Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

As previously announced in a press release dated September 16, 2014 and disclosed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 16, 2014, after the close of business on September 15, 2014 (the Separation Date), Atlantic Power Corporation (the Company) appointed Kenneth Hartwick, 51, as interim President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) effective immediately, following the mutual agreement for Barry Welch to step down as President, CEO and a director of the Company.

On September 22, 2014 (the Effective Date), the Company and Atlantic Power Holdings, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (Atlantic Holdings), entered into a severance and release agreement (the Severance and Release Agreement) with Mr. Welch. The Severance and Release Agreement provides that Mr. Welch will receive severance payments and benefits pursuant to his Amended and Restated Executive Employment Agreement, dated April 15, 2013 (the Employment Agreement), three months of Mr. Welch's current base salary and three months of continued benefits (in lieu of notice) and reimbursement in an amount up to $10,000 for legal fees in connection with the Severance and Release Agreement (the Severance Benefits).

In consideration of the Severance Benefits, pursuant to the Severance and Release Agreement, and subject to the limitations contained therein, Mr. Welch has granted a release to the Company and all of its subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns, and their respective past, present and future officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, agents, employees and attorneys in respect of any potential claims. In addition, pursuant to the Separation and Release Agreement, and subject to the limitations contained therein, Atlantic Holdings, the Company and their affiliates have granted a release to Mr. Welch in respect of any potential claims.

In addition to the compensation and release arrangements described above, the Separation and Release Agreement contains customary non-disparagement, confidentiality, non-solicitation and cooperation provisions. Pursuant to the Separation and Release Agreement, Mr. Welch's obligations under Section 9(a) of the Employment Agreement shall not be applicable and instead (i) for one year following the Separation Date, Mr. Welch shall not divert or otherwise appropriate, directly or indirectly, alone or with others, any project acquisition, development and/or construction opportunities that the Company considered within the nine month period immediately preceding the Separation Date and (ii) shall not be employed by any public or private company that, within one year of the Separation Date, undertakes any transaction which would constitute a change in control as defined in Section 6(b) of the Employment Agreement with respect to the Company or Atlantic Holdings.

This description of the Separation and Release Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Separation and Release Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
