PROXY STATEMENT

FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 2002

GENERAL

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the shareholders of Allegiant Bancorp, Inc., a Missouri corporation, in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at The History Museum, 5700 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri 63112, at 4:00 p.m., local time, on Thursday, April 18, 2002, and at any adjournment or postponement of such meeting, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of annual meeting of shareholders.

Your proxy is being solicited by our board of directors and will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained in the proxy. If no choice is specified, proxies will be voted in favor of the election of the nominees for director proposed by our board of directors in Proposal I, in favor of the approval and adoption of the Allegiant Bancorp, Inc. 2002 Stock Incentive Plan in Proposal II and in favor of the approval and adoption of the amendment to the Allegiant Bancorp, Inc. 2000 Stock Incentive Plan in Proposal III. A proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by filing a written notice of revocation or a later-dated proxy with our corporate secretary at our principal offices or by attending the annual meeting and voting the shares in person. Attendance alone at the annual meeting will not of itself revoke a proxy. Proxies that are properly executed, timely received and not revoked will be voted in the manner indicated thereon at the annual meeting and any adjournment or postponement of such meeting.

This Proxy Statement, the notice of annual meeting and the accompanying proxy were first mailed to our shareholders on or about March 22, 2002. We will bear the entire expense of soliciting proxies. Proxies will be solicited by mail initially. Our directors, executive officers and employees also may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or other means, but such persons will not be specially compensated for such services. Certain holders of record, such as brokers, custodians and nominees, are being requested to distribute proxy materials to beneficial owners and will be reimbursed by us for their reasonable expenses incurred in sending proxy materials to beneficial owners.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on March 8, 2002 are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. On such date, there were 15,501,206 shares of our common stock, $.01 par value, issued and outstanding. Except as described below with respect to cumulative voting in the election of directors, the holder of each outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be acted upon at the annual meeting. Shares subject to abstentions will be treated as shares that are present at the annual meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and as voted for the purposes of determining the base number of shares voted on any proposal. If a broker or other nominee holder indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote the shares it holds of record on a proposal, those shares will not be treated as present at the annual meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum and will not be considered as voted for purposes of determining the approval of the shareholders on a particular proposal.

Cumulative voting is applicable to the election of our directors. In the election of directors, a shareholder is entitled to cast as many votes as shall equal the number of shares he or she owns of our common stock multiplied by four, the number of directors to be elected at the annual meeting. A shareholder may cast all votes for a single candidate or may distribute them among two or more candidates as the shareholder may decide. Each duly executed proxy in the form enclosed will be voted "FOR" all the company's nominees listed on such proxy, unless otherwise directed in the proxy. If a shareholder gives a proxy in the form enclosed but withholds authority to vote for one or more of the nominees listed on the proxy, the number of votes represented by such shareholder's proxy shall be divided equally, to the extent practicable without creating fractional votes, among the remaining nominees.

The approval and adoption of the 2002 Stock Incentive Plan and the amendment to the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan each require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on such proposal at the meeting.

PROPOSAL I. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Four individuals will be elected at the annual meeting to serve as Class II directors for a term of three years. The four nominees receiving the greatest number of votes at the annual meeting will be elected.

* * * * *

We received a shareholder proposal for election of Michael A. Deelo as a director. Mr. Deelo was not nominated by our board of directors. However, pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have included the shareholder proposal in this Proxy Statement and the proxy.

As discussed below under "Shareholder Proposal" the proposed nomination of Mr. Deelo was not made in accordance with our director nomination procedures. The procedures, which are set forth in our by-laws and were specifically described in our joint proxy statement/prospectus, dated August 7, 2001, require a shareholder to provide us written notice of his or her intent to nominate an individual for election to the board of directors at this year's annual meeting not earlier than the 90th day prior to the annual meeting nor later than the close of business on the 60th day prior to the annual meeting. The shareholder proposal was not submitted in accordance with this requirement. As a result, Michael A. Deelo has not been properly nominated for a director at the meeting. Accordingly, a proxy marked "for" the shareholder proposal will not result in a vote being cast to elect him by the proxies in the election of directors.

The board believes that the procedures set forth in the by-laws are reasonable to assure the orderly conduct of shareholder meetings and are not unduly burdensome for shareholders. Thus, the board believes that it is in the best interests of the company and all its shareholders that the published procedures for shareholder proposals be applied consistently and uniformly.
