Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 1, 2006, Central Pacific Financial Corp. announced that its subsidiary, Central Pacific Bank (the Bank), has agreed to a cease and desist order (the Order) with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) and Hawaii Division of Financial Institutions (the DFI) as a result of certain concerns of the FDIC and DFI relating to the Bank's compliance with certain provisions of the Bank Secrecy Act (the BSA).

The consent Order requires Central Pacific Bank to take certain affirmative actions to comply with its BSA obligations, among them: expanding personnel with BSA responsibilities; developing and implementing new policies and mechanisms to monitor suspicious activities, including a new enhanced customer due diligence program and the installation of automated suspicious activity monitoring software; reviewing past account activity to determine whether suspicious activity was properly identified and reported; strengthening internal controls, including an augmentation of Board oversight regarding BSA activities and independent testing to review the Bank's compliance efforts; developing policies and procedures to govern staffing and training for BSA compliance; and submitting monthly progress reports to the FDIC and DFI.

To date, the Bank has implemented multiple upgrades that address the requirements of the Order, such as increasing oversight, supervision and staffing of BSA compliance; improving its practices and procedures to monitor and report transactions; and conducting training, as well as providing for auditing and independent testing of Bank practices to ensure adherence to tighter BSA standards. Moreover, the Bank is currently installing state-of-the-art software that will monitor transactions as required by these BSA standards.
