This Proxy Statement (“Proxy Statement”) and the enclosed GOLD proxy card are being furnished by Southeastern Asset Management, Inc., a Tennessee corporation (“SAM”), and Icahn Enterprises, L.P., a Delaware master limited partnership (“IEP”, and together with the Icahn Participants (as defined in Annex B), “Icahn”) (Icahn, together with SAM, “SAM/Icahn”), for use at the special meeting of stockholders of Dell Inc. (“Dell”), and at any continuation, adjournment, or postponement thereof (the “Special Meeting”), relating to the proposed going private transaction of Dell (the “Proposed Going Private Transaction” or the “Proposed Merger”). The Special Meeting will be held on July 18, 2013, at 8:00 a.m., Central Time, at the Dell Round Rock Campus, 501 Dell Way, Round Rock, Texas 78682.

Pursuant to this Proxy Statement, SAM/Icahn are soliciting proxies from holders of shares of common stock of Dell, par value of $0.01 per share (“Common Stock”), in respect of the following proposals to be considered at the Special Meeting, each as described in greater detail in the definitive proxy statement of Dell (the “Dell Proxy Statement”) filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on May 31, 2013 for the Special Meeting (such proposals, the “Dell Special Meeting Proposals”):

1 to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 5, 2013, as it may be amended from time to time, (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Denali Holding Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Parent”), Denali Intermediate Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (“Intermediate”), Denali Acquiror Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Intermediate (“Merger Sub” and, taken together with Intermediate and Parent, the “Parent Parties”), and Dell (the “Merger Agreement Proposal”);

2. to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may become payable to the named executive officers of Dell in connection with the merger, as disclosed in the Dell Proxy Statement in the table under “Special Factors—Interests of the Company’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Quantification of Payments and Benefits – Potential Change of Control Payments to Named Executive Officers Table”, including the associated footnotes and narrative discussion (the “Golden Parachute Proposal”);

3. to approve the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement (the “Adjournment Proposal”); and

4. to act upon other business as may properly come before the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof by or at the direction of the Board of Directors of Dell (the “Other Business Proposal”).

SAM/ICAHN URGE YOU TO VOTE THE GOLD PROXY CARD (1) “AGAINST” THE MERGER AGREEMENT PROPOSAL, (2) “AGAINST” THE GOLDEN PARACHUTE PROPOSAL, (3) “AGAINST” THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL AND (4) “AGAINST” THE OTHER BUSINESS PROPOSAL.

The Board of Directors of Dell (the “Dell Board”) has established the close of business on June 3, 2013 as the record date (the “Record Date”) for determining those stockholders who will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. According to Dell’s Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended May 3, 2013, as of June 6, 2013, there were 1,756,073,637 shares of Dell Common Stock outstanding. As of June 25, 2013, Icahn beneficially owned 152,478,650 shares, or approximately 8.7%, of Dell Common Stock outstanding and SAM beneficially owned 71,313,728 shares, or approximately 4.1%, of Dell Common Stock outstanding, for a combined total of 223,792,378 shares, or approximately 12.8%, of Dell Common Stock outstanding.

This Proxy Statement and the enclosed GOLD proxy card are first being sent or given to stockholders of Dell on or about June 26, 2013.

This solicitation is being made by SAM/Icahn and not by or on behalf of the Dell Board.

A proxy may be given by any person who held shares of Dell Common Stock on the Record Date. Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, you are urged to sign and date the enclosed GOLD proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. Your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts, so you may return the GOLD proxy card even if you have already delivered any other proxy. Please do not return any proxy card sent to you by Dell. If you have already returned a proxy card sent to you by Dell, that card will be automatically revoked if you complete and return the enclosed GOLD proxy card.

BACKGROUND OF THIS SOLICITATION

SAM has been a holder of Dell Common Stock since August 2005.

In June 2010, rumors began to circulate that Dell may be taken private when Michael S. Dell, the company's founder and Chief Executive Officer, while participating in the Sanford C. Bernstein Strategic Decisions Conference, publicly acknowledged that he had considered taking the company private. Mr. Dell would not, however, comment on what circumstances would lead him to make such a decision, opting instead to focus the rest of his discussion on the company's transformation away from being a PC-reliant business, the long-term investments such a transformation required, and the bright future he believed the company would enjoy once these investments have matured.

Consistent with its normal course interaction with management teams at companies in which it has invested, SAM has engaged in routine meetings and conversations with Dell's management since 2005. Depending on company operations and market conditions, these conversations have included exploration of a wide variety of potential value creating opportunities – shared not from an “activist” perspective, but with receptive management in a spirit of partnership, to assist in evaluating strategies that might build long-term value per share. During one such communication, on June 15, 2012, a representative from SAM asked Mr. Dell whether he continued to think about a going private transaction. Mr. Dell responded that he had yet to reach a definitive conclusion. SAM sent Mr. Dell a spreadsheet assuming for discussion purposes that the price in such a transaction would be approximately $17.00 per share, and illustrating the company's capacity comfortably to finance such a transaction should SAM and Mr. Dell be the only stockholders to remain. For the next several weeks, Mr. Dell and a representative from SAM continued high-level discussions about the structuring and economics of such a transaction.

During the same period, SAM also explored with Mr. Dell potential asset dispositions and significant share repurchases, not knowing what value creating opportunities he and the Board might view as in the best interests of stockholders. In connection with such discussions, on July 13, 2012, SAM sent Mr. Dell a spreadsheet exploring the potential sale of the Dell Financial Services business and/or issuance of debt to fund a significant share repurchase. While brief follow-up conversations occurred over the late summer and fall of 2012, SAM's attempts to get further detail, including requests through counsel for a confidentiality agreement, were not successful.

In January 2013, rumors again began to circulate that Dell may be taken private, and further that Dell was actively engaged with potential buyers. On January 24, 2013, SAM again requested that Dell enter into a confidentiality agreement that would permit SAM to receive information about any material transaction under consideration. On January 29, 2013, SAM and its outside counsel met with Alex J. Mandl, Dell's lead independent director and the chairman of Dell's Special Committee, and the Special Committee's outside counsel. At the meeting, SAM discussed a variety of transactions in which Dell could engage that would be designed to enhance the future success of Dell and permit Dell stockholders to continue owning an equity interest in Dell. SAM also indicated that it had read reports of a potential going private transaction in the range of $14 or $15 per share. SAM indicated that it would oppose any deal involving merger consideration in the range of $14 or $15 per share that did not provide existing stockholders a choice to roll over all or a portion of their equity interests in Dell. SAM again requested that Dell enter into a confidentiality agreement that would permit SAM to receive information about any proposed going private or other material transaction. The request was declined.

On February 5, 2013, Dell and the Parent Parties executed and delivered the Merger Agreement and related agreements. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Dell stockholders would receive $13.65 per share of Dell Common Stock in cash, and as a result of the merger, Dell would cease to be a publicly traded company.

On February 8, 2013, SAM sent a letter to the Dell Board (the "February 8 Board Letter") expressing SAM's disappointment with the Dell Board's approval of the Proposed Going Private Transaction, which in SAM's view grossly undervalues Dell and excludes Dell's stockholders from being able to participate in Dell's future upside. The letter also expressed SAM's intent to vote against the Proposed Going Private Transaction as currently structured. Further, the letter stated that SAM intended to avail itself of all options at its disposal to oppose the Proposed Going Private Transaction, including but not limited to a proxy fight, litigation claims, and any available Delaware statutory appraisal rights. On the same date, SAM filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the February 8 Board Letter.

On February 11, 2013, SAM engaged D.F. King & Co., Inc. (“D.F. King”) to provide certain consulting and related services (the “D.F. King Engagement Letter”). On February 12, 2013, SAM filed Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the D.F. King Engagement Letter.

From mid-February to mid-April 2013, SAM had discussions with a private equity firm regarding alternatives to the Proposed Going Private Transaction. The private equity firm ultimately decided not to proceed with an alternative.

On March 5, 2013, Longleaf Partners Fund (“Longleaf”), which is SAM’s largest client, made a demand to Dell that Dell furnish Longleaf with a list of stockholders and certain related records of Dell pursuant to Section 220 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “Demand Letter”).

Also on March 5, 2013, SAM sent a letter to the Dell Board (the “March 5 Board Letter”) reiterating its opposition to the Proposed Going Private Transaction. On the same date, SAM filed Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the Demand Letter and the March 5 Board Letter.

Also on March 5, 2013, Icahn sent a letter to the Dell Board stating that Icahn believed the Proposed Going Private Transaction substantially undervalues the company and proposed an alternative leveraged recapitalization transaction.

On March 10, 2013, in connection with an alternative leveraged recapitalization transaction, Icahn entered into a confidentiality agreement with Dell to review certain Dell materials.

On March 14, 2013, Longleaf entered into a confidentiality agreement (the “Confidentiality Agreement”) with Dell in order to receive Dell’s list of stockholders. On March 15, 2013, SAM filed Amendment No. 3 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the Confidentiality Agreement.

On March 22, 2013, Icahn delivered a letter to the Dell Board that included an Acquisition Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement).

On April 9, 2013, SAM sent a letter to the Dell Special Committee (the “April 9 Special Committee Letter”) in which SAM discussed its view that Dell’s preliminary proxy statement failed to provide a compelling case for Dell’s stockholders to approve the Proposed Going Private Transaction and that the Special Committee conducted a process that resulted in an inadequate outcome. On the same date, SAM issued a press release containing the April 9 Special Committee Letter and filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC that contained the April 9 Special Committee Letter.

On April 12, 2013, SAM sent a letter to its clients (the “April 12 Client Letter”) in which SAM updated its clients on the progress of SAM’s discussions with Dell and discussed SAM’s opposition to the Proposed Going Private Transaction. On the same date, SAM filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC disclosing the April 12 Client Letter.

On April 16, 2013, Icahn issued a press release stating that it had entered into an agreement with Dell that would facilitate discussions among Dell stockholders. On the same date, Icahn filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC that included the press release.

On May 9, 2013, SAM and Icahn jointly sent a letter to the Dell Board (the “May 9 Board Letter”) disclosing that SAM and Icahn had formed a group in order to promote certain proposals related to Dell. SAM and Icahn proposed in the May 9 Board Letter that Dell undertake a transaction in which Dell stockholders would maintain their equity position in Dell and would also be given the opportunity to elect to receive a distribution of $12.00 per share in either cash or Dell Common Stock.

On May 10, 2013, SAM filed Amendment No. 4 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the May 9 Board Letter. On the same date, Icahn filed a Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the May 9 Board Letter and disclosing the beneficial ownership by Icahn of approximately 4.52% of Dell’s Common Stock. Also on May 10, 2013, SAM and Icahn each filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC disclosing the May 9 Board Letter.

Also on May 10, 2013, the Dell Special Committee issued a press release stating that it was reviewing the alternative proposal described in the May 9 Board Letter.

On May 13, 2013, Longleaf (which is SAM's largest client) hand delivered to Dell a letter pursuant to Dell's bylaws (the "SAM Nomination Letter") in which Longleaf stated its intent to nominate six individuals (the "SAM Nominees") for election to the Dell Board at the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders or at any other meeting of stockholders at which directors may be elected (the "2013 Annual Meeting"). Also on May 13, 2013, Icahn hand delivered to Dell a letter pursuant to Dell's bylaws (the "Icahn Nomination Letter") in which Icahn nominated six individuals (the "Icahn Nominees") for election to the Dell Board at the 2013 Annual Meeting. The SAM Nomination Letter and the Icahn Nomination Letter indicated that SAM and Icahn intend to solicit proxies for the SAM Nominees and the Icahn Nominees as a single slate, and intend to jointly prepare, file and mail a proxy statement in connection with such solicitation.

Also on May 13, 2013, SAM filed Amendment No. 5 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the SAM Nomination Letter. SAM also filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC disclosing the SAM Nomination Letter. On the same date, Icahn filed Amendment No. 1 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the Icahn Nomination Letter. Icahn also filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC disclosing the Icahn Nomination Letter.

Also on May 13, 2013, the Dell Special Committee sent a response letter to the May 9 Board Letter to each of SAM and Icahn requesting certain clarifications and additional materials regarding the alternative transaction proposed by SAM and Icahn.

On May 14, 2013, SAM filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC containing the biographies of the SAM Nominees. On the same date, Icahn filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC containing the biographies of the Icahn Nominees.

Also on May 14, 2013, SAM filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC disclosing Longleaf's quarterly report for the quarter ended March 31, 2013.

On May 15, 2013, Longleaf exercised 25,000,000 December 2015 call options with certain counterparties. The exercise of the options provided SAM with rights to exercise voting authority over the underlying securities. On May 16, 2013, SAM filed Amendment No. 6 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the exercise of the options. The exercise of the options did not alter SAM's beneficial ownership of the underlying securities, since SAM had previously reported beneficial ownership of such securities in its initial Schedule 13D.

On May 17, 2013, SAM filed a Form 3 disclosing that it had become a member of a 10% ownership group with Icahn. On May 20, 2013, Icahn filed a Form 3 disclosing that they had become a member of a 10% ownership group with SAM.

On May 20, 2013, the Dell Special Committee sent a letter to SAM and Icahn stating that the Special Committee was not permitted to provide SAM and Icahn with the requests for information made by SAM and Icahn unless the alternative transaction proposed by SAM and Icahn could reasonably be expected to result in a "Superior Proposal" as defined in the Merger Agreement. The Special Committee indicated that, until it received the information requested in its May 13, 2013 letter, it was not in a position to evaluate whether or not the alternative transaction proposed by SAM and Icahn conforms to the definition of "Superior Proposal" that the Dell Special Committee agreed to with Michael Dell and Silver Lake under the Merger Agreement.

On May 22, 2013, SAM posted to its website SAM's observations (the "Earnings Observations") regarding Dell's first quarter earnings results, as reported on an accelerated basis following a series of leaks to the marketplace. In the Earnings Observations, SAM analyzed the results to demonstrate why its reaction differed significantly from most public commentary. On the same date, SAM filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC that included the Earnings Observations.

On June 18, 2013, Icahn proposed, in an open letter to Dell stockholders, that Dell engage in a tender offer to repurchase Dell Common Stock. In order to implement this tender offer proposal, Icahn stated that it would seek to defeat the Proposed Going Private Transaction and, once it was defeated, would seek, together with SAM, to elect the Icahn Nominees and the SAM Nominees to the Dell Board at the 2013 Annual Meeting. Icahn also disclosed that certain of the Icahn Beneficial Owners (as defined in Annex B) had purchased approximately 72 million shares of Dell Common Stock from SAM. On the same date, Icahn filed Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC and a Schedule 14A with the SEC disclosing the letter and the purchase of shares of Dell Common Stock from SAM. Also on June 18, 2013, SAM issued a statement disclosing the sale of shares of Dell Common Stock to Icahn and reaffirming SAM's intention to vote against the Proposed Going Private Transaction. On the same date, SAM filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC that included this statement. Also on that date, the Dell Special Committee issued a statement that it was reviewing Icahn's tender offer proposal but that the Special Committee could not endorse such proposal in its present state.

The tender offer transaction proposed by Icahn on June 18, 2013 is subject to a number of contingencies. First, any such tender offer transaction would require that Dell stockholders defeat the Proposed Going Private Transaction at the Special Meeting. Second, Dell stockholders would need to elect a Board that is willing to pursue the tender offer transaction. As discussed above, Icahn and Longleaf have notified Dell that they intend to nominate the Icahn Nominees and the SAM Nominees, respectively, for election to the Dell Board at the 2013 Annual Meeting. Finally, the Dell Board would then need to approve the tender offer transaction after reviewing it consistent with the fiduciary duties of the directors as well as cause Dell to have the financing for the tender offer. While we believe that the Icahn Nominees and the SAM Nominees (or a majority thereof), if elected, will approve the tender offer, there can be no assurance that a tender offer transaction will occur, even if Dell stockholders defeat the Proposed Going Private Transaction at the Special Meeting and even if some or all of the Icahn Nominees and the SAM Nominees are subsequently elected to the Dell Board.

On June 19, 2013, SAM filed Amendment No. 7 to the Schedule 13D with the SEC disclosing the sale of shares of Dell Common Stock to Icahn. Also on that date, SAM sent a letter to its clients disclosing the sale of shares of Dell Common Stock to Icahn and reaffirming SAM's intention to vote against the Proposed Going Private Transaction. On the same date, SAM filed a Schedule 14A with the SEC that included SAM's letter to its clients.

THE DELL SPECIAL MEETING PROPOSALS

For a detailed discussion of the Dell Special Meeting Proposals, including various arguments in favor of such proposals, please refer to the Dell Proxy Statement.

According to the Dell Proxy Statement, the Dell Board will make the following proposals at the Special Meeting:

Proposal 1 – Proposal to Adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger

To consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 5, 2013, as it may be amended from time to time, (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Denali Holding Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Parent”), Denali Intermediate Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (“Intermediate”), Denali Acquiror Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Intermediate (“Merger Sub” and, taken together with Intermediate and Parent, the “Parent Parties”), and Dell (the “Merger Agreement Proposal”).

Recommendation

SAM/Icahn believe that Dell stockholders should be able to remain holders of shares of Dell Common Stock, and oppose the cash out merger at $13.65 per share agreed to in the Merger Agreement. SAM/Icahn have repeatedly indicated their opposition to the Proposed Going Private Transaction in their letters to the Dell Board and the Dell Special Committee. These letters, which were filed with the SEC, included SAM/Icahn’s analysis supporting their belief that the proposed $13.65 per share does not properly reflect the value of the company. Accordingly, SAM/Icahn recommend that you vote “AGAINST” Proposal 1 (Proposal to Adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger).

Proposal 2 – Proposal to Approve Executive Compensation

To approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may become payable to the named executive officers of Dell in connection with the merger, as disclosed in the Dell Proxy Statement in the table under “Special Factors—Interests of the Company’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Quantification of Payments and Benefits – Potential Change of Control Payments to Named Executive Officers Table”, including the associated footnotes and narrative discussion (the “Golden Parachute Proposal”).

Recommendation

SAM/Icahn believe that change of control provisions are designed to protect officers in the event they lose their jobs upon a change of control of a company. SAM/Icahn believe that the compensation payable under the Golden Parachute Proposal rewards the very people that are taking Dell private. As a result, SAM/Icahn do not believe that the officers of Dell engaged in the Proposed Going Private Transaction should benefit from their change of control provisions. Therefore, SAM/Icahn recommend that you vote “AGAINST” Proposal 2 (Proposal to Approve Executive Compensation).

Proposal 3 – Proposal to Approve Adjournment of Special Meeting

To approve the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement (the “Adjournment Proposal”).

Recommendation

SAM/Icahn recommend that you vote “AGAINST” Proposal 3 (Proposal to Approve Adjournment of Special Meeting).

Proposal 4 – Proposal to Grant Authority to Act Upon Other Business

To act upon other business as may properly come before the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof by or at the direction of the Board of Directors of Dell (the “Other Business Proposal”).

Recommendation

SAM/Icahn recommend that you vote “AGAINST” Proposal 4 (Proposal to Grant Authority to Act Upon Other Business).

SAM/ICAHN URGE YOU TO VOTE THE GOLD PROXY CARD (1) “AGAINST” THE MERGER AGREEMENT PROPOSAL, (2) “AGAINST” THE GOLDEN PARACHUTE PROPOSAL, (3) “AGAINST” THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL AND (4) “AGAINST” THE OTHER BUSINESS PROPOSAL.

CERTAIN INFORMATION REGARDING THE PROPOSED MERGER

At the Special Meeting, Dell stockholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be voting on, among other things, whether to adopt the Merger Agreement. According to the Dell Proxy Statement, in the Proposed Merger, each issued and outstanding share of Common Stock (other than certain excluded shares and dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

The foregoing description is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, as well as any amendment thereto, a copy of which is included as Annex A to the Dell Proxy Statement. The Proposed Merger and each of the Dell Special Meeting Proposals are described in further detail in the Dell Proxy Statement, which is available at <http://www.sec.gov>.

VOTING PROCEDURES

To vote “AGAINST” each of the Dell Special Meeting Proposals, please sign and date the enclosed GOLD proxy card and return it to Southeastern Asset Management, Inc., c/o First Coast Results, Inc., PO Box 3672, Ponte Vedra Beach,

FL 32004-9911, in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Submitting a proxy will not affect your right to attend the Special Meeting and vote in person.

Q. When and where is the Special Meeting?

A. The Special Meeting will be held on July 18, 2013, at 8:00 a.m., Central Time, at the Dell Round Rock Campus, 501 Dell Way, Round Rock, Texas 78682.

Q. What am I being asked to vote on at the Special Meeting?

A. You are being asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

1. to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which we refer to as the “Merger Agreement Proposal”;

2. to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may become payable to the named executive officers of Dell in connection with the merger, as disclosed in the Dell Proxy Statement in the table under “Special Factors—Interests of the Company’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger – Quantification of Payments and Benefits – Potential Change of Control Payments to Named Executive Officers Table”, including the associated footnotes and narrative discussion, which we refer to as the “Golden Parachute Proposal”;

3. to approve the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement, which we refer to as the “Adjournment Proposal”; and

4. to act upon other business as may properly come before the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof by or at the direction of the Board of Directors of Dell.

Q. What vote is required for Dell's stockholders to approve the Merger Agreement Proposal?

- Under Delaware law and as a condition to the consummation of the merger, stockholders holding at least a majority of the shares of Dell Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the close of business on the Record Date must vote "for" the proposal to adopt the Merger agreement. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires, as a condition to the consummation of the merger, that stockholders holding at least a majority of the shares of Dell Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the close of business on the Record Date, other than the Parent Parties, Mr. Dell and certain entities related to Mr. Dell, any other officers and directors of Dell and any other person having an equity interest in, or any right to acquire any equity interest in, Merger Sub or any person of which Merger Sub is a direct or indirect subsidiary, must vote "for" the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement. A failure to vote your shares of Dell Common Stock or an abstention from voting or broker non-vote will have the same effect as a vote "against" the Merger Agreement Proposal.

Q. What vote is required for Dell's stockholders to approve on an advisory (non-binding) basis the Golden Parachute Proposal?

- Approval on an advisory (non-binding) basis of the Golden Parachute Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of Dell Common Stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon at the Special Meeting. The Parent Parties, Mr. Dell and certain entities related to Mr. Dell, and the other officers and directors of Dell have retained their right to vote on the Golden Parachute Proposal.

Q. What vote is required for Dell's stockholders to approve the Adjournment Proposal?

- Approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of Dell Common Stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote thereon at the Special Meeting. The Parent Parties, Mr. Dell and certain entities related to Mr. Dell, and the other officers and directors of Dell have retained their right to vote on the Adjournment Proposal.

Q. Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

- Stockholders of record as of the close of business on June 3, 2013, the Record Date for the Special Meeting, are entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Special Meeting. Each record holder of shares of Dell Common Stock as of the Record Date is entitled to cast one vote on each matter properly brought before the Special Meeting for each share of Dell Common Stock that such holder owns as of the Record Date. According to the Dell Proxy Statement, as of May 22, 2013, there were 1,755,951,717 shares of Dell Common Stock outstanding.

Q.

What is a quorum?

A. The presence at the Special Meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares of Dell Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote on the Record Date will constitute a quorum, permitting Dell to conduct its business at the Special Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, are counted as present for the purpose of establishing a quorum.

by telephone—Use any touch-tone telephone and call 1-800-218-2910 up until 11:59 P.M. Eastern Time the day prior to the Special Meeting date. Please have your proxy card in hand when you call the toll-free number and follow the instructions listed; or

•by mail—Mark, sign, date, and return the enclosed GOLD proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope.

If you are a beneficial owner of Dell Common Stock as of the Record Date, please refer to the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to see which of the above choices are available to you. Your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee may provide for Internet and telephone voting. Please consult with your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to determine if these options are available. Please note that if you are a beneficial owner and wish to vote in person at the Special Meeting, you must have a legal proxy from your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. The control number located on your proxy card is designed to verify your identity and allow you to vote your shares of Dell Common Stock, and to confirm that your voting instructions have been properly recorded when submitting a proxy over the Internet or by telephone.

Q. What is the difference between being a “stockholder of record” and a “beneficial owner”?

If your shares of Dell Common Stock are registered directly in your name with Dell’s transfer agent, you are considered, with respect to those shares of Dell Common Stock, the “stockholder of record.” In that case, this Proxy Statement, and your proxy card, have been sent directly to you by SAM/Icahn.

If your shares of Dell Common Stock are held through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you are considered the “beneficial owner” of shares of Dell Common Stock held in “street name.” In that case, this Proxy Statement has been forwarded to you by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee which may be, with respect to those shares of Dell Common Stock, the stockholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as to how to vote your shares of Dell Common Stock by following their instructions for voting.

Q. If my shares of Dell Common Stock are held in street name by my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, will my bank, brokerage firm or other nominee vote my shares of Dell Common Stock for me?

A. Your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will only be permitted to vote your shares of Dell Common Stock if you instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as to how to vote. You should follow the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee regarding the voting of your shares of Dell Common Stock. If you do not instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as to how to vote your shares of Dell

Common Stock, your shares of Dell Common Stock will not be voted and it will have the same effect as a vote cast against the Merger Agreement Proposal and will not have any effect on the Golden Parachute Proposal or the Adjournment Proposal.

Q. What is a proxy?

A. A proxy is your legal designation of another person to vote your shares of Dell Common Stock. This written document describing the matters to be considered and voted on at the Special Meeting is called a Proxy Statement. The document used to designate a proxy to vote your shares of stock is called a proxy card.

Q. If a stockholder gives a proxy, how are the shares of Dell Common Stock voted?

A. Regardless of the method you choose to submit a proxy, the individuals named on the enclosed GOLD proxy card will vote your shares of Dell Common Stock in the way that you indicate. When completing the enclosed GOLD proxy card, you may specify whether your shares of Dell Common Stock should be voted “FOR” or “AGAINST,” or to “ABSTAIN” from voting on, all, some or none of the specific items of business to come before the Special Meeting.

If you properly sign the enclosed GOLD proxy card but do not mark the boxes indicating how your shares should be voted on a matter, the shares represented by your properly signed proxy will be voted “AGAINST” the Merger Agreement Proposal, “AGAINST” the Golden Parachute Proposal, and “AGAINST” the Adjournment Proposal.

Q. What should I do if I receive a proxy card from Dell?

If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card, do not sign or return any proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by Dell unless you intend to change your vote, because only A. your latest-dated proxy will be counted. If you have already sent a proxy card to Dell and voted in favor of the Dell Special Meeting Proposals, you may revoke it and vote against the Dell Special Meeting Proposals simply by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card.

Q. Can I change or revoke my vote?

A. Yes. You have the right to revoke a proxy at any time before it is exercised by

(1) submitting another proxy at a later date through any of the methods available to you, including by signing, dating and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card, or

(2) delivering a written revocation to (a) Southeastern Asset Management, Inc., c/o First Coast Results, Inc., PO Box 3672, Ponte Vedra Beach, FL 32004-9911, or (b) the Corporate Secretary of Dell, which must be filed with the Corporate Secretary of Dell by the time the Special Meeting begins, or

(3) attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

If your shares of Dell Common Stock are held in street name by your bank, broker or other nominee, please refer to the information forwarded by your bank, broker or other nominee for procedures on changing or revoking your proxy.

Q. What happens if I do not vote or submit a proxy card, or do not instruct my bank, broker or other nominee as to how to vote, or abstain from voting?

A. If you fail to vote, either in person or by proxy, or fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee as to how to vote, it will have the same effect as a vote cast against the Merger Agreement Proposal.

If you fail to vote, either in person or by proxy, or fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee as to how to vote, it will not have any effect on the Golden Parachute Proposal or the Adjournment Proposal.

If you abstain from voting it will have the same effect as a vote cast against all the proposals.

Q. What do I do if I receive more than one proxy or set of voting instructions?

A. If you hold shares of Dell Common Stock in street name, or through more than one bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, and also directly as a record holder or otherwise, you may receive more than one proxy or set of voting instructions relating to the Special Meeting. These should each be executed and returned separately in accordance with the instructions provided in this Proxy Statement in order to ensure that all of your shares of Dell Common Stock are voted.

Q. What happens if I sell my shares of Dell's Common Stock before the Special Meeting?

A. The Record Date for stockholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting is prior to both the date of the Special Meeting and the consummation of the Proposed Merger. If you transferred your shares of Dell

Common Stock before the Record Date, you will not be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting and will not be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration. If you transfer your shares of Dell Common Stock after the Record Date but before the Special Meeting, you will, unless special arrangements are made, retain your right to vote at the Special Meeting but will transfer the right to receive the Merger Consideration to the person to whom you transfer your shares. Unless special arrangements are made, the person to whom you transfer your shares of Dell Common Stock after the Record Date will not have a right to vote those shares at the Special Meeting.

Q. Who will solicit and pay the cost of soliciting proxies?

SAM/Icahn have engaged D.F. King to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the Special Meeting. SAM/Icahn have agreed to pay D.F. King a fee not to exceed $2,500,000. SAM/Icahn have also agreed to reimburse D.F. King for all documented expenses and to indemnify D.F. King against certain losses, claims, damages, liabilities and out-of-pocket expenses. For more information regarding SAM/Icahn's arrangement with D.F. King, please see "Solicitation of Proxies." SAM/Icahn also will reimburse banks, brokers and other custodians, nominees and A. fiduciaries representing beneficial owners of shares of Dell Common Stock for their expenses in forwarding soliciting materials to beneficial owners of Dell Common Stock and in obtaining voting instructions from those owners. The officers and employees of SAM/Icahn may also solicit proxies by telephone, by facsimile, by mail, over the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. The entire expense of soliciting proxies for the Special Meeting by or on behalf of SAM/Icahn is being borne by SAM/Icahn. SAM/Icahn will not seek reimbursement of the cost of the solicitation from Dell.

Q. What do I need to do now?

Even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting, after carefully reading and considering the information contained in this Proxy Statement, please submit your GOLD proxy card promptly to ensure that your shares are represented at the Special Meeting. If you hold your shares of Dell Common Stock in your own name as the stockholder of record, A. please submit your proxy for your shares of Dell Common Stock by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed GOLD proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope. If you decide to attend the Special Meeting and vote in person, your vote by ballot at the Special Meeting will revoke any proxy previously submitted. If you are a beneficial owner of shares of Dell Common Stock, please refer to the instructions provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to see which of the above choices are available to you.

SAM/ICAHN URGE YOU TO VOTE THE GOLD PROXY CARD (1) "AGAINST" THE MERGER AGREEMENT PROPOSAL, (2) "AGAINST" THE GOLDEN PARACHUTE PROPOSAL, (3) "AGAINST" THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL AND (4) "AGAINST" THE OTHER BUSINESS PROPOSAL.

Q. Am I entitled to exercise appraisal rights under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") instead of receiving the Merger Consideration for my shares of Common Stock?

Yes. Stockholders who do not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement Proposal are entitled to statutory appraisal rights under Delaware law in connection with the Proposed Merger. This means that if you comply with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL, you are entitled to have the “fair value” (as defined pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL) of your shares of Common Stock determined by the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware and to receive payment based on that valuation instead of receiving the Merger Consideration. To exercise your appraisal rights, you must comply with the requirements of the DGCL. Please see “Appraisal Rights.”

Q. Who can help answer my other questions?

If you have additional questions about the Proposed Merger, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares of Dell Common Stock, or need additional copies of the Proxy Statement or the enclosed GOLD proxy card, please contact:

King will solicit proxies for the Special Meeting from individuals, brokers, banks, bank nominees and other institutional holders. It is anticipated that approximately 150 people will be employed by D.F. King in connection with the solicitation of proxies for the Special Meeting.

SAM/Icahn may reimburse banks, brokers, custodians or other record holders for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with forwarding, at SAM/Icahn's request, all materials related to this solicitation of proxies to the beneficial owners of shares of Dell Common Stock they hold of record.

In addition to the costs related to the engagement of D.F. King, costs related to the SAM/Icahn solicitation of proxies include expenditures for printing, postage, legal services, public relations, and other related items. The entire expense of soliciting proxies for the Special Meeting by or on behalf of SAM/Icahn is being borne by SAM/Icahn. SAM/Icahn will not seek reimbursement of the cost of the solicitation from Dell.

PROXY SOLICITATION CONCERNING ELECTION OF DIRECTORS AND NEXT STEPS

On May 13, 2013, Longleaf hand delivered to Dell a letter pursuant to Dell’s bylaws (the “SAM Nomination Letter”) in which Longleaf stated its intent to nominate six individuals (the “SAM Nominees”) for election to the Dell Board at the 2013 Annual Meeting. Also on May 13, 2013, Icahn hand delivered to Dell a letter pursuant to Dell’s bylaws (the “Icahn Nomination Letter”) in which Icahn nominated six individuals (the “Icahn Nominees”) for election to the Dell Board at the 2013 Annual Meeting. The SAM Nomination Letter and the Icahn Nomination Letter indicated that SAM and Icahn intend to solicit proxies for the SAM Nominees and the Icahn Nominees as a single slate, and intend to jointly prepare, file and mail a proxy statement in connection with such solicitation.

SAM and Icahn intend to file a preliminary proxy statement with the SEC for use in connection with the solicitation of proxies from stockholders of Dell entitled to vote for the election of the SAM Nominees and the Icahn Nominees to the Dell Board at the 2013 Annual Meeting. Details regarding such proxy solicitation, if and when commenced, will be set forth in a definitive proxy statement filed with the SEC in compliance with the requirements of Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act.

THIS PROXY STATEMENT DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A SOLICITATION OF PROXIES WITH RESPECT TO ELECTING DIRECTORS AT THE 2013 ANNUAL MEETING. A PROXY SOLICITATION CONCERNING THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS AT THE 2013 ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE MADE ONLY PURSUANT TO SEPARATE PROXY SOLICITATION MATERIALS COMPLYING WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 14(A) OF THE EXCHANGE ACT.

FUTURE STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

According to the Dell Proxy Statement, if the Proposed Merger is completed, Dell may not hold the 2013 Annual Meeting. However, if the Proposed Merger is not completed, Dell will hold the 2013 Annual Meeting.

The following description of the requirements for submitting stockholder proposals for the 2013 Annual Meeting has been taken from the Dell Proxy Statement:

If the 2013 annual meeting is held, stockholder proposals will be eligible for consideration for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for our 2013 annual meeting of stockholders in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act and our Bylaws, as described below.

Any proposal that a stockholder wishes to include in proxy materials for our 2013 annual meeting of stockholders pursuant to SEC Rule 14a-8 must have been received no later than the close of business on January 30, 2013 (unless the meeting date is changed by more than 30 days from the anniversary of the 2012 annual meeting, in which case a proposal must be received a reasonable time before we print proxy materials) and must be submitted in compliance with the rule. Proposals should be directed to Corporate Secretary, Dell Inc., One Dell Way, Mail Stop RRI-33, Round Rock, Texas 78682, and should comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8.

Any proposal or nomination for director that a stockholder wishes to propose for consideration at the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders, but does not seek to include in our proxy statement under applicable SEC rules, must be submitted in accordance with Section 12 of Article III of our bylaws, and must be received at our principal executive offices no later than 60 days in advance of the 2013 annual meeting assuming that the date of the 2013 meeting is announced at least 70 days in advance. Any such proposal must be an appropriate subject for stockholder action under applicable law and must otherwise comply with Section 12 of Article III of our bylaws.

If our Corporate Secretary receives at the address listed above any stockholder proposal intended to be presented at the 2013 annual meeting without inclusion in the proxy statement for the meeting after the deadline specified in the Company's bylaws (or if such proposal is received less than a reasonable time before we print proxy materials, if the date of the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders is changed by more than 30 days from the anniversary of the 2012 annual meeting), SEC Rule 14a-4 (c) provides that the proxies designated by the Board will have discretionary authority to vote on such proposal. The proxies designated by the Board also will have such discretionary authority, notwithstanding the stockholder's compliance with the deadlines described above, if we advise stockholders in the proxy statement for the meeting about the nature of the matter and how management intends to vote on such matter, and the stockholder does not comply with specified provisions of the SEC's rules.

Mason Hawkins in respect of the Schedule 13D filings in respect of Dell described herein under “Background of this Solicitation”, (iii) its relationship with Icahn (as further described and defined below), (iv) as described above in this Annex A, and (v) the investment relationships described below, SAM is not, or was not within the past year, a party to any contract, arrangements or understandings with any person with respect to any securities of Dell, including, but not limited to joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees against loss or guarantees of profit, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies.

SAM has agreed to act in concert with Icahn solely for the purposes of promoting the transactions and proposals contained in the Stock Purchase Agreement and the May 9 Board Letter, including urging stockholders to vote against the Proposed Going Private Transaction, and the joint solicitation of proxies for the 2013 Annual Meeting and the Special Meeting. Based on the foregoing, SAM and Icahn have formed a “group” within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act and may be deemed to beneficially own 223,792,378 shares of Dell Common Stock, constituting

However, SAM expressly disclaims beneficial ownership of the 152,478,650 shares of Dell Common Stock beneficially owned by the Icahn Beneficial Owners. SAM, in accordance with its fiduciary duties, also expressly retains the sole voting and investment power of the shares of Dell Common Stock it beneficially owns.

In connection with voting, SAM may be allowed or directed to vote the proxies received by accounts classified as “discretionary” or “shared” accounts; such authority is generally retained by the clients for accounts classified as “non-discretionary”.
