PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON APRIL 5, 2005

This Proxy Statement is submitted with the Notice of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Weis Markets, Inc. (the "Company"), to be held Tuesday, April 5, 2005, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, at the principal office of the Company, 1000 South Second Street, Sunbury, Pennsylvania 17801, and the form of proxy enclosed with such notice.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE SOLICITATION

The proxy form, which accompanies this statement, is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company. Subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, the shares represented by each proxy executed in the accompanying form of proxy will be voted at the meeting, or any adjournments or postponements thereof, in accordance with the specifications therein made. Where there is no contrary choice specified, the proxy will be voted "FOR" each of the proposals as therein specified. Proxy material will be first sent to shareholders on or about March 8, 2005.

A proxy executed in the form enclosed may be revoked by the person signing the same at any time before the authority thereby granted is exercised. The revocation may be exercised at any time before the annual meeting by indicating the revocation in writing. This revocation should be directed to the Judge of Elections, Weis Markets, Inc., 1000 South Second Street, Sunbury, Pennsylvania 17801. The proxy may also be revoked by voting in person at the annual meeting or by voting a later dated proxy.

The Company will provide, without charge, on written request from security holders, copies of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Expenses related to the solicitation of the proxies for the meeting and the handling and tabulation of proxies received, estimated at $25,000 in total, will be paid by the Company. If proxies are not promptly received, officers, directors and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally by telephone or otherwise, for which they will not receive additional compensation. The Company may reimburse charges of banks, brokers, other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxy material to the beneficial owners and to secure their voting instructions, if necessary. It is estimated that such costs will be nominal.

SHAREHOLDERS' PROPOSALS FOR NEXT ANNUAL MEETING

The Company's bylaws require that any shareholder intending to present a proposal for action at an Annual Meeting must give written notice of the proposal, containing specified information, so that it is received by the Company not later than the notice deadline under the bylaw. This notice deadline will generally be 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the Company's Proxy Statement for the previous year's Annual Meeting, or November 8, 2005 for the Company's Annual Meeting in 2006.

The bylaw described above does not affect the right of a shareholder to request inclusion of a shareholder proposal in the Company's Proxy Statement pursuant to Securities and Exchange Commission Rule 14a-8 or to present for action at an Annual Meeting any proposal so included. Rule 14a-8 requires that written notice of a shareholder proposal requested to be included in the Company's proxy materials pursuant to the Rule must also generally be received by the Company not later than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the Company's Proxy Statement for the previous year's Annual Meeting. For the Company's Annual Meeting in 2006, this deadline would also be November 8, 2005.

The notices of shareholder proposals described under this caption must be given to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's address set forth above. A copy of the bylaw provision described above will be furnished to any shareholder upon written request to the Secretary at the same address.

MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON AT THE MEETING

As the notice of the meeting indicates, the following are the matters to be acted upon at the meeting:

1. Seven directors will be elected at the meeting to hold office, subject to the Company by-laws, until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until their respective successors have qualified.
2. A request for shareholder approval of the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries.
3. Transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

The Company's by-laws specify that notice of any matter to be brought before an annual meeting by a shareholder must be received at the principal executive offices of the Company no later than the notice deadline described under the immediately preceding caption. Management does not intend to bring any other matters before the meeting, and does not know of any other matter that is eligible for action at the meeting.

OUTSTANDING VOTING SECURITIES AND VOTING RIGHTS

The holders of Common Stock of the Company of record at the close of business February 18, 2005 will be entitled to vote on all matters at the meeting. Each holder of Common Stock will be entitled to one vote for each share of stock so held and to cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Under cumulative voting, a shareholder, or the shareholder's proxies, may vote the number of shares of stock owned by the shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or may cumulate such votes and give to one or distribute among two or more nominees as many votes as shall equal the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of the shareholder's shares of stock.

Directors are elected by a plurality vote of all votes cast at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as present for purposes of determining a quorum, but will not affect the election of directors or other matters submitted to the vote of shareholders.

The number of outstanding shares of Common Stock as of February 18, 2005 is 27,033,027. The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least 13,516,514 shares will constitute a quorum.

INDEPENDENCE OF DIRECTORS

Companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") must comply with certain standards regarding corporate governance, as codified in Section 303A of the Listed Company Manual of the NYSE, with some exceptions. A company of which more than 50% of the voting power is held by an individual, a group or another company need not comply with the requirements of Sections 303A.01 Independent Directors, 303A.04 Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee or 303A.05 Compensation Committee. Robert F. Weis, Chairman of the Board, and Ellen W. P. Wasserman, his sister, control 53.2% of the voting power. They have agreed to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of Common Stock and thus constitute a group within the meaning of these rules. The Company does not have a majority of independent directors.

Edgar Filing: WEIS MARKETS INC - Form DEF 14A

Based upon the stock ownership of the principal shareholders, the Company determined it would be better served by having the full Board review nominating and corporate governance issues rather than establish a separate committee. The Company does have a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee comprised of all independent directors. The Company has also adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines which are available on the Company's corporate governance website at http://weismarkets.com/governance_info.php or by request to the Corporate Secretary at the Company's address set forth in "Contacting the Board of Directors" below.

The Board of Directors has determined that each of directors Apfelbaum, Shulman and Smith has no material relationship with the Company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company) and is thus independent within the meaning of the listing standards of the NYSE. As described below, director Apfelbaum and certain of his family members are shareholders of a corporation which leases to the Company the land under a store and adjacent parking lot in Lebanon, Pennsylvania. Since Mr. Apfelbaum's individual interest in Central Properties, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation, ("Central Properties") is less than 1% and the combined interest of his immediate family is less than 10%, it is the view of the Board that this relationship is de minimus and will not interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment as a director.

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

The Company has adopted a "Code of Business Conduct and Ethics" that applies to all of its directors, officers and employees. Separately, the Company also adopted a "Code of Ethics for CEO and CFO" specific to its chief executive officer, chief financial officer, controller and any person performing similar functions. The Company has made both documents available on its corporate governance website at http://weismarkets.com/governance_info.php or by request to the Corporate Secretary at the Company's address set forth in "Contacting the Board of Directors" below.

All directors so participating shall be deemed present at the meeting.

The Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is composed of three independent non-employee directors, as required by the NYSE listing standards. The Audit Committee acts independently to review the scope and results of the independent registered public accounting firm engagement and the adequacy of the Company's internal audit and financial controls. Information regarding the functions performed by the Audit Committee is set forth in the "Report of the Audit Committee," included in this annual proxy statement. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Board of Directors. The 2004 Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors was composed of Messrs. Michael M. Apfelbaum, Richard E. Shulman, Steven C. Smith and Jonathan H. Weis. Mr. Shulman served as Chairman of the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee held two regular meetings during fiscal 2004.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The 2004 Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors was composed of Messrs. Michael M. Apfelbaum, Richard E. Shulman, Steven C. Smith and Jonathan H. Weis. Messrs. Apfelbaum, Shulman and Smith were not officers or employees of the Company, nor have they had any relationship with the Company requiring disclosure under the Securities and Exchange Commission regulations except as described in the following paragraph.

Other Arrangements. Central Properties owns the land under a Company store and an adjacent parking lot in Lebanon, Pennsylvania. Central Properties leased these properties to the Company for $75,312 in fiscal 2004. The shareholders of Central Properties include Michael M. Apfelbaum, Jonathan H. Weis and Robert F. Weis, each of whom is a director of the Company.

AUDIT COMMITTEE FINANCIAL EXPERT

The Board has determined that all Audit Committee members are financially literate under the current listing standards of the NYSE. The Board also determined that the Chairman of the Audit Committee, Mr. Smith, is an "audit committee financial expert," as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K, and all members of said committee are "independent" for purposes of Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the listing standards of the NYSE.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and the Securities and Exchange Commission disclosure requirements. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report with management including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent registered public accounting firms, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Committee in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). In addition, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firms, their independence from management and the Company including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board and also considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the registered public accounting firms' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the Company's internal auditors and independent registered public accounting firms the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Audit Committee meets with the internal auditors and independent registered public accounting firms, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 25, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, the appointment of Grant Thornton LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for fiscal 2005, subject to shareholder ratification.

Respectfully submitted by the Audit Committee,

Steven C. Smith, Committee Chairman
Michael M. Apfelbaum
Richard E. Shulman

BOARD COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors believes that the primary objective of the Company's executive compensation policies should be to attract and retain qualified executives, which is critical to the ongoing success of the Company. The executive compensation program is based upon factors that are subjective in nature and are in the best interests of the Company and ultimately the shareholders. The Committee's primary objective is achieved by providing appropriate compensation and incentives that are competitive with executives at selected peer companies of comparable size and position in the retail business, while keeping compensation in line with the financial objectives of the Company. The Compensation Committee recognizes the fact that the Company is engaged in a highly competitive industry and thus annually examines market compensation levels and trends in the labor market.

The Company's compensation program includes an annual bonus plan to reward certain key employees, including its executive officers. Bonus potentials are established by level within the Company, and actual payouts are based on achievement of sales and operating profit targets.

Based on subjective and qualitative considerations, which include the overall financial and operational success of the Company, the Committee approved the continuation of the Chairman of the Board's and the President/CEO's base salary in fiscal 2004. The Chairman and the President/CEO earned 35.0% of their total bonus potential in 2003 and have earned 38.3% in 2004, which will be paid in 2005. Bonus amounts are reflected in the "Summary Compensation Table," in the year earned.

With the Chairman of the Board and President/CEO, the Committee subjectively evaluates the performance of senior management. The Compensation Committee relies upon written and verbal evaluations, provided by the Chairman of the Board and President/CEO, of each executive's performance for the most recent fiscal year. In addition, senior management is orally evaluated by the President/CEO as to their efforts and accomplishments throughout the period from information deemed relevant both internally and in light of the competitive position of the Company in the industry. These evaluations include qualitative factors such as the individuals' decision-making responsibilities, the professional experience required to perform given tasks, and their leadership and team-building skills. Although executive base compensation is not specifically related to corporate performance, the overall performance of the Company is a consideration in determining executive compensation. The Chairman of the Board and President/CEO reported that the executives substantially met their objectives during the most recent fiscal year.

Employment and Severance Agreements. The Compensation Committee notes that the President/CEO has an employment agreement through 2006 and the Senior Vice President and Treasurer/CFO has an employment agreement with the Company through 2007. These agreements specify the terms of employment, including pay factors. The agreements provide that employment shall be at will, but if employment is terminated without cause, or the executive resigns for good reason, the executive shall receive his remaining salary and all benefits payable under the agreement. The agreements include a covenant not to compete clause, which is limited by time and geography.

Respectfully submitted by the Compensation Committee,

Richard E. Shulman, Committee Chairman

PROPOSAL NO. 2 RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Subject to ratification by the shareholders, the Board of Directors of the Company has appointed Grant Thornton LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, to audit the financial statements of the Company for the fiscal year 2005. Representatives of the firm of Grant Thornton LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders with the opportunity to make a statement, if they desire to do so, and to be available to respond to appropriate questions. The Audit Committee and the Board of Directors recommend that the shareholders vote "FOR" such ratification of proposal number two.

On September 23, 2004, Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y") notified the Company that they did not wish to submit a proposal for the 2005 audit engagement and had also decided to resign as auditors for fiscal year 2004 effective immediately. The reports on the Company's financial statements from E&Y for the preceding two years, or any year prior to that period, have not contained an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. There have been no disagreements with E&Y on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure during the two most recent fiscal years, any subsequent interim period through the date of resignation or in any of the years prior to that period, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of E&Y, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report.

On September 24, 2004, the Audit Committee engaged Grant Thornton LLP as the Company's independent accountant. The Company did not, nor did anyone on its behalf, consult Grant Thornton LLP during the Company's two (2) most recent fiscal years and during the subsequent interim period prior to the Company's engagement of Grant Thornton LLP regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction (completed or proposed) or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee's decision was based upon a review of competitive bids submitted from various accounting firms per requests made by the Company earlier in the year.

Engagement of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm. The Audit Committee is responsible for approving all audit engagement fees, terms and non-audit engagements with the independent registered public accounting firm on behalf of the Company in advance of providing any service.

Audit Fees. Fees charged to the Company by Grant Thornton LLP for professional services provided in conjunction with the audit of the Company's 2004 financial statements, review of the Company's quarterly financial statements and attestation services normally provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings and engagements totaled $375,704. Additionally, out of pocket expenses incurred by Grant Thornton LLP and billed to the Company totaled $32,601.

Fees charged to the Company by Ernst & Young LLP for professional services provided in conjunction with the audit of the Company's financial statements, and review of the Company's quarterly financial statements

Fees for services pertaining to employee benefit plan audits performed by Ernst & Young LLP in fiscal 2004 and 2003 totaled $31,318 and $25,900, respectively. Fees in 2004 also included workpaper review preparation for the successor auditor.
