The Agency Agreement falls under Rule 14A.34 and is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements set out in Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 of the Listing Rules and is exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirements.

(the "Nanlung"), a subsidiary wholly owned by China Southern Airlines Holding Company (the "CSAHC"), whose principal business activity is that of travel agent. CONNECTED TRANSACTION WITH NANLUNG

- (A) As China Airlines (Hong Kong) Co., Ltd. has ceased to act as agent of the Company in respect of its ticket sales, account settlement and the ground operations of its flights in Hong Kong region, for the purpose of maintaining the sales and operations of the Company in Hong Kong region, the Company entered into a new General Agency Agreement for Sale of Freight and Passenger Services (the "Agency Agreement") with Nanlung on May 16, 2006, having been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

the Company authorizes Nanlung to act as agent in its sales and account settlement and the ground operations of its flights in Hong Kong region, and that the rates of the various agency fees shall be determined after arm's length negotiation and shall not exceed those of the same category that prevail in the market, with a ceiling set at 6% of the revenue of the Company that is derived from freight and passenger services sold through the agency of Nanlung (the total amount shall not exceed HK$60 million). The agency fee is payable within the time period set out in the invoice to be delivered to the Company. The Company will fund the agency fee wholly by its internal resources.

As a company affiliated to CSAHC, Nanlung and the Company have entered into ticket agency agreements for the sale of air tickets. Nanlung charges commission on the basis of the rates stipulated by the Civil Aviation Administration of China ("CAAC") and International Air Transport Association ("IATA") which is from 5% to 12% of the ticket price for Hong Kong regional/international tickets. For the year ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2005, the amount of air tickets sold by the Company through the agency of Nanlung was HK$406 million and HK$502 million respectively. The increase was due to the rise in ticket sales conducted through Nanlung as the Company expanded its business operations. Based on the approximate amount of ticket sales and account settlement and the ground operations of its flights in the Hong Kong region, the annual cap under the Agency Agreement is set at RMB60 million for the entire term of the Agency Agreement. The Agency Agreement is considered to be on normal commercial terms, in the ordinary and usual course of business, fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholder as a whole by the independent non-executive Directors of the Company and has been approved by the independent non-executive Directors.

(B) IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE LISTING RULES

As Nanlung is a connected person of the Company under the Listing Rules, the Agency Agreement constitutes a continuing connected transaction for the Company under the Listing Rules. The Board of Directors, including the independent non-executive Directors, considers the Agency Agreement to be on normal commercial terms, in the ordinary and usual course of business, fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

The Board of Directors of the Company reviewed and discussed the above-mentioned connected transaction. Among the 10 Directors of the Company, four Directors, namely Liu Shao Yong, Wang Quan Hua, Zhao Liu An and Zhou Yong Qian, who were duly appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company by CSAHC and were therefore required to abstain from voting in respect of the Agency Agreement. All remaining six Directors who were entitled to vote unanimously approved the Agency Agreement on December 24, 2005. The number of Directors who participated in approving the Agency Agreement and the procedures were in compliance with the relevant requirements of Company Law of the People's Republic of China and the Articles of Association of the Company.

Pursuant to the Listing Rules, each percentage ratio (other than the profits ratio) for the Agency Agreement is on an annual basis less than 2.5%. The Agency Agreement falls under Rule 14A.34 and is only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements set out in Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 of the Listing Rules and is exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirements. The Company undertakes to comply with the rules in relation to annual review of continuing connected transactions
