Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 26, 2015, RBC Bearings Incorporated (the “Company”) and its wholly owned subsidiary Roller Bearing Company of America, Inc. (“Roller Bearing”) entered into an Equity Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with Dover Corporation (Canada) Limited and Dover Engineered Systems, Inc. (the “Sellers”), both of which are wholly owned subsidiaries of Dover Corporation (“Dover”), pursuant to which Roller Bearing will acquire Dover’s Sargent Aerospace and Defense business for $500 million in cash, subject to certain adjustments, in accordance with the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement includes customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities from the respective parties, including, among others, covenants not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during the period between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, a two year non-competition agreement in favor of Roller Bearing and one year non-solicitation of employee covenant. Completion of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement (the “Closing”) is subject to customary closing conditions for transactions of this type, including, among others: (1) expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976; (2) subject to certain materiality exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Purchase Agreement; (3) compliance by the parties in all material respects with their respective obligations under the Purchase Agreement; and (4) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the Closing. The Purchase Agreement also contains customary termination rights for each of Roller Bearing and the Sellers, including if any of the conditions to Closing have not been satisfied by the End Date (as such term is defined in the Purchase Agreement). The Purchase Agreement also provides for indemnification rights with respect to, among other things, breaches of representations, warranties or covenants by either party. The obligations of Roller Bearing under the Purchase Agreement are guaranteed by the Company.

The Company intends to finance the acquisition by using cash available on its balance sheet and under a new $ 350 million revolving credit facility and a new $ 200 million senior term loan A. Roller Bearing and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. have executed a committed financing letter for the new revolving credit facility and senior term loan A. Roller Bearing intends to enter into contemporaneous with the Closing. The Closing is not subject to any financing condition. The Purchase Agreement is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. The brief summary of the material provisions of the Purchase Agreement set forth above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement filed as an exhibit hereto.

The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties by Roller Bearing and the Sellers as of specific dates. The representations and warranties reflect negotiations between the parties to the Purchase Agreement and are not intended as statements of fact to be relied upon by the Company’s shareholders; in certain cases, merely represent allocation decisions among the parties; may have been modified or qualified by certain confidential disclosures that were made between the parties in connection with the negotiation of the Purchase Agreement, which disclosures are not reflected in the Purchase Agreement itself; may no longer be true as of a given date; and may apply standards of materiality in a way that is different from what may be viewed as material by shareholders. As such, the representations and warranties are solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement and may be limited or modified by a variety of factors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs as of the date they were made or as of any other time and you should not rely on them as statements of fact. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.
