AETERNA ZENTARIS ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF NEW PRESIDENT AND CEO

QUEBEC CITY, QUEBEC (CANADA), MARCH 26, 2007--AETerna Zentaris Inc. (TSX: AEZ; NASDAQ: AEZS) a late-stage, global biopharmaceutical company focused on endocrine therapy and oncology, announced today the appointment of David J. Mazzo, Ph.D. as President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), effective on April 9, 2007. Dr. Mazzo succeeds Gilles Gagnon who is leaving his position, effective today, as President and CEO and as a member of the Board of Directors. However, Mr. Gagnon will continue to work with the Company as a consultant.

"On behalf of our entire management team and the Board, I extend my thanks to Gilles for his tireless efforts, commitment and significant contributions. Gilles has played a key role in the growth and current positioning of the Company since he joined in 1999 and then became the President and CEO in 2003," said Dr. Eric Dupont, Executive Chairman of AETerna Zentaris. "We are pleased that Gilles is maintaining his involvement by acting as a special advisor to the Company and, therefore, will continue to contribute to our success."

Dr. Mazzo has spent more than 20 years in the pharmaceutical industry and is recognized for his leadership and strong scientific and regulatory expertise. He joins the Company from Chugai Pharma USA where he has been President and CEO since April 2003. Dr. Mazzo has broad experience working in a variety of multi-cultural environments in the USA, Europe and Asia where he amassed a track record of successful global product development, registration and launch. He has held positions of increasing responsibility with Merck, Baxter, Rhone-Poulenc Rorer, Hoechst Marion Roussel and Schering-Plough. Dr. Mazzo holds a B.A. in Honors (Interdisciplinary Humanities) and a B.S. in Chemistry from Villanova University, as well as an M.S. in Chemistry and a Ph.D. in Analytical Chemistry from the University of Massachusetts (Amherst). He further complemented his American education as a Research Fellow at the Ecole Polytechnique Federale de Lausanne, Switzerland.

"The Board is delighted to have an executive with Dave's proven leadership credentials, successful drug development track record and commercialization experience at the helm as President and CEO," added Dr. Dupont. "We will benefit tremendously from his significant industry experience along with his scientific expertise. Dave is clearly the ideal person to lead the Company through this critical juncture in our emergence as a fully integrated biopharmaceutical company."

Dr. Mazzo added, "I am thrilled with this new opportunity and am very much looking forward to leading AETerna Zentaris through a period of significant and sustained growth and product success. My vision is to build a leading biopharmaceutical company by leveraging the solid foundation that has been established thus far while realizing the full potential of our robust development pipeline."

In order to further consolidate its position in the United States, the Company expects to open shortly an office in New Jersey.
