INFORMATION CIRCULAR

AS AT AND DATED THE 22nd DAY OF JULY, 2005

(unless otherwise noted herein)

This Information Circular accompanies the Notice of the Special Meeting of Holders of Common Shares of Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (hereinafter called the "Company") with respect to the Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on August 24, 2005, and is furnished in connection with a solicitation of proxies for use at the Meeting and at any adjournment thereof. The Special Meeting is sometimes hereinafter referred to as the Meeting .

PERSONS OR COMPANIES

MAKING THE SOLICITATION

THE ENCLOSED PROXY IS BEING SOLICITED BY

MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

Solicitations will be made by mail and possibly supplemented by telephone or other personal contact to be made without special compensation by regular officers and employees of the Company. The Company may reimburse shareholders nominees or agents (including brokers holding shares on behalf of clients) for the cost incurred in obtaining from their principals authorization to execute forms of proxy. No solicitation will be made by specifically engaged employees or soliciting agents. The cost of solicitation will be borne by the Company.

COMPLETION, DEPOSIT AND VOTING OF PROXIES

Those shareholders so desiring may be represented by proxy at the Meeting. The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy are directors or officers of the Company. A shareholder has the right to appoint a person (who need not be a shareholder) to attend and act on his behalf at the Meeting other than the persons named as proxy holders in the form of proxy accompanying this Information Circular. To exercise this right, the shareholder must either insert the name of the desired person in the blank space provided in the proxy and strike out the other names or submit another proxy.

The instrument of proxy must be signed and, together with the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof, deposited either at the office of the Registrar and Transfer Agent of the Company, CIBC Mellon Trust Company, Proxy Dept, 200 Queen's Quay East, Unit 6, Toronto, Ontario, M5A 4K9, (fax 416-368-2502) or at the Head Office of the Company at the address set out above, not less than 1 hour prior to the time of the holding of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, or be deposited with the Chairman of the Meeting prior to the commencement of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Unregistered shareholders who received the proxy through an intermediary must deliver the proxy in accordance with the instructions given by the intermediary.

THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXY SOLICITED HEREBY WILL BE VOTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON ANY BALLOT THAT MAY BE CALLED FOR AND IF A CHOICE IS SPECIFIED WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER TO BE ACTED UPON, THE SHARES SHALL BE VOTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN. WHERE NO CHOICE IS OR WHERE BOTH CHOICES ARE SPECIFIED IN RESPECT OF ANY MATTER TO BE ACTED UPON AND A MANAGEMENT NOMINEE IS NAMED IN THE FORM OF PROXY TO ACT AS THE SHAREHOLDER'S PROXY, THE SHARES REPRESENTED BY THE PROXY HEREBY SOLICITED SHALL BE VOTED IN FAVOUR OF ALL SUCH MATTERS. THE FORM OF PROXY GIVES THE PERSON NAMED AS PROXYHOLDER DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY REGARDING AMENDMENTS OR VARIATIONS TO MATTERS IDENTIFIED IN THE NOTICE OF MEETING AND OTHER MATTERS THAT MAY PROPERLY COME BEFORE THE MEETING.

NON-REGISTERED SHAREHOLDERS

Pursuant to the requirements of the Canadian Securities Administrators, under National Instrument 54-101, the Company has distributed copies of the Notice of Meeting, this Management Information Circular and the Form of Proxy to the clearing agencies and intermediaries for distribution to non-registered shareholders of the Company who have not waived their right to receive such materials. Non-registered shareholders may be forwarded a proxy already signed by the intermediary or a voting instruction form to allow them to direct the voting of the common shares they beneficially own. A voting instruction form (which is not a proxy) is normally mailed to non-registered shareholders by their broker.

Should a non-registered shareholder who receives a Form of Proxy wish to attend, and vote at the Meeting in person (or have another person attend and vote on his/her behalf), the non-registered shareholder should strike out the names of the persons named in the proxy and insert his/her own, or another person's name in the blank space provided.

Shareholders should note that if they received a voting instruction form from a broker or an intermediary, it is not a valid Form of Proxy and cannot substitute for a Form of Proxy at the Meeting. The Scrutineer of the Meeting cannot count the votes of a non-registered shareholder wishing to vote in person or by proxy at the Meeting unless such shareholder holds a valid Form of Proxy from the Intermediary. Such shareholders need to contact their broker or intermediary and arrange deliver to them of a valid Form of Proxy.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXY

In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a proxy may be revoked by instrument in writing executed by the shareholder or his attorney authorized in writing, or if the shareholder is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney thereof, and deposited either at the registered office of the Company at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, or, as to any matter in respect of which a vote shall not already have been cast pursuant to such proxy, with the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, and upon either of such deposits the proxy is revoked.

VOTING SHARES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Common Shares without par value and an unlimited number of Preference Shares without par value. As at July 21, 2005, there are 20,948,491 Common Shares and no Preference Shares issued and outstanding. At a general meeting of the Company, on a show of hands, every shareholder present in person and entitled to vote and every proxy holder duly appointed by a holder of a share who would have been entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote and, on a poll, every shareholder present in person or represented by proxy or other proper authority and entitled to vote shall have one (1) vote for each Common Share of which such shareholder is the registered holder. The chairman of the Meeting has the right not to conduct a vote by way of ballot on a matter unless a poll is demanded by a shareholder or proxy holder present at the Meeting or required because the number of shares represented by proxies that are to be voted against a matter is greater than 5% of the votes that could be cast at the Meeting in respect of that matter.

A quorum for the Special Meeting is two shareholders present in person or represented by proxy holding not less than 33 1/3% of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company.

To the knowledge of the directors and senior officers of the Company, no person or company beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, or exercises control or direction over, voting securities carrying more than 10% of the outstanding voting rights attached to any one class of voting securities of the Company, other than:

| FremantleMedia ⁽²⁾ | Direct | 2,930,792 | 13.9% |

CPC Communications Inc. is an Ontario company that is controlled by the family of Gary Howsam, a director and officer of the Company.

These shares were issued in relation to the conversion rights instrument under the debt restructuring agreement with FremantleMedia.

The directors have determined that all shareholders of record as of 25th day of July, 2005 will be entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the SPECIAL MEETING.

PARTICULARS OF MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON AT THE MEETING

By press release dated July 15, 2005, the Company announced its intention to issue up to U.S.$2,000,000 in Preference Share Units on an arm's length private placement basis at a price of US $0.46 per Unit, each Unit consisting of one 10% Series I Preference Share (Series I Share) and one warrant to purchase one 10% Series II Preference Share (Series II Share) at a price of U.S. $0.50 per share for a period of 48 months from closing, which is scheduled to occur on July 29, 2005. The Series I Shares and Series II Shares are convertible into common shares, on a share-for-share basis, subject to customary adjustments for anti-dilution, and are non-voting.

As a condition of Closing of the transaction, the Company undertook to call this Special Meeting of shareholders in order to approve an amendment to the Company's Corrected Articles of Continuance dated September 1, 2004 (the 2004 Articles), in order to change the Series I Shares and Series II Shares from non-voting to voting, so that each Series I Share and Series II Share would have the right to vote at all meetings of the shareholders of the Company. Although the 2004 Articles provide for the creation of a series of voting preference shares, the 2004 Articles contain a contradictory provision stating that preference shares are to be non-voting, creating an ambiguity with respect to the classes and series of shares the Company is authorized to issue.

In order to remove the ambiguity in the 2004 Articles and provide voting rights to the holders of the Series I Shares and Series II Shares, the Special Resolution, attached as Appendix A, must be adopted. If adopted, articles of amendment (the 2005 Articles) will be filed with the Ministry of Consumer and Business Services (Ontario) that authorize the directors to approve the issuance of an unlimited number of voting and unlimited number of non-voting preference shares in one or more series, with such rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions as the directors may designate. In addition, the 2005 Articles provide for certain additional changes from the 2004 Articles including the deletion of certain of the contradictory or ambiguous rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the preference shares authorized under the 2004 Articles.

Under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) (OBCA), the amendment to the Company s articles requires that shareholders must pass a special resolution , which is a resolution passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the votes cast by those shareholders who, being entitled to do so, vote in person or by proxy at a meeting of the Company where not less than 21 days notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution has been given.

The 2004 Articles of the Company also require that the terms of the Preference Shares and may not be altered, amended or repealed without the approval of a shareholders resolution passed by the votes of the holders of at least 3/4 of the Preference Shares, then outstanding voting separately as a Class, at a meeting specially called for such purpose, in addition to the authorization required to be passed by Special Resolution. There are presently no Preference Shares outstanding. However, after the closing of the private placement there will be approximately 4,347,827 Series I Preference Shares issued on the closing of the private placement referred to above. Following completion of the private placement, the proposed placees of the Series I Preference Shares have agreed to consent in writing to the adoption of the Special Resolution prior to the Meeting and therefore no meeting of the Series I Preference Shareholders is required.

CPC Communications Inc. (CPC), owns and controls 6,833,333 Common Shares, representing 32.6% of the outstanding Common Shares, and has agreed to enter into a voting/power of attorney agreement with the proposed holders of the Series I Shares, that provides such holders with a voting proxy over 4,347,826 of its Common Shares, representing 20.8% of the outstanding common shares. The voting agreement will provide that holders of CPC s proxy may vote its shares at their discretion at any meeting of shareholders of the Company duly called, with an undertaking to vote all of the proxied shares in favour of the Special Resolution. The voting agreement will remain in effect until the 2005 Articles are approved and filed with the Ministry of Consumer and Business Services (Ontario). The family of Mr. Gary Howsam, owns and controls CPC. Neither CPC, Mr. Howsam nor his family will receive any remuneration or other benefit in consideration of entering into the voting agreement.

The Directors have determined that the adoption of the 2005 Articles is in the best interests of the Company and is required in order meet contractual obligations to the holders of Series I shares as part of the private placement, and the absence of ambiguity in the 2005 Articles will provide the Company with greater flexibility should it wish to raise additional equity. The directors approved the 2005 Articles on July 13, 2005, subject to shareholder and stock exchange approval.

The proposed amendment to the articles will be adopted when the shareholders have approved the Special Resolution, to be followed immediately by the filing of articles of amendment with the Director, Corporations Branch, Ministry of Consumer and Business Services (Ontario).

At the Special Meeting, shareholders will be asked to consider, and if deemed advisable, pass, with or without amendment, the Special Resolution as set out in Appendix A to this Circular, to authorize the amendment to the Company's articles. Unless otherwise instructed, the persons named in the accompanying proxy (provided the same is duly executed in their favour and is duly deposited) intend to vote FOR the Special Resolution.

RIGHT OF DISSENT

Registered Shareholders (as defined below) have the right to dissent to the Special Resolution pursuant to section 185 of the OBCA. This summary is expressly subject to section 185 of the OBCA, the text of which is reproduced in its entirety in Schedule 1 hereto. The Company is not required to notify, and will not notify, the Company's Shareholders of the time periods within which action must be taken in order for such shareholders to perfect their dissent rights. It is recommended that Shareholders wishing to avail themselves of their dissent rights seek legal advice, as failure to comply strictly with the provisions of section 185 of the OBCA may prejudice any such rights. A Registered Shareholder is a shareholder of the Company whose Common Shares are registered in his name on the shareholder register of the Company.

If a shareholder of the Company holds Common Shares through an investment dealer, broker or market intermediary, he or she will not be a Registered Shareholder and such Common Shares will be registered in the name of such investment dealer, broker or market intermediary. Any holder of Common Shares who wishes to invoke dissent rights should register their Common Shares in their own name or arrange for the Registered Shareholder to dissent.

Any shareholder of the Company who wishes to invoke their dissent rights is urged to consult with his legal or investment advisor to determine whether they are registered shareholders and to be advised of the strict provisions of section 185 of the OBCA. Any shareholder who wishes to register their Common Shares in their name is urged to consult with his or legal or investment advisor, or the registrar and transfer agent of the Company at the following address:

CIBC Mellon Trust Company

320 Bay Street, 8th Floor

Toronto, Ontario M5H 4A6

In the event that the Special Resolution is adopted and becomes effective, any Shareholder who dissents in respect of such special resolution in compliance with section 185 of the OBCA (a dissenting shareholder) will be entitled to be paid a sum representing the fair value of their Common Shares. No right of dissent or appraisal is available to holders of Common Shares with respect to any other matter to be considered at the Special Meeting.

A dissenting shareholder must send to the Company at or before the Special Meeting a written objection to the Special Resolution (a dissent notice). A vote against the Special Resolution does not constitute a dissent notice. The OBCA does not provide for partial dissent and, accordingly, a shareholder may only dissent with respect to all of the Common Shares held by such shareholder or on behalf of any one beneficial owner whose Common Shares are registered in his name.

Under the OBCA, the Company is required, within 10 days after its shareholders adopt the Special Resolution to send notice that the Special Resolution has been adopted, to each dissenting shareholder who has not withdrawn his objection or voted for such resolution. Such a dissenting shareholder is required, within 20 days of receiving such notice (or if such notice is not received, within 20 days of learning that Special Resolution has been adopted), to send to the Company a written notice in prescribed form demanding payment of fair value for his Common Shares (a Shareholder Demand).

Not later than the 30th day after sending a Shareholder Demand to the Company, a dissenting shareholder must send the certificates representing the Common Shares in respect of which he dissents to Company or its transfer agent, who is required to endorse thereon a notice that the shareholder is a dissenting shareholder and return the certificates to the dissenting shareholder.

Not later than seven days after the day on which the Special Resolution is adopted or the day the Company receives a Shareholder Demand, the Company (unless it fails to meet certain solvency criteria set out in the OBCA) must send to each dissenting shareholder who has sent a Shareholder Demand a written offer to pay for the dissenting shareholder's Common Shares in an amount considered by the board of directors of the Company to be the fair value of the Common Shares accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined.

If the Company fails to make such an offer or a dissenting shareholder does not accept such an offer, the Company may, within 50 days after the 2005 Articles approved by Special Resolution becomes effective or such further period as the Superior Court of Justice of Ontario (the Ontario Court) may allow, apply to the Ontario Court to fix a fair value for the Common Shares of any dissenting shareholder. If the Company fails to apply to the Ontario Court, a dissenting shareholder may do so for the same purpose within a further period of 20 days or such further period as the Ontario Court may allow.

Under the OBCA, upon the sending of a Shareholder Demand, a dissenting shareholder ceases to have any rights as a Shareholder, other than the right to be paid the fair value of their Common Shares in the amount agreed to between the Company and the dissenting shareholder or in the amount fixed by the Ontario Court, as the case may be. Until one of these events occurs, the dissenting shareholder may withdraw his dissent notice or the Company may rescind the Special Resolution and, in either event, the dissent and appraisal proceedings in respect of such dissenting shareholder will be discontinued.

Dissenting shareholders will not have any right other than those granted under the OBCA to have their Common Shares appraised or to receive the fair value thereof.

REDUCTION IN STATED CAPITAL

Section 34(1)(b)(ii) of the OBCA permits a corporation to reduce its stated capital in a share capital account for any purpose. The reduction in stated capital will be applied to reduce the deficit in the Company's financial statements. The Corporation has accumulated a large deficit over the past few years, and the Directors have determined that it is in the best interests of the Corporation to reduce its stated capital account for the common shares, which will, reduce the need to carry forward and account for the deficit in the Company's financial statements. This reduction in the stated capital account is being made in accordance with generally accepted accounting principals in the US and Canada.

Holders of common shares the Corporation will be asked to consider and approve at the Special Meeting the Special Resolution as set out in Appendix B to this Circular (requiring approval by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the votes cast by shareholders who vote, in person or by proxy, on the special resolution) to authorize the directors to reduce the Corporation's stated capital account for its common shares by up to $29,706,623, or such lesser amount as may be determined by the directors of the Company, which represents all or a portion of the accumulated deficit of the Corporation at September 1, 2004.

Unless otherwise instructed, the persons named in the accompanying proxy (provided the same is duly executed in their favour and is duly deposited) intend to vote FOR the Special Resolution.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's Compensation Committee (the Committee) has the responsibility for annually setting and approving the compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer and for annual reviewing and approving the compensation packages for executive officers of the Company. The Committee also reviews and approves changes to the Company's compensation policies in respect of matters such as the structure and granting of stock options.

The Committee is comprised of three unrelated directors, Dan Lyon, Juliet Jones and Nelson Thall.

Components of Total Compensation

The aggregate compensation of senior officers of the Company, including Named Executive Officers, consists of three components: base salary, car allowance and long-term incentives principally in the form of stock options. The Company aims to ensure that each executive officer's compensation is balanced among these three components.

(i)

Base Salary

Base salary levels for all executive officers (including the Chief Executive Officer) are based upon performance and are relative to comparable positions within the industry and markets in which the Company operates, and are intended to achieve the following objectives:

1. to attract and retain executives and senior management required for the success of the Company;

to motivate performance;

3.

to provide fair and competitive compensation commensurate with an individual's experience and expertise; and

to reward individual performance and contribution to the achievement of the Company's objectives.

(ii)

Car Allowance

(iii)

Long-term Incentive Awards

Long-term incentive awards may be granted annually with the target award set as a percentage of the executive's salary based on corporate performance and the employee's years of service with the Company. The Company does take into account the amount or terms of previously issued options when determining whether and how many stock options will be granted to executive officers in each year. The size of the grant is based on the Black-Scholes formula for valuing stock options and is approved by the Compensation Committee.

The base salary for the Chief Executive Officer is determined in the same manner as that of all other executives. The Chief Executive Officer does not participate in the Committee's or the Board's decisions or does he vote relating to his compensation. The long-term components of the Chief Executive Officer's incentive compensation were determined in accordance with his management contract which generally reflects the same principles applicable to other executives in the determination of incentive compensation awards.

PENSION PLAN

No pension plan or retirement benefit plans have been instituted by the Company and none are proposed at this time.
