On April 13, 2006, Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc. (the Company) filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in which the Company disclosed the following:

The Company and six of its directors are defendants in a purported class action lawsuit relating to the proposed merger transaction with Armor Holdings described above in Business. The lawsuit was filed on April 11, 2006, and alleges, among other things, that the defendants have breached their fiduciary duties to the shareholders of the Company by failing to maximize shareholder value when selling the Company, by favoring Armor Holdings in the proposed merger transaction and precluding superior offers for the Company and by failing to disclose material information or disclosing materially false information in its proxy materials relating to the shareholders meeting to be held on May 9, 2006. The lawsuit was filed in District Court in Harris County, Texas, by a purported shareholder of the Company on behalf of all other similarly situated shareholders. The lawsuit alleges that a class should be certified and the plaintiff named as representative of the purported class. No class has been certified at present and accordingly, we regard the action as a purported class action. Additional lawsuits could be filed in the future. The lawsuit seeks, among other things, a declaration that the merger agreement was entered into in breach of the fiduciary duties of the individual defendants and is therefore unlawful and unenforceable, an injunction against the Company proceeding with the transaction or consummating the transaction or any other business combination unless certain procedures are in place and damages, attorneys and experts fees, expenses and other relief. The Company believes that this lawsuit is wholly without merit and intends to vigorously defend it.
