The Board of Directors elected Mark D. Ettenger as Chairman of the Board in January 2013, a role in which he began serving as the Company's principal executive officer. When Mr. Ettenger was elected as Chairman and designated as the Company's principal executive officer, the Board determined to pay him a retainer of $50,000 per month in addition to any amounts that he may be entitled to receive for his service as a Director.

Following the end of fiscal 2012, on April 22, 2013, the Company and Mr. Ettenger executed an Engagement Agreement providing for Mr. Ettenger to serve as the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. The Engagement Agreement also entitled him to receive certain incentive fees and performance fees in connection with the sale or other monetization of the Company's real estate properties based on pre-established threshold amounts for each of the properties. The incentive fees and performance fees were also generally payable on entity-level (rather than property-level) transactions based on the net proceeds from the transaction relative to the aggregate threshold amounts for all remaining unsold properties. For the fiscal year ended March 1, 2014, the Company paid Mr. Ettenger $41,945 as a performance bonus in connection with the sale by the Company of the Southfield, Michigan property. Mr. Ettenger received no benefits from the Company, but the Engagement Agreement provided for the Company to reimburse him for the actual cost of his health insurance and for up to $15,000 in legal fees associated with the negotiation of the Engagement Agreement.

On August 30, 2013, the Company and Mr. Ettenger mutually agreed to end his service as Chairman of the Board and principal executive officer, and he relinquished all of his officer titles and duties. The Company paid Mr. Ettenger $1,000,000 in full satisfaction of any amounts that may be due or that may have become due to him, which included $725,168 in performance fees related to the sales of certain properties and $274,832 as a severance payment. The holder of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock approved an increase in the Company's overhead reserve to make this payment.
