Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On February 14, 2017, Hologic, Inc. (Hologic) and Cynosure, Inc. (Cynosure) entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 14, 2017 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Hologic, Cynosure, and Minuteman Merger Sub, Inc. (Purchaser).

Pursuant to the terms of Merger Agreement, Purchaser will commence an all cash tender offer (the Offer) for any (subject to the minimum condition) and all of Cynosure's outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Shares), at a purchase price of $66.00 per Share (the Offer Price), net to the seller in cash, without interest, subject to any required withholding of taxes. Under the Merger Agreement, Hologic is required to commence the Offer within five business days after the date of the Merger Agreement. The Offer will remain open for a minimum of 20 business days from the date of commencement.

The obligation of Purchaser to purchase Shares tendered in the Offer is subject to customary closing conditions, including (i) Shares having been validly tendered and not withdrawn that represent at least a majority of the total number of Shares then outstanding, (ii) the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (iii) approval from the German Federal Cartel Office under the German Act Against Restraints of Competition having been obtained, (iv) the absence of injunctions or other legal restraints preventing the consummation of the Offer or the Merger, as defined below, (v) the accuracy of representations and warranties made by Cynosure in the Merger Agreement, (vi) compliance by Cynosure with its covenants in the Merger Agreement, and (vii) other conditions set forth in Annex I to the Merger Agreement. The consummation of the Offer is not subject to any financing conditions.

Following the completion of the Offer, subject to the absence of injunctions or other legal restraints preventing the consummation of the Merger, Purchaser will merge with and into Cynosure, with Cynosure surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Hologic (the Merger), pursuant to the procedure provided for under Section 251(h) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, without any additional stockholder approvals. The Merger will be effected as soon as practicable following the time of purchase by Purchaser of Shares validly tendered and not withdrawn in the Offer.

At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each issued and outstanding Share (other than Shares owned by (i) Cynosure, Hologic, Purchaser, or any other subsidiary of Hologic, which Shares will be canceled and will cease to exist, (ii) any subsidiary of Cynosure, which Shares will be converted into such number of shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation so as to maintain relative ownership percentages or (iii) stockholders who validly exercise appraisal rights under Delaware law with respect to such Shares) will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the Offer Price, without interest, subject to any required withholding taxes.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, (i) each then-outstanding Cynosure stock option will vest in full and be cancelled and converted into a right to receive the Offer Price (less the applicable exercise price) in respect of each Share underlying such stock option, (ii) each then outstanding Cynosure restricted stock unit award will vest and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Offer Price in respect of each Share underlying such restricted stock unit award, and (iii) each then-outstanding Cynosure performance stock unit award will vest and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Offer Price in respect of the maximum number of Shares underlying such performance stock unit award.

In the Merger Agreement, Cynosure has agreed, among other things, (i) to use commercially reasonable efforts to conduct its business in the ordinary course during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger; (ii) subject to certain customary exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement to permit Cynosure's board of directors to comply with its fiduciary duties, to recommend that Cynosure's stockholders accept the Offer and tender their shares pursuant to the Offer; and (iii) not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals and to certain restrictions on its ability to respond to any such proposals. The Merger Agreement also contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of Cynosure, Hologic and Purchaser.

The Merger Agreement contains customary termination rights for both Hologic and Cynosure, including, among others, for failure to consummate the Offer on or before August 14, 2017.

Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, including (i) a termination by Cynosure to enter into an agreement for an alternative transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or (ii) a termination by Hologic due to a change in the Cynosure board's recommendation, Cynosure has agreed to pay Hologic a termination fee of approximately $57.7 million.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the actual terms of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any financial or other factual information about Cynosure or Hologic. In particular, the representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement (i) were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, (ii) were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, (iii) may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing those matters as facts and (iv) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Hologic or Cynosure. Accordingly, investors should read the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement not in isolation but only in conjunction with the other information about Hologic or Cynosure and their respective subsidiaries that the respective companies include in reports, statements and other filings they make with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).
