ITEM 3.01 NOTICE OF DELISTING OR FAILURE TO SATISFY A CONTINUED LISTING RULE OR STANDARD; TRANSFER OF LISTING

On May 22 2006, Communications Systems, Inc. (the Company) publicly reported that management of the Company and its Audit Committee determined to defer filing the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for its first quarter ended March 31, 2006 until information related to a government investigation and related reviews publicly disclosed on March 15, 2006 could be gathered and assessed and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm completed its review of the Form 10-Q as required by Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company's public announcement and related Report on Form 8-K also discussed that the failure to file the Form 10-Q was a deficiency under the rules of the American Stock Exchange (AMEX) where the Company's common stock is traded.

On May 25, 2006 the Company received a letter from the AMEX advising the Company that because it had not filed its Form 10-Q report for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 it had not fulfilled a condition for continued listing of its securities as required by Sections 134 and 1101 of the AMEX Company Guide and was in material violation of its listing agreement with AMEX. In its May 25, 2006 letter AMEX advised the Company that, pursuant to Section 1003(d) of the Company Guide, AMEX was authorized to suspend and, unless prompt corrective action was taken, to remove the Company's securities from AMEX.

The May 25, 2006 letter from AMEX also described procedures AMEX would follow to provide the Company with the opportunity to achieve compliance with AMEX's continued listing standards. In its letter the AMEX stated that, no later than June 8, 2006, the Company must submit a plan to AMEX as to actions the Company has taken and intends to take to achieve compliance with AMEX's continued listing standards by July 6, 2006. The Company intends to submit the plan AMEX has requested by the June 8 deadline. If, after review by the Listings Qualifications Department of AMEX, the plan is accepted, the Company is advised that it will remain listed on AMEX until July 6, during which time, however, it will be subject to periodic review by AMEX staff to determine whether the Company is making progress consistent with the plan. If the Company does not submit a plan, or submits a plan that is not accepted by AMEX, it will be subject to delisting proceedings. If the plan is accepted, but the Company does not achieve compliance with AMEX's continued listing standards by July 6, 2006, or the Company does not make progress consistent with the plan during the plan period, AMEX may initiate delisting proceedings as appropriate.

A copy of the letter from AMEX is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and a copy of the Company's press release announcing receipt of the letter is attached as Exhibit 99.2.
