Caldwell, the Chairman of the Board, received his compensation entirely from Camco. Richard C. Baylor, the President, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer, and Mark A. Severson, the

Edgar Filing: CAMCO FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, each received 50% of his compensation from Advantage Bank and 50% from Camco. Camco's Compensation Committee (the "Committee") recommends to Camco's Board of Directors the executive compensation for Camco executives for responsibilities at the holding company level. Membership of the Committee is composed exclusively of outside directors who meet the criteria of SEC Rule 16(b). The Committee is dedicated to the philosophy of linking executive compensation to the achievement of Advantage Bank's goals and the resulting performance of Camco.

Executive Compensation Philosophy and Process

The compensation levels of the executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, are reviewed each year by the Committee. The Committee also assesses each executive officer's contribution to Camco, the skills and experience of each executive officer and the on-going potential of each executive officer. Total corporate return performance is also a consideration in determining executive officer compensation. The Committee's determinations are presented to the full board of directors, but directors who are also executive officers do not participate in discussions regarding their own compensation.

The overall objective of the executive compensation program is to provide competitive levels of compensation that will attract and retain qualified executives and will reward individual performance, initiative and achievement, while enhancing overall corporate performance and shareholder value. The program is designed to align senior management compensation with the goals of our business plan by creating strong incentives to manage business successfully from both a financial and operating perspective. The executive compensation program is structured to accomplish the following specific objectives:

- 1) Align the interests of management with the interests of the shareholders;
- 2) Clearly motivate management to perform and succeed according to the goals outlined in our business plan;
- 3) Retain key personnel critical to our long-term success;
- 4) Emphasize formula-based components, such as incentive plans, in order to better focus management efforts in its execution of our business plan;
- 5) Maintain pay for performance as an integral component of the program by utilizing incentive plans that emphasize corporate success;
- 6) Maintain a corporate environment which encourages stability and a long-term focus for both Camco and its management; and
- 7) Ensure that management: (a) fulfills its overall responsibility to its constituents, including shareholders, customers, employees, the community and government regulatory agencies; (b) conforms its business conduct to the highest ethical standards; (c) remains free from any influences that could impair or appear to impair the objectivity and impartiality of its judgement or treatment of Camco's constituents; and (d) continues to avoid any conflict between its responsibilities to Camco and each individual's personal interests.

Edgar Filing: CAMCO FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Committee utilizes independent compensation surveys of officers in the thrift industry, taking into account comparable asset bases and geographic locations. Performance comparisons include rankings based on return on average equity, return on average assets, efficiency ratio, asset quality and total return on a company's stock price, among other factors. Compensation data utilized for comparisons is generally annual cash compensation including base salary and most forms of cash bonus and annual incentive awards.

Components of the Program

The program's compensation elements include cash compensation, including base salary and an incentive-based bonus plan, and stock-based compensation. The incentive plans have been designed to reflect corporate performance, individual performance, and alignment with the interests of Camco's shareholders. Superior corporate or individual performance should result in compensation which, when combined with incentives, would place overall compensation at or above that of the peer group median.

Base salary forms the foundation of the compensation program as it represents income not at risk. The Committee believes that base salary should function as an anchor: large enough that the executive is comfortable remaining in Camco's employ, but not so large as to conflict with the executive's motivation to work diligently to increase shareholder value. An individual's base salary is directly related to his or her position, job responsibilities, accountability, performance and contribution to Camco.

Camco maintains both a short-term cash bonus plan and a long-term stock-based incentive plan. Bonus and incentive plan awards for the Named Executive Officers are based on the achievement of corporate performance objectives which are established by Camco's Compensation Committee at the beginning of each year. The performance objectives include four primary elements, consisting of return on average tangible equity, earnings per share growth, efficiency ratio improvement and net interest margin growth, each of which accounts for one-sixth of the total performance measurement. Secondary objectives, each of which accounts for one-twelfth of the performance measurement, include deposit growth, commercial real estate loan volume, non-interest income growth and the Bank's CAMEL rating.

The cash bonus amounts range from 0% to 25% of the officer's base salary, subject to the percentage of performance measurements achieved. Additional discretionary bonus amounts may also be awarded under the cash bonus plan in recognition of other achievements, such as merger and acquisition activities, which are not part of the established performance objectives.

The long-term incentive plan provides for the award of stock options of varying levels for each of the Named Executive Officers, ranging in amount from 0% to a maximum of between 100% and 200% of the officer's base salary, subject to the percentage of performance measurements achieved. Options are issued at market prices and typically vest at a rate of 20% each year beginning on the grant date and have a term of ten years. This element of the executive compensation program is designed to align the interests of the executive with corporate shareholder objectives since the price performance of Camco's common stock directly affects the value of these long-term awards.

Determination of CEO's Compensation

Edgar Filing: CAMCO FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

The Committee determined the compensation for Mr. Baylor for 2002 pursuant to the policies described above for executive officers. Additional factors considered included merger and acquisition activities, continued updating and implementation of Camco's strategic plan and subsidiary oversight and progress. The Committee increased Mr. Baylor's base compensation by $6,750, or 3.0%, bringing his base salary to $231,750 for 2003. Camco achieved 60.3% of the performance targets established by the Committee for 2002. Based on that level of achievement, Mr. Baylor was awarded a cash bonus of $33,894 and he was awarded options for a number of Camco shares having a market value on the date of grant, as well as an exercise price, of $271,156.

Compensation Committee Interlocks

During 2002, no member of the Compensation Committee was a current or former executive officer or employee of Camco or one of its subsidiaries or had a reportable business relationship with Camco or one of its subsidiaries.

Performance Graph

The following graph compares the cumulative total return on Camco's common stock with the cumulative total return of an index of companies whose shares are traded on Nasdaq and two peer group indices for the same period. In previous fiscal years, Camco has used the Peer Group 1 Index as an indicator of how Camco compares to other peers in its line of business. Camco's assets have grown since the time Camco began using the Peer Group 1 Index. As a result, Camco believes that the Peer Group 2 Index is now a better index of peers to use as a comparison because these companies are more comparable to Camco's current asset size.

Employment Agreements

Camco has an employment agreement with Richard Baylor for a term ending January 31, 2006. The agreement provides for a base salary of not less than $231,750 and a performance review by the Board of Directors not less often than annually, at which time the Board of Directors may extend the term of the agreement. The agreement also provides for the inclusion of Mr. Baylor in any formally established employee benefit, bonus, pension and profit-sharing plans for which senior management personnel are eligible and provides for vacation and sick leave.

Mr. Baylor's employment is terminable by Camco at any time. In the event of termination by Camco other than for just cause or in connection with a "change of control," as defined in the agreement, Mr. Baylor will be entitled to (i) a continuation of salary payments for the remainder of the term of his agreement and (ii) a continuation of health, life and disability insurance benefits substantially equal to those being provided at the date of termination of employment until the earliest to occur of the end of the term of the agreement or the date Mr. Baylor becomes employed full-time by another employer.

The agreement also contains provisions with respect to the occurrence within one year after a "change of control" of (1) the termination of Mr. Baylor's employment for any reason other than just cause, (2) a change in the capacity or circumstances in which Mr. Baylor is employed or (3) a material reduction in Mr. Baylor's responsibilities, authority, compensation or other benefits provided under the agreement without the written consent of Mr. Baylor. In the event of any such occurrence, Mr. Baylor will be entitled to payment of an amount equal to three times his average annual compensation for the three taxable years immediately preceding the termination of employment. In addition, Mr. Baylor is entitled to continued coverage under all health, life and disability benefit plans until the earlier of the end of the term of the agreement or the date on which Mr. Baylor is included in another employer's benefit plans as a full-time employee. The maximum which Mr. Baylor may receive, however, is limited to an amount which will not result in the imposition of a penalty tax pursuant to Section 280G(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Camco also has an employment agreement with Larry Caldwell for a one-year term commencing November 9, 2002. The agreement provides for a base salary of $125,000 and provides for the inclusion of Mr. Caldwell in any tax-qualified employee benefit, pension and profit-sharing plans for which senior management personnel are eligible. The agreement is terminable by Camco at any time. In the event of termination by Camco other than for just cause or in connection with a "change of control," as defined in the agreement, Mr. Caldwell will be entitled to a continuation of salary payments for the remainder of the term of his agreement. In the event of the voluntary or involuntary termination of Mr. Caldwell's employment for any reason other than just cause within one year after a "change of control", Mr. Caldwell would receive a change of control payment of $353,999.

Change of Control Agreements

Camco has change of control agreements with Edward Rugg, Mark Severson and David Caldwell. The agreements are for terms of one year and provide for annual performance reviews by the Board of Directors, at which time the Board of Directors may extend the agreements for an additional one-year period.

The agreements provide that if the officer is terminated by Camco or its successors for any reason other than just cause, within six months prior to a change of control, as defined in the agreement, or within one year after a change of control, Camco will pay (1) the officer an amount equal to two times the amount of his annual salary and (2) the premiums required to maintain coverage under the health insurance plan in which the officer is a participant immediately prior to the change of control until the earlier of (i) the first anniversary of his termination or (ii) the date the officer is included in another employer's benefit plans. The officer will also be entitled to the above payments if he voluntarily terminates his employment within twelve months following a change of control if (1) the capacity or circumstances in which the officer is employed are changed; (2) the officer no longer holds his specified office; (3) the officer is required to move his personal residence, or perform his principal executive functions, more than thirty-five miles from his primary office as of the date of the agreement; or (4) Camco otherwise breaches the agreement. The maximum amount that the officer may receive under the agreement is limited to an amount which will not result in the imposition of a penalty tax pursuant to Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code.

Salary Continuation Agreements

Advantage Bank has entered into Salary Continuation Agreements with each of Richard Baylor, Edward Rugg, Mark Severson and David Caldwell (the "Salary Continuation Agreements"). The Salary Continuation Agreements provide for continued monthly compensation to each employee, or his beneficiary, for a period of 15 years following the employee's termination of employment for any reason other than Early Termination or Termination for Cause (as defined in the Salary Continuation Agreements). Early Termination is defined in the Salary Continuation Agreements to mean termination of employment before age 65 for reasons other than death, Disability (as defined in the Salary Continuation Agreements), Termination for Cause or following a Change of Control (as defined in the Salary Continuation Agreements).

Upon termination of employment after the employee reaches age 65, each employee will receive the following maximum amounts, divided into 12 monthly payments, annually for 15 years: Mr. Baylor - $410,100; Mr. Rugg - $98,300; Mr. Severson - $197,400; and Mr. David Caldwell - $140,900. In the event of Early Termination, termination for Disability or upon a Change of Control, the employee will receive monthly payments for a period of 15 years, in an amount equal to the accrual balance, which amount increases annually at a specified rate until it reaches the maximums set forth above. If an employee is terminated upon a Change of Control, the employee may elect to have the present value of the monthly payments made in a single lump sum payment. An employee is not entitled to any payments upon Termination for Cause.

Salary Continuation Plan

In connection with the termination of its non-contributory defined benefit pension plan in 1996, Camco implemented a non-qualified retirement plan (the "Salary Continuation Plan") for the benefit of certain executive officers. Mr. Rugg is the only Named Executive Officer who is a participant in this plan. The Salary Continuation Plan provides for continued monthly compensation to Mr. Rugg, or his beneficiary, for 179 months following his retirement at age 65 from one of Camco's subsidiaries. If Mr. Rugg retires after age 55 or after having completed 15 years of full-time service (the "Early Retirement Date"), and before age 65, the Salary Continuation Plan provides for a reduced benefit. Upon a change in control of the applicable Camco subsidiary and the subsequent termination of Mr. Rugg's employment, he is entitled to a lump sum payment of a reduced amount. AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Camco is comprised of four directors, all of whom are considered "independent" under Rule 4200(a)(14) of the Nasdaq's listing standards. The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing Camco's accounting functions and controls, as well as recommending to the Board of Directors an accounting firm to audit Camco's financial statements. The Audit Committee has adopted a charter to set forth its responsibilities.

The Audit Committee received and reviewed the report of Grant Thornton, LLP ("Grant Thornton") regarding the results of their audit, as well as the written disclosures and the letter from Grant Thornton required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1. The Audit Committee determined that the provision by Grant Thornton of the services discussed in the Section All Other Fees included below is compatible with maintaining Grant Thornton's independence. The Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements with the management of Camco. A representative of Grant Thornton also discussed with the Audit Committee the independence of Grant Thornton from Camco, as well as the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards 61. Discussions between the Audit Committee and the representative of Grant Thornton included the following:

- o Grant Thornton's responsibilities in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards
- o The initial selection of, and whether there were any changes in, significant accounting policies or their application
- o Management's judgments and accounting estimates
- o Whether there were any significant audit adjustments
- o Whether there were any disagreements with management
- o Whether there was any consultation with other accountants
- o Whether there were any major issues discussed with management prior to Grant Thornton's retention
- o Whether Grant Thornton encountered any difficulties in performing the audit
- o Grant Thornton's judgments about the quality of Camco's accounting principles
- o Grant Thornton's responsibilities for information prepared by management that is included in documents containing audited financial statements

Based on its review of the financial statements and its discussions with management and the representative of Grant Thornton, the Audit Committee did not become aware of any material misstatements or omissions in the financial statements. Accordingly, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, to be filed with the SEC.
