(Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

Additional time will be needed for the Registrant to complete the preparation and review of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the Quarter Ended February 28, 2005 (the Form 10-Q). During the quarter covered by this report the Registrant completed the sale of its assets to Applied Materials, Inc. (Applied) and began the process of winding down its business and entered into liquidation in The Netherlands. As a result of the transaction with Applied, the Registrant greatly reduced its staff, and as such, encountered difficulties in preparing and completing its Form 10-Q. As a result, the Registrant will not be in a position to file the Form 10-Q in the prescribed time period without unreasonable time and expense. The Registrant will attempt to file its Form 10-Q no later than the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date, as contemplated by Rule 12b-25(b)(2)(ii) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, but can give no assurance that it will meet this deadline for the aforementioned reasons.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s).

☒ Yes ☐ No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

☒ Yes ☐ No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As discussed above, the Registrant completed the sale of its assets to Applied and began the process of winding down its business and entered into liquidation in The Netherlands. The sale was completed on December 14, 2004, and thus the Registrant had no further operations after December 14, 2004. As a result, the results of operations for the period covered by the Form 10-Q, will only reflect 14 days of recurring operations, as compared to three (3) months of operations for the corresponding period for the last fiscal year and will reflect a gain on the sale of the assets to Applied. The Registrant is still in the process of completing its financial statements and accordingly, the Registrant is not currently able to provide a reasonable estimate of the change in its results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year.
