Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 15, 2016, Lumber Liquidators Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a voluntary agreement (the “Agreement”) with the Office of Compliance and Field Operations of the Consumer Product Safety Commission (“CPSC”) with respect to the laminate flooring products manufactured in and imported from China and sold in the United States from 2011 to May 2015 (the “Product”). The submission of the Agreement does not constitute an admission of any wrongdoing by the Company that either or a substantial product hazard exists, or that there is any information which reasonably supports the conclusion that the product contains a defect that could create a substantial product hazard. A copy of the joint press release announcing the entry into the Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company agreed, among other things, to continue to offer to its customers the voluntary testing program, at no cost to its customers, that the Company has had in place since May 2015 and to continue to provide testing data from this program to CPSC.

The above description of the Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
