Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 27, 2006, Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company"), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Armor Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Armor"), and Santana Acquisition Corp., a Texas corporation and direct wholly owned subsidiary of Armor ("Merger Sub").

The Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation (the "Merger"). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time and as a result of the Merger, each share of common stock, without par value, of the Company, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, other than shares as to which appraisal rights are properly asserted under Texas law and shares owned by the Company, Armor, Merger Sub or their respective subsidiaries, will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount of $35.00 (the "Per Share Consideration"). Additionally, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding option to purchase the Company's common stock will be converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the excess, if any, of the Per Share Consideration over the exercise price per share for each share subject to the option, less any applicable withholding taxes and without interest (each, an "Eligible Option"). No payment with respect to an Eligible Option will be made until the disbursing agent has received an executed option cancellation agreement signed by the holder of such Eligible Option.

The Company, Armor and Merger Sub have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) that the Company will conduct its business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and consummation of the Merger, (ii) not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during such period, and (iii) that, subject to certain exceptions, the Company's Board of Directors will recommend adoption by its shareholders of the Merger Agreement. In addition, the Company made certain additional customary covenants, including, among others, covenants not to: (i) solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or, (ii) subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with any proposals for alternative business combination transactions.

The representations and warranties of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of the other party to the Merger Agreement and such representations and warranties should not be relied on by any other person. In addition, such representations and warranties (i) have been qualified by disclosure schedules that the Company has provided to Armor in connection with signing the Merger Agreement, (ii) will not survive consummation of the Merger and cannot be the basis for any claims under the Merger Agreement by the other party after termination of the Merger Agreement, except (A) in the case of a willful breach or misrepresentation thereof and (B) that a termination fee (as described below) may be payable by the Company to Armor if other conditions, including the consummation of an alternate business combination transaction within a specified time period, are met, (iii) are subject to the materiality standards contained in Section 5.02 of the Merger Agreement which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and (iv) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedules referred to above contain information (including information that has been included in the Company's prior public disclosures, as well as potential additional non-public information) that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the attached Merger Agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, as they are modified in important part by the disclosure schedules referred to above. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of execution of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (i) approval of the holders of the Company's common stock, (ii) absence of any law or order prohibiting the completion of the Merger, (iii) expiration or termination of the Hart-Scott-Rodino waiting period, (iv) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party and (v) material compliance of the other party with its covenants. In addition, Armor's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to the following additional customary conditions: (i) receipt of certain other regulatory approvals, (ii) absence of a material adverse change since the date of the Merger Agreement and (iii) absence of any action or proceeding by any U.S. Federal governmental authority seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Armor, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Armor a termination fee of $37,340,000 or the reasonable expenses incurred by Armor in negotiating and performing the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

Material Relationships with Armor

A subsidiary of the Company and a subsidiary of Armor are parties to (i) Teaming Agreements relating to the joint development of the armored cab for the U.S. Army's Family of Medium Tactical Vehicles, which includes the High Mobility Artillery Rocket System, and (ii) purchase orders for the supply by a subsidiary of Armor to a subsidiary of the Company of armoring materials for incorporation into the Company's Low Signature Armored Cabs.
