Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 31, 2007, American Community Properties Trust (“ACPT” or the “Company”) amended its Purchase and Development Agreements with U.S. Home Corporation, a subsidiary of Lennar Corporation (“Lennar”). The amendment requires Lennar to purchase approximately 100 lots for a total base purchase price of $7.5 million. The first 51 lots, with an aggregate base purchase price of approximately $3.8 million, were purchased on December 31, 2007 (“December 2007 Takedown”). The remaining lots subject to the amendment are required to be purchased by Lennar on or before June 1, 2008 (the “Initial 2008 Takedown”). The Company further agreed that upon settlement of the December 2007 Takedown, Lennar will have satisfied their lot takedown requirements for calendar year 2007, resulting in 78 lot sales to Lennar for an initial price of approximately $6.0 million.

The amendment reduces the final purchase price for the lots within the December 2007 and Initial 2008 Takedowns to 22.5% of the selling price of homes constructed on such lots, provided the final price for a lot is not less than $78,000 per single family building lot or $68,000 per townhome building lot. Lots required to be purchased subsequent to the Initial 2008 Takedown will be governed by the terms of the previous agreement.

The complete text of the amendment is attached and filed as Exhibit 10.4 to this current report on Form 8-K.
