Item 1.01, Item 2.01 and Item 3.02 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement; Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets; Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities

On January 5, 2007, Online Vacation Center Holdings Corp. (the Company, we or us) consummated the acquisition of Dunhill Vacations, Inc., a Fort Lauderdale, Florida travel newsletter provider, pursuant to the terms of an acquisition agreement, dated January 5, 2007 (Acquisition Agreement), by and among the Company, Dunhill Vacations, Inc, and Pat Daly, James DiStefano and Robert Dunhill, three individuals (the Investors).

Pursuant to the Dunhill Acquisition Agreement, we purchased and acquired all of the issued and outstanding ownership interests of Dunhill Vacations, Inc. for $250,000 cash and 50,000 restricted shares of our common stock. The shares were issued in a transaction that was exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), as a transaction by an issuer not involving a public offering. Each of the Investors is knowledgeable, sophisticated and has access to comprehensive information about us. Each Investor represented his/her intention to acquire the shares for investment only and not with a view to distribute or sell the shares. We placed legends on the certificates stating that the shares were not registered under the Securities Act and set forth the restrictions on their transferability and sale.

The foregoing description of the Dunhill Acquisition Agreement and the transactions consummated thereby is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Dunhill Acquisition Agreement attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and the press release attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and incorporated herein by reference.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of

Online Vacation Holdings Corp. and Subsidiaries

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Dunhill Vacations, Inc. as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Dunhill Vacations, Inc. for December 31, 2006 and 2005 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Business

Dunhill Vacations, Inc. (Company) is a virtual business that involves the publication and distribution of a travel newsletter through Internet email to targeted qualified customers. The content is driven by destination travel promotions offered by its customers, which are marketing companies, travel agencies and cruise lines. The Company has a physical location in South Florida, however, the majority of its activity is conducted via the Internet.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure at the date of the financial statements and during the reporting period. The most significant of the estimates relates to third-party payer contractual allowances and the allowance for doubtful accounts. It is reasonably possible that these estimates will change in the near term due to one or more future confirming events. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with provision of Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 104 Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements, which states that revenue is realized or realizable and earned when all of the following criteria are met: Persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, services have been rendered, the seller's price to the buyer is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. Revenue is recognized upon distribution of the travel promotions through Internet email.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. At December 31, 2006 and 2005 cash and cash equivalents include cash held in bank.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivables principally consist of amounts due from customers. The Company determines its allowance by considering a number of factors, including the length of time trade accounts receivable are past due, the Company's previous loss history, the specific customer's current ability to pay its obligation to the Company and the condition of the general economy and the industry as a whole. As of December 31, 2006 and 2005, there were no amounts recorded as doubtful accounts as all balances were fully collectible.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Major replacements and betterments are capitalized and depreciated over the remaining useful lives of the assets.

Income Taxes

The Company is organized as a Sub Chapter S Corporation, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, whereby the income or loss of the corporation is reported on the personal income tax returns of the stockholders. Accordingly, no income taxes have been provided.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of accounts receivable.

NOTE 1.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments include cash and trade receivables. The carrying amount of these financial instruments has been estimated by management to approximate fair value.

Recent accounting pronouncements that the Company has adopted or will be required to adopt in the future are summarized below.

Accounting Changes and Error Corrections

In May 2005, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections (SFAS 154), which replaces Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 20, Accounting Changes, and SFAS No. 3, Reporting Accounting Changes in Interim Financial Statements - An Amendment of APB Opinion No. 28. SFAS 154 provides guidance on the accounting for and reporting of accounting changes and error corrections, and it establishes retrospective application, or the latest practicable date, as the required method for reporting a change in accounting principle and the reporting of a correction of an error. SFAS 154 is effective for accounting changes and corrections of errors made in fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006. The Company will adopt SFAS 154 in the first quarter of fiscal year 2007 and does not expect it to have a material impact on its results of operations and financial condition.

Fair Value Measurements

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). SFAS 157 provides guidance for using fair value to measure assets and liabilities. SFAS 157 addresses the requests from investors for expanded disclosure about the extent to which a company measures its assets and liabilities at fair value, the information used to measure fair value and the effect of fair value measurements on earnings. SFAS 157 applies whenever other standards require (or permit) assets or liabilities to be measured at fair value, and does not expand the use of fair value in any new circumstances. SFAS 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007 and will be adopted by the Company in the first quarter of fiscal year 2009. The Company is unable at this time to determine the effect that its adoption of SFAS 157 will have on its results of operations and financial condition.

Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes

In July 2006, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109 (FIN 48). FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes by prescribing the recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. It also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. The cumulative effects, if any, of applying FIN 48 will be recorded as an adjustment to retained earnings as of the beginning of the period of adoption. FIN 48 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2006, and the Company is required to adopt it in the first quarter of fiscal year 2008. The Company is currently evaluating the effect that the adoption of FIN 48 will have on its results of operations and financial condition and is not currently in a position to determine such effects, if any.

Taxes Collected and Remitted to Governmental Authorities

In June 2006, the FASB ratified Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 06-3 (EITF 06-3), "How Taxes Collected from Customers and Remitted to Governmental Authorities Should Be Presented in the Income Statement (That Is, Gross versus Net Presentation)." EITF 06-3 applies to any tax assessed by a governmental authority that is directly imposed on a revenue producing transaction between a seller and a customer. EITF 06-3 allows companies to present taxes either gross within revenue and expense or net. If taxes subject to this issue are significant, a company is required to disclose its accounting policy for presenting taxes and the amount of such taxes that are recognized on a gross basis. The Company currently presents such taxes net. EITF 06-3 is required to be adopted during the first quarter of fiscal year 2008. These taxes are currently not material to the Company's financial statements.

Accounting for Rental Costs Incurred During a Construction Period

In September 2006, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position No. FAS 13-1 (As Amended), Accounting for Rental Costs Incurred during a Construction Period (FAS 13-1). This position requires a company to recognize as rental expense the rental costs associated with a ground or building operating lease during a construction period, except for costs associated with projects accounted for under SFAS No. 67, Accounting for Costs and Initial Rental Operations of Real Estate Projects. FAS 13-1 is effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2005 and was adopted by the Company in the first quarter of fiscal year 2007. The Company's adoption of FAS 13-1 will not materially affect its results of operations and financial position.

Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements

In September 2006, the SEC issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108, Considering the Effects of Prior Year Misstatements when Quantifying Misstatements in Current Year Financial Statements (SAB 108). SAB 108 provides guidance on the consideration of the effects of prior year misstatements in quantifying current year misstatements for the purpose of a materiality assessment. SAB 108 establishes an approach that requires quantification of financial statement errors based on the effects of each on a company's balance sheet and statement of operations and the related financial statement disclosures. Early application of the guidance in SAB 108 is encouraged in any report for an interim period of the first fiscal year ending after November 15, 2006, and will be adopted by the Company in the first quarter of fiscal year 2007. The Company does not expect the adoption of SAB 108 to have a material impact on its results of operations and financial condition.

FSP FAS 123(R) -5

FASB Staff Position (FSP) FAS No. 123(R)-5 was issued on October 10, 2006. The FSP provides that instruments that were originally issued as employee compensation and then modified, and that modification is made to the terms of the instrument solely to reflect an equity restructuring that occurs when the holders are no longer employees, then no change in the recognition or the measurement (due to a change in classification) of those instruments will result if both of the following conditions are met: (a). There is no increase in fair value of the award (or the ratio of intrinsic value to the exercise price of the award is preserved, that is, the holder is made whole), or the antidilution provision is not added to the terms of the award in contemplation of an equity restructuring; and (b). All holders of the same class of equity instruments (for example, stock options) are treated in the same manner.

The provisions in this FSP shall be applied in the first reporting period beginning after the date the FSP is posted to the FASB website. The Company does not expect the adoption of FSP FAS 123(R)-5 to have a material impact on its consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

NOTES

DECEMBER 31, 2006

(1)

Represents the application of Online Vacation Center Holdings Corp. 's statutory tax rate of 41% to Dunhill Vacations, Inc. pre-tax income of $3,851.

(2)

Goodwill was computed as follows:

Fair value of net assets acquired:		$ 16,663
Less: Pro forma income taxes payable		1,579
Pro forma fair value of net assets acquired		15,084
Consideration given:
Cash at closing	$ 250,000
